THE LAST SAD RITES.—All that was mortal of Robert H. Harris, for many years an employe of this office, was borne to its last resting-place in St. Peter's graveyard, this forenoon. The funeral was well attended, the fellow-craftsmen of the deceased a turning out well.

PECULIAR ADVERTISEMENT.—The following notice was found posted up in a store at Port Hawkesbury, C. B.: "Strayed, from the premises of the subscriber, a quadruped of the spavin species. Apprehending that the present inclement state of the weather will be detrimental to his existence, any information respecting his geographical position will be thankfully received."

SAD DEATH.—John McInnis, a young man employed in the Steel Works at New Glasgow, N. S., met with an accident a few days ago, which has resulted in his death. While at work he was struck by a slamming door and knocked down from where he was standing, a distance of about nine feet, striking on his head and breaking a blood vessel. He lived but a few hours.

IN DISTRESS.—A Liverpool, N. S., despatch to the Halifax Herald says that the brigantine Corinne, Captain Byrne, from P. E. Island with 7,000 bushels of potatoes for a United States port, has arrived there with loss of sails, leaking badly, cargo damaged and crew refusing duty. A survey was held and she has been ordered to discharge for further survey. She reports heavy seas with terrific gales and extremely cold weather.

AFTER THE BONDS.—Harry A. McNeill, brother of the Saco Bank defaulter, left Biddeford on the 12th, for New York, and has probably, ere this, sailed on the steamer Bothnia, of the Cunard line. The sole object of the trip is to recover the stolen bank securities. He declined to state where he was going, but said he should be gone about six weeks. Frank C. McNeally, the defaulter will also go to Liverpool, but will probably sail from Montreal or Quebec.

AN ISLANDER KILLED.—A Bangor, Me., despatch reports that Joseph McDonald, of Charlottetown, was killed at John Crane's lumber camp, at Salmon Stream, one day last week. McDonald was about twenty-three years of age, and leaves a wife and one child to mourn their loss.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—The police committee have been informed of a serious charge against night officer Crossman. It is said that Sunday night, a week ago, while on duty, he released a prisoner detained in the lockup as a Scott Act witness, and accompanied him to a neighboring hotel, where, at the prisoner's expense, he indulged in whiskey or other intoxicating beverage. Crossman has been doing duty in the stead of Reid, recently resigned, but his appointment was not made permanent.—Moncton Times.

The auspicious event took place at Northcote, Minnesota, and the bride is Miss May Peters, daughter of Professor Peters of that town. His many friends in this city will be sure, join THE EXAMINER in congratulating Mr. Hales, and in wishing him and his fair partner a prosperous and happy career. At noon to-day the nuptials of Mr. Alfred Carlton, son of C. C. Carlton, Esq., Souris, and Miss Jessie Wear, eldest daughter of John Wear, Esq., were celebrated at the home of the latter in this city. A large attendance of the friends of the contracting parties were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Job Sheenton, at the conclusion of which the company sat down to a sumptuous repast. TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

A Rough Passage.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 17. The British steamer Hudson arrived yesterday from Carthage, Spain, after a thrilling passage of 30 days. On Dec. 29, lat. 31.46, lon. 34.18, wind increased to a terrific hurricane. The ship labored and strained terribly, and was at times completely submerged. Boats were stove in, cabins flooded, skylights broken and bridge damaged. On Jan. 9th the ship passed the British brig, Warren W., from Charlotte-town, P. E. I. She was partially dismasted, and the sails that were set were blown into ribbons. A red flag was flying from the rigging. No signs of life on board were visible.

Dissension Among the Parnellites.

LONDON, Jan. 17. Dissension exists among the Parnellites with regard to Parnell's proposed tactics during the coming session. Parnell is in favor of abstaining from obstructing to accelerate a rupture between the Nationalists and Conservatives on the English Local Government measure. The two Healey's and Dillon oppose such a programme. Parnell will convene a meeting of the party early in February.

The New Steamers.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17. Sir George and Lady Stephen arrived in the city to-day, on their return from England. Sir George says he has completed arrangements with the Imperial Government for a line of Pacific steamers. Contracts will be awarded at once. The steamers will probably be running by this time next year. He denies the rumor that the C. P. R. will ask the Dominion Government for money at the approaching session.

Nihilism Abroad.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 17. Gen. Greaser, prefect of St. Petersburg, on the night of January 12 ordered numerous houses to be searched. The result was the arrest of 887 persons. One house was set on fire by the occupants. Several Nihilist printing machines and a large number of revolutionary pamphlets were burned.

Routing the Police.

EDINBURG, Jan. 17. The police on the island of Lewis attempted to arrest a number of cotters for destroying fences on the sheep farms. The cotters resisted and charged the police, finally routing them. Troops are hastening to the assistance of the police.

The Terrible Results.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 17. Reports of loss of life in last week's storm continue to come in. The Evening Journal's list to-night numbers 150, and the Evening Dispatch 153. It is probable the final summary will show 200 names.

Decides Upon Concession.

LONDON, Jan. 17. The Cabinet, after two hours' session, to-day, decided upon a concession calculated to avert the Unionist' bolt on the Government bill.

Heavy Snowfall.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17. The heaviest snowfall of the season occurred to-day, thirteen inches falling up to 11 p. m.

Pugilistic.

LONDON, Jan. 17. Jack Davis has challenged Kilrain, Sullivan or Smith to fight for £500 a side.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Jan. 18—10 a. m. Fresh to strong winds; milder cloudy weather, with snow or rain.

Miscellaneous Notes.

How the bills come rattling in, and to pay them it takes lots of tin.

Ladies, this is leap year. Remember that you are entitled to all its benefits and it's your own fault if you do not appreciate the same.

A stable to hold 400 horses is to be built at Montreal by the C. P. R. Co., to accommodate the rapidly increasing trade in shipping ranch horses to England.

I hold that no man deserves to be crowned with honor whose life is a failure. He who only lives to eat and drink and accumulate money is a failure. The world is no better for his living in it. He never wiped a tear from a sad face, never kindled a fire on a frozen hearth. I repeat with emphasis that he is a failure. There is no flesh in his heart. His worshippers no God but gold.—Green, 1906, B. C.

A Grave Confession.

I went to where my beloved slept,
The sleep that awakens not,
My heart felt breaking, and I wept
Hot tears, on the sacred spot.
And soon again, I went to his grave,
With flowers to strew about,
The flowers in life he used to crave,
Which he recognized, no doubt.
Again I sought the all-hallowed ground,
And planted his little plot
With flowers, like those I saw around,
And his loved forget-me-not.
When next I went it was chill and cold,
'Twas my duty though, to go,
But I found no flowers in the mold,
'Twas only a drift of snow.
So I left the place, with good intent,
To fix it up in the spring,
But 'twas that winter, another gent,
Turned up, with a wedding ring.
