ON Saturday evening two petty thieves were noticed to operate through a broken pane of glass in the shop window of the Union House. The break in the glass was rather small for the admission of their hands, and wire hooks were formed to answer their purpose. With these they fished out several pipes, but before their booty increased to a large extent, they were noticed by the proprietor. He pursued them at a lively gait down Queen Street, but they succeeded in leaving his sight after passing the Commercial House corner.

ON Saturday night last, shortly after 9 o'clock, two young bipeds, acting in the capacity of Reynard, entered a hen coop situated a little off lower Queen street with the intention of relieving it of some of its Cochin occupants. In the darkness they slowly picked their steps toward the coop. As the one who led the way was about to pick a rooster from his perch, the other, who was walking in another direction, fell across a calf that was lying near the coop. At this juncture the door of the stable closed the calf commenced to bawl lustily and the owner appeared on the scene. The thieves, however, managed to effect an exit without apprehension.

THERE will be a splendid excursion from this city to Upton Park on Wednesday next, on board the steamer Southport, which will leave the Ferry Wharf at half-past one o'clock. The object of the excursion is to enable a large number of our citizens to attend at the Park on the occasion of the great trotting match between the "Fairy" and "French Sporter." The boat will land the excursionists at North River Bridge. The place of landing being within five minutes walk of the Park, excursionists will enjoy a pleasant walk across the fields. Intending picnicing parties should not lose this chance, as the surroundings of the Park are splendidly shaded and afford many pleasant places for lunching.

(Special Despatch to Examiner.)

LONDON, June 16.

The Austrian Government yesterday gave orders for the immediate mobilization of 80,000 men, so as to be ready for all emergencies.

The "Observer," however, says it has reason to believe that Austria and Russia have reached an understanding, by which the interests of Austria and Hungary will be protected in the same way that English interests are protected, by the agreement between Lord Salisbury and Count Schowaloff. However, the premature publication of the latter, by the "Globe," is generally believed to have been procured by Russian diplomacy with the object of quieting the excitement in Russia about the supposed concessions to England.

Advices from Constantinople say the reports that the Sultan's mind is affected are untrue; but there is no doubt the Sultan suffers from nervous agitation and is a prey to causeless apprehensions.

Ministers Layard and Fournier have made friendly representations to Safvet Pasha respecting the frequency of Ministerial changes and the banishment of important functionaries in consequence of the Sultan's distrust and groundless alarms.

A serious conflict has occurred at Pandrema between residents and refugees, and it is reported that several persons were killed.

The British Consul goes to the Rhodope mountains on Thursday to inquire into the condition of the destitute refugees there.

OTTAWA, June 15.

In the Quebec Legislative Council during the debate on the address, an amendment to the following effect was proposed by ex-Premier DeBoucherville: "That although convinced of the serious danger that would result to the liberties and privileges of the Province of Quebec by any modifications of the British North American Act, we will, however, give our best attention to the Bill when submitted to us."
