

Lobster Catches Are Poor

SUMMERSIDE — After one day's catch all signs are pointing to another poor season for lobster fishermen in this area. Weather conditions kept all but two of the Summerside fishermen from pulling their traps on opening day yesterday and the two who ventured out, brothers Cecil and Walter Somer were disappointed with their meager catches although they were unable to pull all of their traps. One report is that one boat pulled in 80 pounds while the other took in 40.

The remainder of the lobster boats played it safe by not facing the high winds and rough seas yesterday. Most of them are expected to sail to the fishing grounds early this morning. One spokesman from the Borden area stated that all indications pointed to one of the worst seasons ever in his area. He said that Cape Traverse fishermen had catches yesterday which amounted to almost nothing and he was pessimistic concerning the remainder of the season.

Reports are that lobster fishermen from the New Brunswick side of Northumberland Strait are having about the same success, especially in the Cape Tormentine and Murray Corner areas.

Reorganization Sought For PWC Alumni Ass'n

Former students of Prince of Wales College and present students who are interested, are invited to attend a meeting Thursday evening in Montgomery Hall to reorganize the Alumni Society of the college. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock. Hon. F. Walter Hyndman will preside.

Dr. Frank MacKinnon, principal of PWC, will address the meeting.

Mr. Hyndman was the last president of the alumni association which existed for some time but has not been active recently.

Graduates responsible for stirring new interest in the association explain that it is vitally important that a strong and active alumni association be formed as the years time will have the responsibility of naming seven members of the 13-member board of governors of the university that is to be.

Thursday's meeting will name a nominating committee which in turn will appoint a committee to enquire into the steps needed to reorganize the alumni association, and it will also appoint a temporary executive until such time as permanent officers are named, and a charter secured. The former association did not have a charter, it was explained.

Blood Donor Deficit Sparks Urgent Appeal

A total of 129 blood donors registered at Kinkora Regional High School yesterday afternoon to exceed the quota by nine, while just 115 of the hoped-for 150 attended the evening clinic at the Legion home in Eldon. Yesterday's deficit of 28, added to Monday's 87, resulted in a minus quantity of 115 for the first two days.

Ralph MacCarville, the chairman of the Kinkora clinic, expressed his gratification at the response from the residents of the area. His committee composed of Les and Ray Smith, plus Ray Kelly and Edward MacCardie, was assisted by volunteers representing the Kinkora CWL who also provided and served the refreshments to the donors.

The Eldon clinic was held at the Legion home there for the first time with Fred Panting again heading the Legion committee which was the sponsoring body. A marquee erected near the entrance to the Legion home was used for registering the donors, and added novelty to the occasion. However, the mosquitoes were prevalent, and vied with the Red Cross team for the donors' blood. Members of the Legion ladies' auxiliary were the volunteer assistants and supplied refreshments for the donors.

F.A.S. Jones, chairman of the provincial Red Cross blood donor committee, said last night that the shortfall in registrations during the first two days has created a serious situation, and unless the clinics being held at day at Morell Legion in the

STREET COMMITTEE

The street committee report showed that grass had been cut, sidewalks removed from certain streets that had been recently sub graded, bridges repaired. Three new stop signs were erected and two speed signs and a warning sign erected. Councilor Currie reported that one new street light had been installed on the corner of East Street and Glenelg Street and that a street light had been moved from its former position on Durham Street to corner of Durham and East Streets.

A letter was received from the Canadian National Railways stating that due to the fact that the engine-house had been torn down that they were reducing the amount of the valuation of their property in Georgetown by $1,000. The town receives a grant from the Canadian National Railways in lieu of taxes.

Applications were received from McConnell's Shop for a Centre, Lavandier's Lucky Dollar Store, Harry Yorston, Genevieve Solomon and Raymond Solomon for permission to erect signs of approximately four feet by eight feet in size on the street adjacent to their businesses. The council granted the requests, subject to the stipulations that the signs must be erected on a single pole or standard, with the sign on an arm and sufficiently high so not to interfere with the view of motorists. The street committee must approve the signs and their manner of erection.

Mayor Howard S. MacLean informed members of the Georgetown Town Council that recently a number of persons from a concern had visited the town and are interested in establishing a plant to process Irish Moss and other forms of seaweed.

If established this will be the third industry to locate in Georgetown having strong connections with northern Europe. Early this spring the official opening of Bathurst Marine was held and only a few weeks ago Gulf Garden Foods was opened.

ALICE-IN

Morse said the only conclusion he can draw from the White House briefing is that the war in Viet Nam will continue at its present level for the remainder of the year, while Secretary-General U Thant of the United Nations tries to arrange peace negotiations.

"We give Thant 116 days to make a peace in Viet Nam," he said. "After that, when Congress returns in January, I am satisfied the American war in Asia will be put into high gear that a national emergency will be declared, reservists and guardsmen will be called up and the United States will be placed on a war footing entirely comparable to that of the Korean War."

McCormack also agreed with statements by Johnson Monday that there is no substantial division in the United States over Viet Nam policy.

Asked the basis of the cautious optimism expressed by the how leaders, presidential press secretary Bill D. Moyers mentioned three points:

A sense of understanding between the executive and legislative branches of the U.S. government is helpful; reports of increased losses of the Viet Cong guerrillas came through during the weekend, and a feeling of general support in the country.

URGES CAUTION — Moyers, however, noted the president cautioned reporters Monday against saying he was talking glowingly on the situation in Viet Nam. "He is not," Moyers asserted.

In another aspect of the Viet Nam war, U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said Tuesday the Viet Cong terrorists had killed more than 2,000 local officials in South Viet Nam and caused thousands to flee from rebel-dominated areas.

He told a Senate subcommittee on refugees the number of refugees will increase because "they simply cannot stand any more Viet Cong terrorism."

ALICE-IN

By Premier Walter R. Shaw. Also discussed by the council was the meeting with Claude Smith, director of town planning and G. Keith Pickard, to be held August 25 to discuss the land use plan, recently submitted to the provincial government by Walter desjardins.

The plan, which the council now has available to it for study, is called "A Planning and Housing Study for the Town of Georgetown."

The date for the meeting was decided upon at a council meeting held in the council chambers Monday night, with Mayor Howard S. MacLean presiding and councillors Laviers, Currie, Johnson, MacConnell, MacLean and MacDonald in attendance.

TAX COLLECTIONS — It was decided that all poll tax arrears for the years 1964 and 1965 and property tax arrears for the year 1964 would be immediately handed to a solicitor for collection.

In regard to the meeting to be held in the town hall Friday night to discuss a permanent centennial project, the council will attend, along with representatives from all organizations in the town and interested citizens, to ascertain the most suitable project to be undertaken.

Several applications for building permits were before the council.

Approved was the application of Canadian Oil Co. Ltd. to erect a building 384 square feet ground floor space in size and install three tanks each of 10,000 gallons and one tank of 12,000 gallons. The tanks will be installed underground and loading and unloading facilities will also be erected. The location is on the west side of Weeks Crescent, where it meets Water Street.

The other building permit approved was an application from Steehart Landry to erect a small building on his property in which to store garden tools.

The town has completed arrangements and has leased the home of Mrs. Mabel MacLean on Grafton Street for a residence for the town policeman. Negotiations are in progress for the renting of office space in the federal building for a police office. Arrangements are being finalized for the placing of extra insurance on the policeman's car.

The police report for the month showed the amount of $340.50 turned in on fines collected.

Three new stop signs were erected and two speed signs and a warning sign erected. ## FAMILY DOCTOR

Stating that the risk of having Mongoloid children increases with the age of the mother, she said the risk for a woman under 25 is only one in 3,000 births, whereas for women over 45, it jumps to one in 40. For all ages, the risk increases three-fold for a woman who already has had one Mongoloid child.

On the brighter side of the picture, Dr. Thompson said the average expectant mother can be told there is a 94-per-cent chance that a newborn baby will be well formed and healthy.
