

Hoyt Wilhelm, Lou Burdette Seen As All-Star Starters

By JACK HAND
PITTSBURGH (AP). — Baltimore's Hoyt Wilhelm and Milwaukee's Lou Burdette are expected to be the starting pitchers in Tuesday's all-star baseball game at Forbes Field.

Managers Casey Stengel of the American League and Fred Haney of the National League will make their official announcements this morning when the batting orders also will be released to newsmen.

Stengel, New York Yankee skipper who will be running his ninth all-star club, has hinted strongly that the Baltimore knuckle ball pitcher would be his starter. On a recent visit to Baltimore, he told catcher Gus Triandos of the Orioles, "you are my catcher and you are going to be catching somebody close to you."

Wilhelm, a non-playing member of the 1953 all-star squad in the National League, has enjoyed a remarkable comeback this year as a starter. He won his first nine games before he ran into trouble.

FIREMAN DUREN

Stengel is expected to give the nationals a good look at Ryne Duren, his Yankee relief ace who is red hot. He probably will save Duren for the late innings, using either Chicago's Early Wynn or Detroit's Jim Bunning in the middle innings. That would leave Chicago's Billy Pierce, Kansas City's Bud Daley and the Yanks' Whitey Ford for trouble spots.

If Haney decides against Burdette, his 11-game winner, he might go with Don Drysdale, Los Angeles Dodger ace whose side-arm delivery is so effective against righthanded batters. There is only one lefthanded batter, second baseman Nellie Fox of Chicago, in the American starting lineup.

Warren Spahn, 36-year-old southpaw ace of the Braves' staff, would be the logical choice if the American batting order weren't jammed with so many righthanders.

When Stengel starts to run in his left-handed pinchhitters, like Ted Williams of Boston and Yogi Berra of New York after the first three innings, Haney probably will switch to a left hander—either Spahn or San Francisco's lanky Philadelphia righthander Johnny Antonelli. Gene Conley, who was traded away by Haney last spring, is another possibility for the middle innings.

TOP RELIEF MEN

Haney has two of the best relief men in the National League in his bullpen for the late innings. They are Roy Face, Pittsburgh's sensational fireman with his fork ball, and Don Elston, capable Chicago Cub righthander who was named Saturday as a replacement for the ailing Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell of St. Louis.

The National is a slight 6 to 5 favorite in the Pittsburgh park although the American holds a 15-10 edge in the series. This is only the first of two all-star games this year, with the second set for Aug. 3 at Los Angeles.

With only two weeks left before the opening of the annual provincial prize meet, for the next two Saturday's competition among the riflemen is expected to get tougher each week. To date 36 marksmen have indicated their intention of taking part in the annual affair and about 30 more are expected.

2 Marksmen Tie At Shoot

The latest word from Detroit is that Al Kaline probably will be ready to go in centre field. Kaline said that he had to make a final check with his doctor today. He has been out for several days after undergoing corrective surgery for a checkbone fracture suffered June 18.

Sgt. R. L. Coles and Lt. R. Kennedy registered equal totals at the weekly prize shoot conducted by the P.R.A. at the Snow Point Range, Saturday. By virtue of having the better score at 800 yards first senior money went to Sgt. Coles. Both marksmen had 115 out of a possible 125 points.

Marks Beaten At Track Meet

ST. LAMBERT, Que. (CP)—Three teen-agers from the greater Toronto area—two girls and a boy—put on a sensational show Saturday in the windup of the record-riddled, two-day Canadian track and field championships.

Although the final reckoning showed only three Canadian open and native records broken and four others tied, the assault on Quebec provincial open records was merciless. Some 100 scores were wiped out. Even second- and third-place finishers sometimes had a hand in the wrecking.

Champion Given Roaring Welcome

GOETTBORG, Sweden (AP)—Isomar Johansson Saturday night received a roaring welcome as he returned home with the world's heavyweight boxing championship.

The handsome, 26-year-old fighter, Sweden's first world boxing champion, denied reports that he would become an American citizen.

"I like it best at home. That's why I am here now," Johansson said he has received many offers but had turned most of them down. One he rejected was an American bid of $250,000 for the film rights to his life.

Russian Star Net Winner

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Russia's 18-year-old Thomas Lajus won the Wimbledon boys' junior tennis title Saturday, defeating Ronald Barnes of Brazil 6-2, 6-4.

Eddie Arcaro Set To Start

NEW YORK (AP)—Jockey Eddie Arcaro was given the green light to resume riding by his physician Saturday but he is not expected to be back in the saddle until the Jamaica meeting opens July 15.

Arcaro suffered a concussion, sprains and bruises when his mount, Black Hills, fell during the running of the Belmont Stakes June 18.

Dr. Alexander Kaye, physician for the Jockey Guild, said "Eddie can return—never he wants to."

MR. AND MRS. FARMER... HERE IS AN AD WORTH READING!

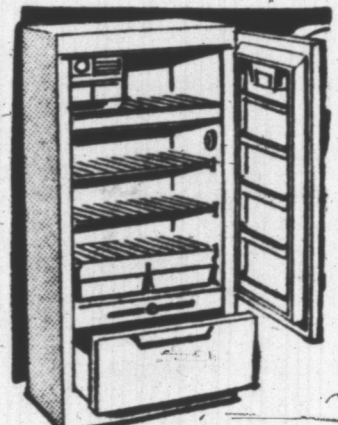

... and so you see, son ...

... our land today hasn't got the minerals in it that it had when I was a young gaffer. It took me a while to figure that out because I s'pose I was a little old fashioned and hard to change, but I know now that the farm you've just taken over, more than likely is lacking in phosphorus. Well, you can't grow hay—even alfalfa—or grain or anything else that has enough phosphorus in it to give your milk cows what they need to keep up in their milk flow. I learned this the hard way—by seeing our cows' milk drop down more than it should ... so I'm just passing on this advice to you now that you've married and taken over that hundred acres that you ...
