Junior League Out Of Action

By JIM CULLEN

The Charlottetown and District Junior Hockey League will be out of action for approximately the next two weeks, due to the fact that the college teams (PWC and St. Dunstan's) have several players who are not from the immediate area and will be travelling to their respective homes for the festive season. The league executive reasoned a brief recess would be better than having the collegians icing teams minus some of their key performers.

Their has been a league meeting scheduled tentatively for December 27 by league president, Al Rogers. We contacted Mr. Rogers last evening to inquire about a rumor that the St. Dunstan's Junior Varsity club is going to be pulled out of the league in favor of the St. Dunstan's High School aggregation under the coaching of well known veteran local hockey campaigner, Bert Steel.

The league president told us he had heard the rumor, as well, but nothing has been done officially and that he presumes the situation will be discussed at the league meeting scheduled for the Christmas recess. We feel the High School team is better suited for the junior loop, as they have the nucleus of last season's Legion juvenile team which was a big attraction in the previous season. The junior varsity aggregation took a couple of bad drubbings at the hands of Rogers Rangers. The Rangers lost an exhibition game by a 6-3 count with the SDHS club, and we feel the Steel coached squad would provide better league balance, if they are entered in the loop.

Mr. Rogers mentioned that there will also be something done to bolster the North River junior club when action resumes in the league. The North River lads have the nucleus of a good club and with a few additions should be able to come up to par.

The Prince of Wales club with Billy Mulligan at the helm will be going with their present line-up, although one or two additions may possibly be made to aid Mulligan's forces.

Tid Bits From Here And There

Sandy's Royals have engaged the German National Hockey team for an exhibition battle at the Charlottetown Forum on Monday, January 25th. The action is scheduled to get underway at 8.00 p.m. All members of Sandy's Royals have a supply of tickets to sell and anyone wishing to attend the game should get their tickets early as a full house is expected to make their way to the Wes Trainor "Ice Palace" to get a look at International Hockey. The Royals will be busy for the next couple of weeks practicing International rules in preparation for their tilt with the Germans.

New York Rangers have named Bert Olmstead, former National League star, director of player personal, General Manager Emile Francis announced Sunday. Olmstead who starred for 13 seasons with Chicago, Montreal and Toronto, will concentrate on player development and scouting throughout the circuit.

Charlie Reynolds, 87, once called the dean of U.S. professional golfers, died at his home in Columbia, S.C. Sunday. In 1940 Tom Walsh, president of the U.S. Professional Golfers' Association, noted Reynolds had been a golf pro for 40 years and called him the dean of U.S. golf professionals.

We saw what we thought was the nicest goal we have ever witnessed in Saturday's game between the Chicago Black Hawks and the Montreal Canadiens. We are referring to Bobby Hull's second marker when he and Phil Esposito combined on a brilliant passing play to deaden the twines in the Montreal cage.

Gilles Marcotte who accompanied 'Hap' Emms, in the recently held provincial hockey school, as demonstrator for Mr. Emms blinked the red light for the Niagara Falls Flyers as the Flyers and St. Catherines Black Hawks battled to a 3-3 stalemate in OHA junior 'A' competition Sunday.

The Enman Drug Combines are starting to come to live in the PCIEL and they pulled a squaker out of the Summerside air base on Sunday as they shaded the air man 6-5. Dave Martin, who posses a lot of hockey ability in a small package, is a big cog in the Combines machine this season and Dave is led his mates to victory Sunday as he came up with a 'hat trick'.

Ted Lindsay continues to astound hockey fans as he excells at a supposedly young man's game at the age of 39 after a four year retirement in hockey's greatest league. Lindsay fired the winning goal for the Detroit Red Wings on Sunday night against the Toronto Maple Leafs. This was Ted's seventh marker of the season, 'not bad for an old fellow!'

TEAMWORK IN ACTION

Montreal's Jacques Laperriere (2) flashes in to retrieve the puck as his teammate, goalie Charlie Hodge, sprawls in front of the net in the second period of the Montreal Canadiens-New York Rangers game Sunday at New York's Madison Square Garden. The Ranger's Vic Hadfield (11) couldn't get to the puck to take advantage of the situation. Montreal won, 3-2. (AP Wirephoto).

Duff, Hicke Involved In Rangers, Canadiens Trade

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League announced Monday night they have acquired Dick Duff from New York Rangers in a trade involving four players.

General - manager Sam Pollock of the Canadiens said the Canadien right winger Bill Hicke and goaler Jean - Guy Morrisette to the Rangers for Duff and winger Dave McComb.

Hicke was sent by Canadiens to Cleveland Barons of the American Hockey League two weeks ago Morrisette also has been with the Barons.

Duff, who went to the Rangers in a trade last year with Toronto Maple Leafs, will play for the Canadiens Wednesday night when they meet the Rangers in Montreal.

McComb now is with St. Paul of the the Central Professional League.

Duff, 28, began his NHL career with the Maple Leafs in the 1954-55 season and was with the Toronto club until traded to Rangers in the 1963-64 season. His best season was in 1958-59 when he scored 29 goals and assisted on 24 others for a 53-point total.

Morrisette, 22, turned professional with Omaha of the Central Pro League two seasons ago. He started last season with Quebec Aces but then was sent to the Barons.

Hicke, 26, played five seasons with Canadiens and was on the bench for most of the early part of this season before being sent down to Barons. His best season was in 1961-62 when he scored 20 goals and had 31 assists.

McComb, 23, played with Kitchener-Waterloo and Sudbury of the defunct Eastern Pro League before going to St. Paul last season.

Northern Dancer, Canada's Sports Performer Of 1964

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

Northern Dancer—who else? —is the outstanding individual Canadian sports performer of 1964.

Nobody wanted this three-year-old colt for $25,000 at owner E. P. Taylor's annual pre-priced yearling sales because, they said, he was a little horse—15.2 hands—and probably wouldn't be able to stand the rigors of racing. But he was a terror at the track and now, retired to stud because of a freak injury, he's a potential millionaire.

The country's sports editors and sportscasters participating in the 30th annual Canadian Press year-end poll voted overwhelmingly in favor of the Dancer as the individual performer. Not only that, they said his brief but famaslic campaign on North American tracks provided the Canadian sports thrill of the year.

The majority of the 148 voters didn't bother to list a reason for their selections. Look at the record, they said.

The horse that Taylor was stuck with became the greatest Canadian - born thoroughbred the sport has known. He captured the imagination of Canadians who wouldn't know a foreleg from a saddle. Some even wanted to parade him to city hall in Toronto.

WON TWO JEWELS

The Dancer warmed up to a great year with smashing triumphs in the Flamingo Stakes, the Florida Derby and the Blue Grass Stakes leading to the Kentucky Derby, a classic that no Canadian-bred had won in its 89-year history and the first gem of the triple crown. The Dancer reaped all that.

He not only beat Hill Rise, the favorite, but established a record time of two minutes flat over the 1¼-mile distance.

There were still doubters around a couple of weeks later for the Preakness, the second jewel. Hill Rise again went to the starting gate as favorite and Northern Dancer romped to a 2½-length victory over The Scoundrel with Hill Rise a distant third.

His triple crown hopes were smashed in the rugged 1¼-mile Belmont at New York on June 8 when he finished third behind Quadrangle and Roman Brother. The son of Nearctic-Natalma came home to Toronto for what turned out to be his last race—the Queen's Plate. He won that handily by seven lengths, and then disaster struck.

STAYING IN CANADA

The game little colt, who had never been out of the money in 18 starts, nicked himself and suffered a bowed tendon on his left foreleg in a workout at Belmont on an off-track in July. He was retired to stud Nov. 6 after a record of 14 wins, two seconds and two thirds and Canadian record total purses of $580,647.

While the colt is standing at the National Stud Farm at Oshawa, Ont., voters in Canada and the U.S. haven't forgotten him. AA month ago he was named North America's leading three-year-old in balloting by the Thoroughbred Racing Association's board of selection, the first time a Canadian-bred had won the award.

Earlier, he was named Canada's horse of the year for 1964.

The CP poll results as the individual performer and thrill of the year were runaways for the Taylor-bred colt.

VOTES FOR HUMANS

In the individual category, some gave their votes to track stars Bill Crothers of Markham, Ont., and Harry Jerome of Vancouver; hockey players Jean Beliveau and Charlie Hodge of Montreal Canadiens, Stan Mikita of Chicago Black Hawks and Gordie Howe of Detroit Red Wings; football players Tom Brown of British Columbia Lions and Tommy Grant of Hamilton Tiger - Cats; boxer George Chuvalo of Toronto; jockey Ron Turcotte of Grand Falls, N.B.; bronco - buster Marty Wood of Bowness, Alta., and Doug Rogers of Vancouver, Olympic judo silver medallist.

Among them, they received only 27 of the 148 votes.

One Crothers booster, Russ Taylor of CFCF Montreal, said he felt it was "inconceivable that a beast (Northern Dancer) should even be considered in any category but horse racing."

The balloting was much the same for the sports thrill of the year.

Others mentioned here included:

B.C. Lions' 34-24 Grey Cup football victory over the favored Hamilton Tiger - Cats; Canada's gold medal in four-man bobsled at the winter Olympics in Austria, a feat all the more impressive because there isn't a run in Canada on which to practise; and the pair oars gold medal at the summer Olympics in Tokyo won by Roger Jackson of Toronto and George Hungerford of Vancouver, a pair not considered strong enough to crack the Vancouver Rowing Club-University of British Columbia eight.

Corran Ban Trims Vernon River

Corran Ban trimmed Vernon River 8-3 at the St. Dunstan's rink in CYO hockey Sunday night. F. Morrison and H. Morrison led the winners to their victory with hat tricks. N. Morrison banged the other two markers for Corran Ban.

L. Hynes with two and B. Walsh scored for Vernon River.

Montague Curlers On The Increase

MONTAGUE — Twenty one new curling members and one associate member were voted into membership in the Montague Curling Club at a general meeting held in the clubrooms on Tuesday night, December 15.

President Douglas H. Coffin, who chaired the meeting, welcomed the new members into the curling fraternity and expressed his pleasure with the keen interest in curling and with the high proportion of active curlers who have joined the club this year. Although some members were lost through transfers to other areas, a significant increase is being recorded in the active curling membership. He stated that the club executive looked forward to one of the most successful seasons of curling in Montague.

Several items of business concerning improvements to the clubrooms and allocation of ice times to the Ladies and School boy and school girl curlers were also attended to, after which the meeting adjourned.

A rink skipped by Peter Sinclair won the Christmas Turkeys at a bonspiel which concluded on Monday night at the Montague Curling Club. Ten rinks competed in the Bonspiel which was a two game total point competition and the winners amassed a total of 146 points. Other members of the winning rink were: Mate, Ellery Shaw, Second, Lorne Stewart and Lead Harry Galloway.

Eleven rinks are now competing in Wightman's Steak competition, a point and double knockout bonspiel which will be played off before Christmas.

Fort Augustus Ties Tracadie

Fort Augustus and Tracadie played to a 3-3 tie in a CYO Hockey League game at the St. Dunstan's Rink Sunday night.

G. J. Smith was the only player to score more than once, as he potted a brace of goals for Fort Augustus. P. Trainor was the other marksmen for Fort Augustus. MacQuaid, Kelly and Walsh replied for Tracadie.

Football Approaches World Series Monday

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Professional football will approach baseball's World Series player shares for the first time Sunday when each winner in the Cleveland-Baltimore game at Cleveland for the National Football League title will pocket more than $8,000. Each loser will get more than $6,000.

In the 1964 World Series, each winning St. Louis Cardinal received $8,622.19 and each losing New York Yankee was paid $5,300.29 after a seven-game series.

The huge capacity of the Cleveland Park with its 77,096 seats, plus standing room, means that about 82,000 people will see this game at the stadium.

The Cleveland club stopped taking regular ticket orders Saturday when a sellout was assured. It is expected that the gross receipts from ticket sales will reach $635,000

The big money comes from television. The Columbia Broadcasting System which will carry the game to 98.1 per cent of the nation—with the Cleveland area blacked out—has paid $1,800,000 for the rights. Of this money, $900,000 goes into the player pension fund, $180,000 to the league office and the remaining $720,000 into game receipts.

Adding ticket sales and television money, the actual game receipts will come to $1,300,000 of which 70 per cent goes to the players. Off the top of the players' shares comes $100,000 to the second-place teams and $75,000 to the third-place clubs. That should leave about $735,000 for the Browns and Colts to be split 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser.

How large the individual shares will be depends on the club's voting. With a 40-man player limit and some injured men and taxi squad players to receive consideration, each could have more than 50 shares.

The pro football record for player shares was set last year at Chicago when each Chicago Bear got $5,899.77 and each New York Giant $4,218.15.

Back in the old days of the first playoff in 1933, each winning Bear received $210.34 and each losing Giant $140.22

P.V.I. Starts Winter Season

By G. L. RAYNER

Hi! This is the first column on sports news from P.V.I. (That stands for the Provincial Vocational Institute for those of you in the dark).

Intramural basketball started here Wednesday with Phil Acorn's Hot Shots going down to a 13-12 defeat at the hands of Ken Campbell's Lakers. Due to illness of coach Campbell, one Ken Squarebriggs yelled them on to victory. The game, incidentally consisted of ten minute halfs straight time because of the short noon hour. This and inexperience accounted for the low score. However these will improve as the season moves along.

The next game in this league will feature Gerard Hines' Trotters against Squarebriggs' Celtics.

In another game played on December 16th, the visitors, Gary Chipman's Rebels were defeated by our Warriors. Both teams played very hard all through the game. The Warriors who took a quick lead but were behind in the first half came up in teh last quarter to win by a score of 44-39 over the Rebels. Top scorer for the Warriors was Gerard Hines with 13 points and for the Rebels, St. Clair Ellsworth with 15 points. So much for basketball.

On Thursday night at the Forum our school team coached by our prized teacher defeated the Rustico Flyers by a score of 2-1. Net minder George Crawford for the P.V.I. team played a Johnny-on-the-spot game. We have more games coming up later so bye for now.

Souris Curling

The following is the curling draw for Tuesday, December 22.

7-9 p.m.

Ice 1 — L. Griffin, W. Dingwell, N. MacPhee, T. Poole vs. C. Delaney, H. Larter, A. Mallard, E. MacDonald.

Ice 2 — J.R. MacDonald, D. Sheirs, C. Gallant, H. Poole vs. M. Reid, C. MacDonald, E. MacSwain, J. Doucette.

9-11 p.m.

Ice 1 — B. MacLean, J.D. MacDonald, W. Fudge, B. Rowen vs: R. Coffin, C. MacDonald, M. Fitzpatrick, M. Birt.

Ice 2 — J. Campbell, E. Glenn, M. LaBrech, F. Underhay vs. E. Boerties, C. Richards, J. MacIntosh, R. Peters.

Don Shula Plans No New Starting Look

By GEORGE BOWEN

BALTIMORE (AP) — Don Shula began Monday polishing the most important game plan of his young coaching career. But there will be no starting new look by the Baltimore Colts against Cleveland Browns Sunday for the National Football League championship.

"When you've come this far along in the season, you go with what has been successful," said Shula in the solitude of his office.

His assistants and the 40-man squad had the day to themselves.

Shula, 34, and coaching in a championship game in only his second season, said in an interview:

"You play every game shooting the works with one idea—to win it. You don't ever hold things back just for the sake of not showing them to the next opponent."

Both coaches know pretty well what to expect, Shula said. "We've exchanged five movies with Cleveland and we scouted them the last two games," he reported.

About all he will give the Colts is "a few new wrinkles we hope will throw Cleveland off" from the patterns they expect.

"Your game plan is pretty much dictated by the style of the team your're playing," explained Shula. "You try to beat what they do best."

Quarterback John Unitas, who will carry out Shula's plan, was in accord with his coach on the week ahead.

"You prepare for the championship like any other game," said the veteran of Colt title winners in 1958 and 1959.

Andy Bathgate Out For 5 Weeks

TORONTO (CP) — Defenceman Bobby Baun may be back in the Toronto Maple Leaf lineup before the Leafs' Friday and Saturday night series with Chicago Black Hawks, but chances are slim that Andy Bathgate will return before five weeks

Baun is being treated for a charley-horse in his right thigh and, if the clotting dissolves quickly, he could be skating by Wednesday and playing by the weekend. But Leaf doctors say Bathgate's broken thumb won't be ready for action for at least five weeks.

Both players were injured during the Leafs' 3-1 loss to Detroit Red Wings Sunday night.

Either Duane Rupp or Larry Hillman, both of Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League, will replace Baun while Bathgate, Leafs' top scorer and sixth in the National Hockey League race, will be replaced by either Jim Pappin or Eddie Shack.

Chuvalo Fights Patterson Feb. 1

NEW YORK (AP)—The heavyweight elimination bout between former champion Floyd Patterson of New York and George Chuvalo of Toronto will be held Monday, Feb. 1, and shown on closed circuit television.

The original date for the 12-rounder was set for Jan. 29 but Ned Irish, president of Madison Square Garden, said Monday the date was switched to Monday night to accommodate theatres and arenas.

Irish said the New York area would be blacked out of the closed circuit television. There will be no home television.

Lester M. Malitz, Inc. of New York has been granted the closed circuit distribution rights. The Malitz organization also will handle network radio and community antenna negotiations.

Practice Called

There will be a hockey practice at the Charlottetown Forum for both Hampshire teams tonight, Tuesday, at 7:00 p.m.

All players in "B" who wish to attend may do so.

Prince County Hockey League

All games in the Prince County Hockey League have been temporarily halted because of the Christmas break.

Action will resume Sunday afternoon, December 27 when Borden's torrid Nationals, who have won four of their last five games play RCAF Eagles in a showdown battle for first place. Borden are two points out. The game will be played at the RCAF base at 2.30.

The Nats, right on the heels of the RCAF have beaten the Airmen once in three games, 5-2.

Borden's Ev White and Al Andrews, both in a scoring rampage are one-two among individual scorers. White has 14 goals and 12 assists; Andrew six goals and 12 assists.

Eagle goalie Jerry Campbell lead net minders with a 3.60 average, allowing 36 goals in 10 games.
