Georgetown And Mt. Stewart Win

The Georgetown Eagles showed power at the plate and on the mound when they beat Morell in Georgetown yesterday 8-0 in a Kings County Baseball League game. In other action, Mount Stewart defeated Cardigan 14-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Art Coffin.

At Georgetown, Buddy McCullough went the route for the Eagles and was twirling a no-hitter up until the seventh inning when he was tagged for one hit he also gave up another hit in the eighth inning to end up with a brilliant two-hitter. L. Murphy, hurled for the losers and was charged with all eight runs. Dennis Clory and Buddy McCullough were best at hitting his offerings as each garnered two hits in five appearances. Morell hits were by Kelly and Coffin.

In Mount Stewart - Cardigan contest Art Coffin was the whole story as he struck out a total of 14 batters while only issuing two free passes to first.

Billy Conohan started the game for Cardigan but was relieved in the fifth inning by Don LeClair. They gave up a combined total of 18 hits.

Bud McIntyre and Ross Pigott paced the Mt. Stewart attack, each collecting three hits in five ties. The longest hit of the day was a booming homerun by Elliott Hendricker in the fourth inning.

Floyd Jay was the umpire.

Archie Moore Pays Tribute To Doc Kearns

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Archie Moore cited a critical point in his first fight with Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., in paying tribute to the ring savvy of Jack (Doc) Kearns, who died in Miami, Fla., Sunday.

Moore, managed by Kearns since 1952, defended his world light heavyweight championship against Durelle, holder of the Canadian title in the same division, in Montreal on Dec. 10, 1958.

It was the end of the fifth round, Moore recalled, and Durelle had just knocked him down for the fifth time.

"When I came back to my corner, Doc cleverly withheld the stool so I had no place to sit down. He said 'stand up. See your wife waving to you? I said 'where?' He said 'right behind Durelle's corner. Wave at her to let her know you're all right.'

"This was a trick. I waved but Durelle thought I was waving to him; it gave him the illusion I was in good shape. It was one of the cleverest things Doc ever did for me."

Moore went on to score four knockdowns and retain his title with an 11th-round knockout.

CO-OWNER proudly holds Tammany Hall after winning The Evening Patriot Inaugural pace at Charlottetown Driving Park Saturday night. Driver is Clarke Smith. Times were 2.05:2 and 2.05:3.

Upset Features Big Race At Local Oval Saturday

Over 3,000 wildly exicted patrons saw one of the most thrilling harness races in years, when Tammany Hall, owned by Stan Mayhew and Jack Brown, grabbed The Evening Patriot $2500 Inaugural at Charlottetown Driving Park Saturday night.

The six-year-old gelding by His Honour, dam Mary L. Gouman, was a rank outsider with the bettors as the horses took their warmups for that opening mile. Don MacKenzie's Bob Brook, Doug Hill's Dominion Byrd and June Byrd from Greenbrier Farms were the popular choices.

Clarke Smith refused to let the experts annoy him. He left in seventh position and staged a canny race throughout. He stuck at the rail until he felt his time had come and away he went around those in front. It was strictly a battle with Dominion Byrd in the homelane, but Clarke got his gelding home with plenty to spare.

The next trip Dominion Byrd led to the head of the stretch but Hill's roan horse couldn't beat off the challenge of Tammany Hall in the stretch.

Times were great, 2.05:2 and 2.05:3, and all drivers got a big hand for their fine drives. Another Island pacer, Greenbrier Farms' June Byrd, was third in each trip.

It was a sensational night of racing from start to finish. James' Roach MacGregor began things by giving the fine two-year-old filly, Eloise Wick, a mark of 2.14:4. This baby, a Greenbrier Farms entry, looked like a veteran campaigner in racing to her easy victory.

Alyre Pineau grabbed both dashes of a conditioned pace with his Slippy Queen. The six-year-old Abner T Clegg gelding took a new mark of 2.10:1 in winning his first trip.

Garth's Best was the night's other double victor. Emmet Cocoboy' Bernard drove Col. Dan MacKinnon's seven-year- old horse to a new tab of 2.11:1.

Poplar Flash and Avalon Worthy split honors in an exciting trot. The Flash shaded Avalon in 2.08:3 but the Worthy Boy horse edged the Flash in 2.09 in the finale.

Best pay of the night was $23.00 to win on Tammany Hall.

The first double, Eloise Wick and Slippy Queen paid $21.70, the second, Slippy Queen and Garth's Best, $9.00. The quinella was worth $4.20, Garth's Best and White Lady, and the exactor of Poplar Flash and Avalon Worthy brought a return of $8.70.

Prior to the opening dash, one minute's silence was observed out of respect to the memory of the late Cecil J. Stewart, Charlottetown Driving Park president who died Friday night.

The presentation of The Evening Patriot cooler was made following the sedond trip of the feature by W.A. 'Bill' Ledwell, city editor of the afternoon daily.

Nine Dashes Set For Tonight's Fans

Fresh from the great success of Saturday night's program, Charlottetown Driving Park has another stellar card ready for its patrons tonight.

Classifier Frank Acorn has come through with another nine dash menu and it looks like a real thriller from start to finish.

Dashes four and eight must be regarded as the main attractions. Here Ralph Annear has his dad's Simocoe's Magic, going away on the rail. This makes the Magic a tough one to beat. However, the five other starters are a tough lot. They are Helen's Dream, Blue Sky Lark, Santiago Tennessee Riley and Janet M.

Races five and nine could indeed give the feature a run for the spotlight. In these trips there are eight ready for the word and the bettors are most likely to encouner a great difficulty picking the victors. Ida Budlong has the number one position in that first mile and her competition will come from Paula Clegg, Princess Mark, Mighty Warrior, Chief Ozaukee, Dunlop B, Here Am I and Torrid Waters.

Five other exciting dashes round out one of the best looking programs of the 1963 season.

First dash goes at 8 o'clock.

Racing Holds Spotlight In Maritimes Saturday

Harness racing held the spotlight in the Maritimes over the weekend with plenty of fast times and lots of excitement being the rule rather than the exception. High pays were scarce with mostly favorites crossing the wire in front.

In Saint John King O'Day captured the second leg of the Tricity Invitational Pace at Saint John Exhibition Park Raceway Saturday.

The slick pacer, which had a miserable 1962 season, hit the wire in 2:10.2 and 2:10.3 with Eldon Kirkpatrick on the bike. King O'Day is owned by C. C. Wilson of Lancaster. The victories were King's second and third of the season.

Michael Mite followed King O'Day to the wire in both dashes of the $700 event. King's win in the fifth race paid $12.60 for a win ticket and set up a $56.70 quinella return with Michael Mite.

A three-year-old bay gelding, Mark Purdue, owned and driven by Millet Coughlan won the first race in 2:13.3 — a record for this pacer.

Mark Purdue also won the fourth race of the night, hitting the wire in 2:15.3. Time's Choice lowered its mark from 2:18 to 2:14.2 in the second race. Beware and Time's Choice returned daily double winners $120. There were 36 winners. Time's Win paid $37.80.

Market Report and Anoconda were single heat winners.

The Exactor on Anoconda and El Dora Pocahantas paid $17.80.

At Truro, Peter Smart was the only double dash winner on the eight-dash harness racing card Saturday night and turned the fastest time of the night — a 2:11 4-5 in the first race.

Single winners were Wamesit Smokey, Josedale Clansman, Adios Peach, Belmont Alex, Lord Lakeburn and Coronation Lass. Pays were low.

In Sackville Kinny Forbes and Royal Showers were double dash winners on the eight-dash racing card Saturday which saw Royal Showers turn in a 2:08 mile, the fastest time this season at the Downs.

Single winners were Rhythm Time, King Clegg, Mchayes and Truro Millie. The highest pay of the night was a $49.70 exactor on Truro Millie and Meadow Day. Other pays were low.

Rain at Moncton forced postponement of nine dash harness racing cards at Brunswick Downs Saturday night. The race card will be staged tonight (Monday).

Over in Sydney Ebens Ace, won both heats of the featured invitational trot and pace here Saturday night.

The six-year-old won in 2:10.4 the first time out and then came on to repeat in 2:08.4 in the seventh. This was the fastest time for the night.

Ebens Ace was the lone double winner. Borderview Marie, Barby Tag, Jusys Beauty, Mr. Thunderbolt, Christena Chief and Grand Miss Volo were single winners.

The exactor combination of Grand Miss Volo and Dry Scott paid $107.90. Other pays were low.

Tyne Valley Beats Souris

Tyne Valley defeated the Souris Crossbones 6-4 in a game at Souris over the weekend.

E. Arsenault was the winning pitcher and he was helped out by H. Ramsay. They gave up a combined total of 2 hits, they struck out 13 and walked 6. The Souris team used a total of four pitchers. Bert Paquet was the loser and he was relieved by James Cheverie, Ronald Cheverie and Gerald Clinton. They gave up a total of 8 hits, walked 5 and struck out 7.

Ted Reevey Gains Berth On Willingdon Cup Team

ST. ANDREWS, N.B. (CP) — Ted Reeves of Riverside Golf and Country Club gained a berth on the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island Golf Association's Wellington Cup team in a 36-hole playoff here Sunday.

Reevey, recent winner of the Riverside Invitational, carded 18-hole rounds of 73-77 for a 36-hole gross of 150. Clubmate Joe Streeter, who led all golfers from the five association sectional tournaments with a 72-hole gross of 289 in the southern sectional, field rounds of 75-77 for a 152.

Only 20 golfers from an eligible list of 30 took part in the one-day meet at the Algonquin Golf Club. The field was made up of five golfers from each section except the southern which entered 10 because it is the largest area.

The other three team members will be selected at the N.B.-P.E.I. tournament at Edmundston next week. The team will represent the two provinces in the inter-provincial matches at Riverside next month.

Reevey played a steady all-round game Sunday. In his final round he toured the front nine with a 38, collecting one birdie. He also garnered a bird on the back nine, coming home with a 39. On the 18 holes he needed only 28 putts. His long three-putt green was the 17th.

A pair of double bogie holes in the final round were costly to Streeter. His nine-hole totals were 36-41.

Charlie Crowley of Campbellton Restigouche fired rounds of 78-75 to finish third with a 153. Crowley played consistant golf over the final 18 holes, but missed a couple of birdie putts which could have gained him two strokes and second place. He was out in 37 and home in 38.

Riverside's John Estabrooks placed fourth with a 154 followed by clubmate Bill Bishop and Bill Marshall of Fredericton. Bishop and Marshall both posted 36-hole scores of 155.

Bishop finished second in the southern. He scored a 75 his first time round but blew to an 80 on the second trip. An eight on the second hole hindered his chances for a strong finish. He registered a 41 on the front nine holes in his second round and came in with a 39.

The poor showings of Doug Lewis, the eastern sectional leader, and Jim Baxter of Bathurst, runner-up in the northern sectional, was one of the surprises of the meet.

Lewis, who plays out of the Moncton Golf and Country Club, recorded rounds of 81-84 for a 165 and a 13-place finish.

Baxter started out strongly with a 75 but the long-ball hitter from Gowan Brae couldn't straighten out his drives in the second round and had to settle for a whooping 96 and a 17th-place finish.

Loy Beatty of Woodstock, Daryl Waddingham of Algonquin, Brian Lewis of Moncton and Harold Harley of Woodstock rounded out the top 10.

Beatty carded a 157 followed by Waddingham with a 158, Brian Lewis with a 160 and Harley with a 161. Brian Lewis is Doug's Younger brother.

None of the five P.E.I. qualifiers appeared.

Auto Rally Is Success

The Prince Edward Island Motor Sport Club's rally was termed a true success by every one of the 16 entrants yesterday as Roy Scantlebury, with his navigator Carole Moore, took the top prize with only ten points lost.

The rally was run over approximately 100 miles of some of the Island's most unused roads and provided many interesting moments for the entrants as they encountered hidden check points (to make sure that the rules were being followed), a sudden rain shower that caught many of the cars with their tops down, narrow, twisty roads, and some very difficult but interesting map reading instructions.

No one in the rally seemed to know where he had been but did know that he had fun getting there. On the last leg of the event every car became lost somewhere between Kensington and Crapaud but all managed to arrive at the concluding check, although not by the route given in the instructions.

In second spot with 12 points against them were Tom Offer and Dawana Tuplin from Summerside, third were Edwin Linkletter and Gordon Forbes with 14 points, fourth were Jim Phillips and Allan MacDougall, Charlottetown with 17 points, and in fifth place, a tie between Sterling Greene and Jeanne MacKinnon, and George Condon and Cam MacNeill, all of Charlottetown with 25 points.

Halifax Karts Lose Out To Local Teams

A visiting team from the Harbour Kart Club in Halifax, the Sackville Flyers invaded the Covehead track, over the weekend but were sent home with a full house setback as all four Island teams outdid them in the points race. They had to be content with Island hospitality only as they only garnered 39 points in all. The best showing for the visitors was given by Lively who finished seventh.

The first section leading driver, Tony Kelly, had a bit of trouble as he lost his steering wheel and crashed into the judges stand and left the track out of control.

Duane Hodson, 15-year- old member of the Bandit racing team emerged in the top position as he finished with a six point edge over runner-up Merrill MacLean of the Kavalla Track Knights.

Koufax Great As Dodgers Win Two

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sandy Koufax record another pitching masterpiece Sunday, pacing National League leading Los Angeles Dodgers to a doubleheader sweep over Cincinnati.

The star left hander fired his eighth shutout of the season, a three-hit 4-0 victory against the Reds. Los Angeles then went on to take the second game 3-1, with Doug Camilli's two-run homer the key hit.

The twin victories boosted the Dodgers three games ahead of second-place San Francisco Giants, who split with St. Louis. The Cardinals snapped an eight-game losing string by winning the second game at San Francisco 5-0 after being edged 4-3 in the 15-inning opener.

Also in the NL—Pittsburgh Pirates belted out an 11-5 decision at New York, the 10th straight loss for the Mets; and Philadelphia edged Chicago Cubs 3-2.

YANKEES SPLIT

New York's first-place Yankees pulled out a split in their American League doubleheader at Cleveland, winning the second game 7-4 in 10 innings after being swamped 11-3 in the opener.

In other AL action—the last-place Senators ran their winning streak to seven, longest for a Washington club in 14 years, by beating Los Angeles Angels twice, 7-3 and 6-4; Detroit and Kansas City split, the Tigers taking the first game 5-1 and the Athletics winning the second 8-7; Chicago White Sox overcame Boston Red Sox 4-1 in 12 innings; and Baltimore shaded Minnesota 4-3 in 10 innings.

Koufax captured his seventh straight, and became the majors' first 14-game winner. Ken McMullen and Wally Moon batted in two runs each behind Koufax.

The Dodgers scored all their runs in the second game in the fourth inning, with McMullen singling in one and Doug Camilli following with a homer. Rookie Nick Whillhite was the winning pitcher.

Stan Musial sparked the Cards out of their slump, breaking a scoreless tie at San Francisco with a two-run homer in the seventh inning. Bob Gibson blanked the Giants on six hits, beating Juan Marichal.
