Dr. she send back certifoat sign for $45.00, with a "bont de lettre, saying: "Your pay, for past "trois mois," she's $32.50". Very mush big pay, Mr. "Gazette", "N'est-ce pas?" Sham! on gouvernement who's so petite to make something just som like dat for French. Shure, shure! I could pleure like a two year old bouf, when I think some more encore 'bout gouvernement who make something comme ça for teacher. Pour five years passé, Gouvernement take suplement from teachers, and bamby "Bonus" aussi; but she's not content yet she must compe salaire very big much Fifty Dollars aussi. What for she's make dat? for give plente big poche full argent to Superintendant who's so lazy like diable; and sit all day in chaise berceuse in ducation office for nothing make. Poor fermier his self he pay plente mush tax for gouvernement; but he never get no help a bit for teach his boys and girls to make the read and write. He give no money, non plus to make his road more good encore, but he pay plente money to officier to run machine to make the lois. He make very fine lois too, when he stop people to make the work on chemin. Very quick too gouvernement he take one piastre from every man and from teacher aussi and give money to big "ami" for make the dirty werk on "chemin". My gosh! I think gouvernement like dat, she must be kicked away some more very quick, for very soon Island be broke and all people aussi. When present gouvernement she's all smash up in bits very soon; people will make un autre much meilleur, and fix up all bad lois, and people she come better more riche. Gouvernement Tory she pay plente l'argent for make Français more smart and happy aussi.

SAUVETAGE DE DEUX FRANCAIS

Le paquebot "Grat-Waldensee" de la ligne hambourgeoise-américaine a amené à New York, la semaine dernière, deux pêcheurs français qu'il a recueillis au large du banc de Terre-Neuve perdus dans un dory. Lorsque le paquebot les a rencontrés, le 7 octobre, les pêcheurs étaient étendus, à moitié morts de faim, dans leur frêle embarcation; il y avait cinq jours qu'ils étaient privés d'eau et de toute nourriture.

Ce sont Bardeaux Tregatell, âgé de 20 ans, et Jean-Marie Lizzon, âgé de 17 ans. Tous deux appartiennent à la goelette de pêche la "Bretagne", venant de Granville. Les deux pêcheurs ont raconté qu'ils avaient quitté la "Bretagne" avec leurs camarades montés sur d'autres dories. Pendant qu'ils étaient à l'ouvrage, ils ont été surpris par un épais brouillard, suivi d'un grand vent. C'est ainsi qu'ils ont été séparés de leurs camarades et emportés à une grande distance. Quand le brouillard s'est dissipé, la "Bretagne" avait disparu à l'horizon. Les malheureux n'avaient plus qu'à attendre le pas sage de quelque grand navire. Deux paquebots sont passés en vue, mais ils étaient trop loin pour apercevoir les signaux du dory. Les deux pêcheurs sont restés cinq jours sans vivres et sans une goutte d'eau. Les soins qu'ils ont reçus à bord du "Grat-Waldensee" les ont remis sur pied.

Lorsqu'ils sont arrivés hier avec le paquebot allemand, les deux pêcheurs français paraissaient à peu près rétablis de leur terrible séjour en mer. Ils portaient le costume des matelots allemands; on avait dû leur donner ces vêtements, car les leurs étaient usés et en lambeaux suite de la lutte longue et af-freuse qu'ils avaient soutenue contre les éléments, lorsque l-vent les poussait à la dérive.

GOOD ADVICE

The following dialogue was heard few days ago in one of our neighboring settlements. Read it :-
Pat—"Hello, Peter?"
Peter—"Hel-oh oh-oh-oh, Pat."
Pat—"Why Peter, that's a terrible cough you have."
Peter—"I know. It's killing me Pat."
Pat—"Why don't you get something to cure you?"
Peter—"Sure I have tried all the cough medicine on the market but they did me no good."
Pat—"Why don't you go to the doctor?"
Peter—"Well, I intended to go, but Barney called over to see me last night and told me not to bother with any of them."
Pat—"Why was that, Peter?"
Peter—"Well, he says last spring when Margaret was sick she had all the doctors in the place to see her, and the doc'll the bit she was the better of them."
Pat—"And will you tell me what cured her?"
Peter—"Well, he says he heard great talk about this MacDONALD'S DRUG STORE keeping very fine medicine for man or beast, and he started at once to see Mr. McDonalds, himself. He gave him two bottles of MacDONALD'S ANODYNE PINE EXPECTORANT, which only cost him 25 cents apiece. This cured her completely."
Pat—"Well! Well! That was cheap."
Peter—"Yes and he says if he had gone to McDonalds Drug Store and got this medicine in the first start he would have saved over $50 that he had paid out for doctors' bills and medicines."
Pat—"Dear, oh dear! My, oh my! Peter, I would advise you to go to Summerside and see that man at once!"
Peter—"Well, Pat, I will go to see him this day with the help of the Lord and the old horse. Good bye Pat."
Pat—"Good bye, Peter."
P. S. Pat—"Boy! Hi! Before you go take this 25 cents with you and bring me a bottle of that McDonalds Anodyne Pine Expectorant for Ann."
Peter—"I will that, sure."
