Hudson Bay Route.

Towards the close of the lecture at Winnipeg the other evening on the Arctic regions, Dr. Rae briefly discussed the Hudson Bay route to the old World He was every way favourable to this route, if it was practicable: but he did not think it was. It was said that the bay was open all winter, and the straits were navigable four months in the year. This did not accord with his observations and experience. He had repeatedly seen the bay frozen over. Three times he had gone through the straits. Once they were badly blocked by ice; a second time they were considerably impeded in their course because of the presence of ice; and a third time the channel was quite clear. He said the Hudson Bay Co's ships, never left Scotland to make this passage until the middle or end of June, knowing that early in the season their way would be obstructed by ice. His voyages had been made in sailing ships, and of course steamers could make better progress. Still, he had no faith in the project. The Hudson Bay route was shorter by 500 miles than by way of the lakes, but the latter was practicable six months in the year. He could not state how long the straits were open, as the time was variable owing to the diversity of seasons, but during the best seasons, the time could be but short. He thought it would be inexpedient to risk the outlay of money on building a railroad with a view of opening this route until more accurate information were obtained concerning it.

Tobacco at West Point.

The American Secretary of War, says Science and Health, has prohibited the use of tobacco by the Cadets at West Point. This is a splendid triumph for the temperance cause, indicating as it does, most emphatically, the damaging influence of this baleful drug upon its victims. Young men who are being trained mentally and physically, for positions of responsibility, are prohibited the use of the weed. Why not ask all the young men in the country, upon whose physical and mental strength the future prosperity of the nation depends, to abandon the use of this venomous, debilitating, debasing poison? Not long ago an army medical officer published a series of facts, from which it appeared that nearly all the graduates of our military schools came back with their constitutions undermined with the vile diseases, the penalty of licentiousness, within one year of their graduation. The discontinuance of the use of tobacco among students in a college, will go a long way toward diminishing vice after they leave the restraints of their school life.

Jersey Cattle at Auction.

(N. Y. Herald, Friday.)

There was a good attendance yesterday at the fall combination sale of Jersey cattle, conducted by Messrs. Peter C. Kellogg & Co., at the railroad stables on Sixty-fourth street. The bidding was a little brisker than usual, and the highest price of the day was obtained for Colonel H. S. Russell's five-year-old bull Pedro, a son of the world wide celebrity Eurotas. He fell to the bid of $2,500 made by Messrs. Miller & Sibbey, of Franklin, Pa. In Pedro these gentlemen got a great bargain and could have realized well without any trouble, for his breeder, Mr. A. B. Darling, who arrived late at the sale, made an offer of $3,000, and later on Mr J. Willis, acting for others, submitted a proposition of $5,000; but the buyers meant taking him and declined both offers. The second best price was that of $700 for Dr. J. W. Alsop's five-year-old cow Calacanthus II, a daughter of Champion of America, and her destination is the farm of Messrs. Moulton Brothers, West Randolph, Vt. She was also an unquestionably great bargain. Altogether fifty-eight lots were sold, at an average of $317.41—an excellent result, considering that with but two or three exceptions there were no animals of conspicuously fashionable breeding.

To DRS. BENNET & LEWIS,

DEAR SIR.—I desire to express my feelings of profound gratitude to you who have helped me so much by the use and application of your wonderful medicine known as your Absorptive Pads and Plasters, &c. I was sick about two years and spent a large sum of money with physicians but received very little benefit until I tried your absorptive treatment. When I commenced using it this summer I could scarcely walk across the floor, I had such a weakness across me, and now I can walk a mile at a time and attend to household duties much better than I could before, and feel only too glad to recommend this truly great treatment to any person or persons who may be afflicted as I was. You are at liberty to make any disposition of this note you may deem proper.

MRS. R. HEBBARD.

All the remedies can be obtained at Fraser & Reddin's Drug Store.
