Boys' Tweed Suits for $1.50.—Harris & Stewart.

S. C.—The regular monthly meeting Royal Salvage Corps to-morrow evening at o'clock sharp.

Church Picnic at Cape Traverse Thursday promises to be the best of season. Come every one!

What's the matter with the Cathedral clock? It hasn't struck the hour for several weeks. It's about time some one looked after it.

We want to sell $10,000 worth of summer goods. Come and get a bargain from 20 to 25 per cent. less than regular price.—D. A. [illegible] aug4 2i

Boys' Straw Hats at clearance prices—Harris & Stewart.

The last and best event of the season will be the Firemen's Moonlight Excursion on Wednesday evening, Aug. 19th. Secure your tickets early.

For St. John's.—The SS Cuban, for St. John's, Nfld., is due here to-morrow (Wednesday), and will carry cattle and sheep on deck.

St. James' Picnic.—The picnic of St. James sabbath school, at West River, yesterday, was one of the plesantest and most enjoyable affairs of the kind held this season.

Notice.—A meeting of Boyne and St. George's Lodges will be held this evening at 8 o'clock sharp, for the purpose of receiving delegates attending the triennial council held at Kingston, Ontario.

Beef Tea.—"Excellent, splendid, best we have ever tried," are the expressions uttered by those who have used Armour's Extract of Beef. Call and have a cup of Beef Tea, made from this extract, at Dodd's Medical Hall.

Marriage Bells.—Notice of an interesting event, in which one of Charlottetown's best known citizens took a leading part, will be found elsewhere in to-day's issue. The Examiner extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Full.

Sickness Long Drawn Out.—Investigation of the working of the Kansas liquor law shows that a resident of Topeka had a cold one day and a fever the next for a year without a break, and that his medicine was invariably whiskey or beer.

Terminal City does not seem to boom. The North Sydney Herald says: "If American capitalists drop any of this world's goods in the great city, they must not blame Cape Bretonians for it. Their luring angels are nearer home."

Great Reduction.—In order to reduce the extensive stock of school exercise and scribbling books at the Diamond Bookstore, scholars may obtain the same at cost. Good [illegible] at eight cents per quire, and [illegible] the very lowest prices. Now [illegible] Charlottetown, [illegible]

[illegible] Hattie Louise [illegible] Port of [illegible] afternoon, and is [illegible] to Charlottetown. She had a good run up of 17 days, and reports "all well." She has a full cargo of sugar and molasses for the Island.

Hip Dislocated.—A man named McNevin, who left here for the United States on Monday week, fell and had his hip dislocated while boarding the train at Moncton on that afternoon. He was laid up in Moncton until yesterday, when he left for home, arriving last evening. McNevin was in the employ of McKinnon & McLean previous to leaving the Island.

Mark This.—Picnic at Cape Traverse, Thursday next. Train leaves station at a quarter to nine, local time. Tables will be set in large building where you can enjoy a tea in comfort The ladies have arrangements well in hand and a good time is assured. The attention of strangers visiting the city is called to this excursion, as it will give them an opportunity of a trip to the country at very little expense.

Foot Race.—The match race at the Driving Park last evening, between Daniel Macdonald and James MacEachern, two well-known sprinters, was won by Macdonald in the excellent time of 37¾ seconds. The race was for $10 a side, and the distance three hundred yards. Mr. Daniel J. Macdonald, of the Post Office Department, acted as starter, and Chief Engineer Large was timer. There was a good attendance of spectators.

Zera Semon.—Zera's opening entertainment in the Lyceum last evening was largely attended and was very enjoyable. Many of the tricks in magic were new, and Tim, Joe and Mary Brown, and the talking talking hand, were good, as usual. But the marionettes, an excellent feature of this show in former years, were not to the front. At the close a number of valuable presents were given away.

I. O. O. F.—The delegates to the Grand Lodge of the L. P., B. N. A., at Yarmouth, N. S., on the 12th inst., have been elected. Grand Master Chappelle, Grand Representative Bremner, and Past Grand R. B Norton, W. R. Boreham and J. T. Hardy, take part in the institution of the new encapment on the afternoon of Tuesday next. The brethern at Yarmouth have arranged an excellent programme and promise an enjoyable time.

The Census Returns.—An Ottawa despatch says. All the returns for the census are now in and the statistician and his staff are busy in making their preliminary calculation. The result of the census must by law be communicated directly to parliament. This will, it is expected, be done some time this week. Then the total population of the Dominion will be known and it is probable that the growth of the cities will also be announced. Both are understood to be satisfactory.

The Turf. At Morris Park, New York, on Saturday, the match running race between Tenny and Longstreet 1½ miles. $5000 a side and $2500 added, was won by Longstreet by six lengths 2.07½.

At Independence, Iowa, on Friday, Allerton was sent to beat his record of 2.13, and succeeded in his effort. The first half was against the wind. He took it in 1.08¼. The game colt increased his speed in the last half, and passed under the wire in 2 12½.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' DAY.

Newfoundland's Action Discussed.

Other Matters Disposed Of.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.

Yesterday was Private Members' Day.

Mr. Bowell stated that no order had been issued reducing laborers pay on the Intercolonial from one dollar and twenty-five cents to one dollar and five cents, as reported by the press

A large number of questions were put and answered.

The House discussed the action of Newfoundland towards Canadian fishermen desirous of purchasing bait and the causes leading to the depletion of bait fish in Canadian waters.

The debate on Kirkpatrick's motion to recognize the services of veterans of thirty seven and thirty-eight was resumed. Sir John Thompson said the Dominion as now constituted had nothing to do with the events of fifty years ago. The debate dropped.

The Load Line Act.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.

Information has been received by the Government that the Imperial Board of Trade will postpone the operation of the Load Line Act, of 1890, as far as Canadian vessels are concerned, till the 1st of July, 1892.

For Drill.—No. 2 Battery, G A., will meet for drill this evening at 8 o'clock.

You are troubled with Catarrh, but in this warm, dry weather do not strongly experience its evil effects and you neglect treatment. A mistake. When the disease is least touble-some is the best time to get rid of it, and this the use of Nasal Balm will accomplish. Sold by all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price (50c. or $1 a bottle). G. T. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.—1w

No more misery with the wash. No more dirt in the kitchen. The old chemical powders have had their day. They now cease to be. Lessive Phenix is the name of the new solutive It is so emollient in its properties that, used in the bath, it makes the skin fair and soft. No more soda. No more ashes. Use Lessive Phenix, and the wash is a pleasure. White or colored clothes, it is all the same. It makes them all beautiful. Use Lessive Phenix upon silver or tinware and the cleansing and brightning effects are marvellous. Ask your grocer for it,—and don't take the injurious powders.—2i.
