Scott-Moore Wedding

Cavendish United Church was the scene of a pretty and interesting wedding yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Ethel Lois Moore exchanged vows with Hector Addison Scott in the presence of a large number of guests and well wishers. Rev. J. R. Skinner, assisted by Rev. George Gough, performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moore, Cavendish, and Mrs. R.N. of Ellerslie, as bridesmaids. Little Karen Wheelhouse was the winsome flower girl. The groom was supported by Mr. Harold Godfrey, Cornwall.

and the ushers were Mr. John F. Scott, Summerside and Mr. Calvin MacDonald, Cornwall. The bride was exquisitely gowned in a wedding dress of white nylon net over taffeta. Chantilly lace outlined the square yoke of the fitted bodice and was repeated in the buttoned cuffs of the full net sleeves. The swirling skirt ended in a generous train. A coronet of seed pearls held her finger tip veil and she carried a white Bible. The matron of honor wore ice blue taffeta with matching head-dress, mitts and net stole. She carried a nosegay of yellow "mums. The bridesmaids were similarly attired in bluish pink taffeta with nosegays of bronze "mums. The flower girl was dressed in daffodil taffeta and carried a nosegay of Talisman roses. A profusion of autumn flowers were placed in the church for the occasion. Miss Joyce Warren of North Rustico played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Kay MacEachern, R.N. of Charlottetown, who sang "Because" during the signing of the register. Receiving with the bridal party at the reception for fifty guests at Lakeview, Lodge were the bride's parents and the groom's parents. Mrs. Moore was gowned in vapour blue tissue faille with accessories in brown and a corsage of Bitter Time roses. Mrs. Scott attired in teal blue with black accessories wore Bitter Time roses on corsage. The bride's table was centred with a beautifully decorated three tier wedding cake, flanked by lighted tapers and garden bouquets. Serving at the bride's table were Misses Frances McNevin, R.N., Kathleen Williams, R.N., Marion Wright, R.N., and Byrtus MacLeod. Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Scott left by car on a honeymoon trip to the United States, the bride travelling in a tricotined suit of autumn brown, complemented by dark brown accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. Ove this she donned a light green Knibwood coat. On their return they will reside in Cornwall. The bride is a graduate of the Prince Edward Island Hospital School of nursing. - S

Burland-Woodside Wedding

The Rev. Dr. Lemuel K. Lord assisted by the Rev. Dr. John L. Ivey officiated at wedding ceremonies in the First Methodist Church in Boston recently when Miss Rita Jean Woodside became the bride of Charles William Burland. The ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with baskets of gladioli, asters and carnations. A reception followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. Leonard Ellis. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Leonard Ellis. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Woodside of O'Leary. The bride chose a gown of bluish pink designed with low scalloped neckline edged with tulle to match the scalloped hem line on the skirt. Her white beaded crown cap caught a bluish pink veil and she carried a Rainbow Bible covered with gardenias and stephanotis. The matron of honor was Mrs. Walter White of Malden, Mass., and the best man was Robert Litchfield of Providence, R.I. On their return from a wedding trip to the White Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Burland will reside in the city. They have the best wishes of many friends in O'Leary and vicinity as well as in New England for a long and happy wedded life.
