

Pictorial Scenes

Of Royal Visit

Princess Elizabeth, and the Duke of Edinburgh, accompanied by His Honour Lieutenant-Governor T. W. L. Prowse leave the platform of the C. N. R. Station to begin their round of engagements in the Island Capital.

Princess Elizabeth arrives for State dinner at The Charlottetown. In the left background is Mr. Gordon Foster, hotel manager.

Princess Elizabeth about to take the Royal Salute from the Guard of Honour, commanded by Flt-Lieut. W. P. Palmer, from the R. C. A. F. Station, Summerside, in front of the C. N. R. Station, Weymouth Street.

Her Royal Highness planting an English Oak at the Experimental Farm to commemorate a memorable visit to The Island.

Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh greeted at the Experimental Farm by Mr. R. C. Parent, superintendent, and Mrs. Parent.

Princess Elizabeth presents certificate to a King's Scout at the Experimental Farm. Centre is Provincial Commissioner S. M. McInnis.

A group of smiling Girl Guides at the Experimental Farm. The five in the forefront received their Gold Cords from the Princess.

Princess Elizabeth presenting the Revolver Challenge Trophy to Cpl. William Beatty of the Summerside detachment of the R. C. M. P. Centre is Premier J. Walter Jones.

Little patients from the Polio Ward of the Provincial Sanatorium, warmly bundled-up, complete with flags prepare to greet the Royal Couple.

Princess Elizabeth examines a large scale map of Canada showing the itinerary of their tour across Canada prepared by senior pupils of Model School, ages nine to 14 years.

At City Hall where the Royal Couple were greeted by Acting Major J. David Stewart, Mrs. Stewart, members of the City Council and City Clerk James A. Fullerton.

Patients from the Provincial Sanatorium eagerly await the passing of the Royal visitors.