A LETTER FROM JOUBERT.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The Deutsche Zeitung publishes a letter purporting to come from Gen. Joubert, and dated at Ladysmith, Oct. 27th, in which the writer says: "Even if we don't succeed in preventing the concentration of General Buller's troops the British army will be weakened from natural causes to such an extent that not more than 35,000 efficient troops, or 40,000 at the outside, can take the field. The others must be employed to protect communication. In this connection it is to be borne in mind that not only Natal, but Cape Colony, with a base of operations covering 435 miles, must be considered,

WILL CONTEST EVERY FOOT.

"Our bases of supply are at home and organized on the relay system in three directions. To protect these does not require 500 men. If one base should be seriously threatened, the supplies will be destroyed. A war of defence, of which we need not think for a considerable time, would present far greater advantages than an offensive war. We are at home in the highlands of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State. The British will have to contest every step under inconceivable difficulties and must be prepared at every moment to fight on two or three fronts.

A GUERRILLA WAR.

"Then will begin a guerilla war which the British will not be able to endure. Already we have 50,000 men in the field. So we do not need to calculate upon a rising of the Boers in Cape Colony and Natal. Nevertheless, if the British stir up the natives and employ them to fight us, a rising of the whole of Afrikanerdom is certain."

Sir William Macdonald has offered the Governors of McGill University the sum of $62,000 for the founding of a Dawson chair of geology. The professoriate in connection with the chair will be formed next year and an appointment will be made before the opening of the autumn session. Sir William has founded several chairs at McGill university, but the present endowment is $12,500 in excess of any previous endowment, owing to the fact that Lady Dawson is to receive a portion of the income.

The Sackville Post reports the death of Mrs. Eben Howard Gay, of Boston, formerly Miss Fanning, at one time head of the Conservatory of Music at Mount Allison. The death occurred at the family home, Beacon Street, Boston. Mrs. Gay was married less than a year ago. It is said that last summer she was thrown from her carriage, and while she sustained a severe shock at the time it was thought she had completely recovered, but it probably resulted in her death. About two years ago Mrs. Gay (then Miss Fanning) spent several weeks in Charlottetown, the guest of the Misses Dawson, and made many friends who will hear with regret of her early death.

Loss of the Maine

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The World publishes a letter from Havana stating that U S officials, after months of secret investigation, have discovered that the battleship Maine was blown up by gun cotton torpedoes placed in the bay for the purpose. The gun cotton, 700 pounds of which was used, was sent from Barcelona to Admiral Manterola, commanding the port of Havana, and was either stolen from the magazine, where the stuff was stored, or taken away with the knowledge of the officials in charge. The torpedoes were exploded by contact with the keel of the Maine as she swung at anchor.
