

Presentation to Student Minister at Breadalbane

—On Friday, November 28, a large number of members and friends of Breadalbane Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Glover...

Mr. D. A. Matheson, after a few introductory remarks, called on Mrs. Elton Somers and Miss Margaret Kennedy who read addresses on behalf of the congregation and friends at the Sunday School.

Beautiful gifts were presented to Mr. MacDougall from these groups, and a well filled purse was given to Mrs. MacDougall.

Mr. MacDougall then thanked the people for this and many other acts of kindness shown him during the past two years...

As we listened to your inspiring messages each Sunday we feel we have been helped spiritually and regret the time has come to end the services for this year...

We would ask you to please accept this gift as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by us. We trust you will value it not so much because of its intrinsic value...

And now Mrs. MacDougall, we would ask you to accept this gift as a little remembrance from us. May God grant you health and happiness in the years that lie ahead.

Signed on behalf of Breadalbane Congregation and Friends.

Dear Mr. MacDougall, This happy occasion is not without a tinge of sadness since we must, for a time at least, say farewell to one who has labored so faithfully among us...

Your work in the Sunday School has been a source of inspiration and blessing to all of us, although we must admit that at times our enthusiasm and energy in the Master's work have not been equal to yours.

In presenting you with this small token of our esteem and affection we trust that you may retain kind memories of your short sojourn with us.

And now, as you leave us to continue your studies in the greatest work a man can take up, may God's richest blessing attend and follow you.

To Mrs. MacDougall, we are very grateful for her assistance in making it possible for you to be with us.

To Marilyn, whom we know will honor her father and mother, may she have all the good things of life.

It is our urgent desire that you will soon be with us again. May God be with you till we meet again.

Signed on behalf of the Sunday School.
