Training Course For Scout Patrol Leaders

—Beginning on Friday evening, April 14th at 7:00 P.M. a Patrol Leaders' training course was conducted at Summerside High School. This course in Scouting is called the "Bronze Arrowhead Course" and was conducted by Commissioner Gordon Kerr of Charlottetown, and Scouters Eric Tanton and Lloyd Cannon of Summerside.

There was in attendance at the course six boys from Borden, seven from Summerside and two from St. Eleanor's. Three other boys who had already passed the course sat in for review.

The course opened with the formation of Patrols and a game to introduce the boys.

The instruction was then begun by a talk on Patrol instruction by Scouter Eric Tanton. A game was then conducted by Scouter Lloyd Cannon followed by a talk on Patrol spirit by Commissioner Kerr. A short period of P. T. was then conducted and the talk on Patrol instruction and Patrol Organization concluded by Scouter Eric Tanton. With another game in knotting the evening study closed.

The boys assembled again Saturday morning for another full day of work and the course concluded at 9:00 P.M. on Saturday.

One game conducted called "Message Relay", provided considerable amusement. A verbal message was passed along by the eighteen boys and the message that started "The Summerside Boy Scout Troop will have a hike on May 24th", ended up by being "Your Patrol was noisy and ours was not." This should be a warning to those with a tendency to discuss others and their actions.

A sealed letter hike was conducted during Saturday afternoon in the course of which the instruction on estimations and observation was put into practical use.

The boys were then given test questions and at the end of one week the answers along with the notes taken during the course will be turned in for examination.

The boys from Borden were invited to the homes of the Summerside Scouts during meal time.

Attended Course
The following boys took the course:

Borden: Tommy Paquet, Everett MacDonald, Graham Lodge, Desmond Melvor, Elwood McKenna, Francis Westhaver.

Summerside: Lawrence Gallant, Lester DesRoches, Richard Steele, Robert Polier, James Arsenault, Robert Polier and Melvyn Gaudet.

St. Eleanor's: Lloyd Simmonds and Francis Smith.

Tommy MacKenzie, Leonard Compton and James Compton attended the course for review.

A list of those who have successfully completed the course and its test requirements will be published as soon as possible.

Our thanks are extended to the janitors of the school for their kind co-operation.
