

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 25, 1883.

Death of Hon. William Elder.

The sudden removal of Mr. Elder is sad news. Mr. Elder was one of the most influential men in the Maritime Provinces.

The Daily Telegraph of yesterday contains the following short account of his death and sketch of his life:—

The Hon. William Elder, A. M., LL. D., Provincial Secretary of the Province of New Brunswick, died suddenly at his residence in this city last night at 10.30 o'clock.

Mr. Elder was born at Malin, in the County of Donegal, Ireland, July 22, 1822. He was educated at Belfast College, and afterwards attended the universities of Edinburgh and Glasgow and the New College at Edinburgh.

Mr. Elder was an unsuccessful candidate for the House of Commons. He was first elected to the Assembly in 1875, to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Coram.

The suddenness of the calamity, which has removed him from our midst, precludes the possibility of such a review of his life and character as they demand, and as is prompted by affection and esteem.

Mr. Elder possessed great fund of information, and polished, graceful oratory, gained him the foremost position. He was one of the few public speakers whose remarks, taken down verbatim, were fit for publication without correction.

On the 9th of July inst., before Jas. H. Bourke, and Jas. Hayden, J. P.'s, Peter McPhee was convicted and fined in the sum of $3.00 and costs for an assault and battery on the person of Margaret McPhee.

On the 17th July inst., before James H. Bourke, J. P., George Buchanan for an assault and battery on the person of Jessie Buchanan. Each to pay their own costs, George Buchanan bound over to keep the peace for twelve months.

There is great distress among Irish laborers in London; many of them are refused employment at the wharves and docks. There is a dead set made against men of Irish nationality at the east end of London.

Mr. Hodgson's Funeral.

The funeral of Mr. Hodgson this afternoon was very well attended. The following is the order of the long procession:—

The Members of the Bar. Judges of the County Courts. CLERGYMEN: Rev. W. B. King. Rev. Dr. Wright.

Medical Attendants: Dr. Taylor. Undertaker.

The Chief Justice. Col. Gray. Henry Longworth, Esq. Dr. Mackieson. Hon. B. Davies. Richard Hertz.

Mourners: Edward J. Hodgson. R. R. Hodgson, Esq., John Brecken, Esq., F. Brecken, Esq., Mr. Justice Hensley.

Friends and Acquaintances: Cricket.

The weather yesterday was even more unfavorable for cricket than on Monday. Not only was there a disagreeable rain falling, but a heavy wind blew all day long.

We do not think this was really a test match between the two clubs. That the Wanderers are the strongest team cannot be denied, but we think that had there been fine weather and the veterans of the Phoenix been able to have played, the score would have probably borne a different complexion.

Mr. J. Scott Hutton Superintendent of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb is here. There are few institutions worthier of the support of our public; and with such an efficient school so near, no Deaf Mute in this Province should go uneducated.

There were a few typographical errors in "H's" letter on "Beans and Onions" in yesterday's issue. The first sentence should read, "Mr. Burke made a good move for himself, and a good move for his present neighborhood, etc."
