Spanish Village Prepares For Holy Visitor In June

BANDAL Spain (AP) — Four years have made little change in the lives of four Spanish girls who on June 18, 1961, said they received the first of a series of visits from the Mother of Christ.

The Roman Catholic Church has not accepted the authenticity of these claims, yet the curiosity from far and near continue to make the difficult pilgrimage to this mountain village to speak with the four girls and hear their stories.

Two successive bishops of the Santander diocese have cautioned their priests that the claim of the four girls to have seen and talked with the Virgin lacks confirmation or authentication.

Yet their reports have received serious study from many churchmen. Rev. J. P. Bonance of Marsaxi, Aller, Nievre, France, published a report on his investigation.

San Sebastian de Garabandal, a "marvel," wrote Father Bonance "It is a corner of paradise. Never has the Virgin shown herself so near to her children, so maternal, so tender. When one has lived there, one can say with the children, 'Mother, take us with you!'

Usually it is Conchita Gonzalez who acts as spokesman. All four girls work and study in the village, helping their families keep their small stone houses clean, working at times in the fields, going frequently to mass. All four appear to lead lives no different from other children growing up in this village, with its close-knit inhabitants.

There is a difference when the girls discuss the visits they say the Virgin made to them. "I was the first to see our visitor," said Conchita. "We were playing near the orchard and suddenly there was a thunderclap. Then I felt some presence and knelt down to pray. At first my friends thought I

Opening lead — seven of hearts.

Board 54 in the 1959 Italy U.S. match was the most amazing deal of the entire tournament. The final contract at both tables was three notrump.

The Italian declarer went down six!

The American declarer made five notrump!

The contract would have gone down against proper defense!

The United States gained 760 points on the deal.

These oddities require some explanation. When Belladonna was declarer for Italy, he won the jack of hearts with the king and led the A-Q of clubs, which held, followed by another club.

which Stakgold won Stakgold returned the five of hearts. Belladonna played the three of diamonds! Harmon West, thinking East had the missing heart, played the nine. Dummy played the queen.

At this point, Avarelli (North) asked Belladonna whether he had any hearts. Belladonna said he did, and the tournament director was called in accordance with the laws. Belladonna was permitted to correct his revoke. He submitted the heart six for the diamond three.

Harmon was also permitted to change his play (as stipulated in the laws) to the ace of hearts instead of the nine.

But dummy's queen play (as provided in the laws) could not be changed. It was a legal play. Harmon thereupon cashed five heart tricks and Belladonna went down six.

At the other table, Fishbein (South for U.S.) became declarer. He also took the heart with the king and played three rounds of clubs. East won with the king and could have defeated the contract by returning a spade, but he led back a heart instead.

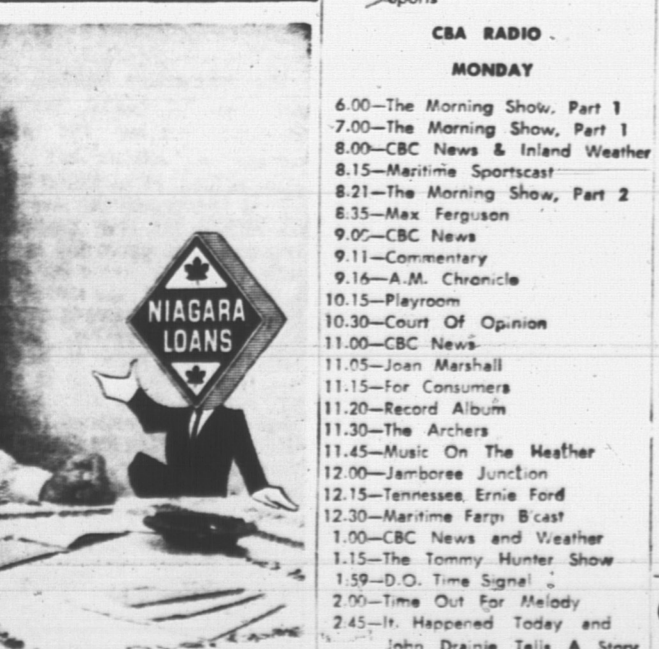

West took the ace and returned a heart, thus handing Fishbein nine tricks on a silver platter. Both defenders then held on to their spades as the clubs were run and Fishbein won the last two tricks with the 7-5 of diamonds to end one of the most fantastic hands in world championship history.
