A CORRECTION.

SIR,—I notice in your WEEKLY EXAMINER of the 22nd inst., a report of the discovery of [illegible] Scanlan's dead body, which I consider in injustice to the people of Murray River and surrounding district, who so willingly joined in the search, to allow it to remain unanswered. It starts: "As our readers are aware a search party, mostly from Boston." Now, there was a search party of upwards of 150 people. only six of them, whose names were published before, being from Boston. Another slight error was also made in the name of the young man who found him. His name is David J. Sanders instead of Daniel J Sanders.

DIED.

At the Charlottetown Hospital, on the 27th inst., Miss Sarah Hughes, aged 76 Deceased was a native of Ireland.

[Funeral will leave the Hospital at 9.45 tomorrow for St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to R. C. Cemetery]

After a brief illness, on the 9th ult., in the 40th year of his age, Samuel Sanderson, the youngest son of Ben Sanderson of Greenwick, St. Peter's Bay. The deceased was a young man in the prime of life, and his sudden death shocked the whole place, and caused universal regret. Another time the word is verified. "In the midst of life we are in death." On that day a dutiful son, a loving brother, and a kind and obliging neighbour passed away to his reward. The very large concourse of people assembled to honour his mortal remains, testified to the esteem in which he was held when living. The bereaved family has our heartfelt sympathy, and to the God of all comfort we commend them.

The British Engineers claim to have won the fight for an eight-hour day, and therefore decline to allow that point to be arbitrated upon.

Mr. Henry George has drawn attention to a fact which is in itself enough to condemn the United States system of popular election to judicial offices. The Democratic candidates for the position of judges of the Supreme Court have to pay heavy blackmail to the Tammany election fund.

There are 2,000,000 women in the United States that earn their own living; 25,000 in the city of New York who support their husbands. In all occupations women are paid the lowest wages, that is, in any of the occupations that pay the lowest, 70 per cent. are women, and in all paying $20 or more a week, only three per cent. are women.

Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun, had what was unquestionably the most valuable collection of ceramics and objects d'art in the Western Hemisphere. It was one of the passions of his life, and cost him between $350,000 and $400,000. The collection will probably be left to the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Burglars broke into Holloway prison in England recently, ate up the remains of the governor's supper, emptied his larder, drank his beer, leaving the tap running, and carried off such of his household effects as they cared for. The burglary was not discovered till the women servants arose in the morning. The police have no clue to the burglars.

At Centreville, Carleton County, N. B., a few days ago Sidney Lloyd's two barns, two sheds, hog house. woodshed and dwelling, together with twenty tons of hay, 1,500 bushels grain, all his wagons, harness, threshing machine, ten hogs, two horses, farm machinery, potatoes, etc., were burned. Incendiarism is suspected. No insurance.

The Hon. Maurice Gifford, of London, who recently married Miss Thorold, presented her as a bridal gift the bullet extracted from the wound in his shoulder which caused him the loss of his arm. The bit of lead was set in gold dug from a cemetery in Matabeleland, and the setting took the form of a double-headed serpent, the heads supporting the bullet.

Still the facilities for storage of grain continue to be enlarged in Western Canada. This year is particularly noticeable in this respect. It is probably true that in Manitoba and the Territories 100 new elevators and warehouses have been erected, increasing the interior elevator capacity 2,500,000 bushels, while at Fort William the C. P. R. are building steel elevators to hold 1,500,000 bushels, and have just completed a second elevator at Owen Sound.

Apropos of the feud between French and Newfoundland fishermen, Mr. Becklee Wilson, who has written an instructiv book on our oldest colony, assures us that he saw the following neat inscription written on a card hanging on the wall of a store, as an illuminated text is hung by seaside lodging house keepers:

Mr. T. B. Mothersill Returns from His Well-Earned Trip to the United States

Mr. T. B. Mothersill was a passenger in the Princess from Pictou last evening, after an absence from the province of about three weeks. Mr. Mothersill is general agent for the Maritime Provinces of the New York Life Insurance Company, and was one of 110 men who won a place in the Perkins Welcome Home Contest. This contest was for agents writing up the greatest amount of insurance in a stated time, and those who took positions were entitled to a trip from their place of residence to New York, Old Point Comfort and Newport News, Va, and Washington, D. C. The party started from the Plaza Hotel, New York City, and the trip throughout was of the pleasantest character.

"At Old Point Comfort," said Mr. Mothersill to THE EXAMINER, "we were driven about and shown the fortifications. We were also treated to a special review of the troops. At Newport News we inspected the government shipyards and saw the three battleships that are being constructed.

"At Washington the new Library Building was first visited. This is said to be the finest building of the kind, in point of equipment, in the world. It is also an architectural triumph. The party also visited the Capitol Buildings. These consist of the Legislative Chamber, the Senate, and the Supreme Court. In the last mentioned place the court was in session at the time of our visit. The Treasury Building was also visited, and all were introduced to Secretary Gage by whom we were shown through the vaults, etc.

"From the Treasury Building the party went to the White House, where they were received by the President and Mrs. McKinley, and the wives of Cabinet Ministers. The Washington Monument, not far from the White House, was next viewed. The monument is of marble, and is 550 feet in height, the highest in the world. From its top a magnificent view of the surrounding country may be had.

"Arlington Heights, where the Soldiers Home is located, was our next stopping place. Here also are the graves of many noted men who fought in the war for the union. Mount Vernon, Washington's birth place and where his mortal remains now repose, was also visited. The house is in much the same condition as it was in Washington's time, and the horses in the stalls look as natural as life. In the tomb the remains of the first president of the United States and Martha Washington are encased in marble caskets.

"On the way back to Washington from Mount Vernon the party stopped at Alexandria, where the church in which Generals Washington and Robert E. Lee worshipped is located. The Masonic Lodge in which Washington was initiated into the mysteries of the craft, and where he afterwards sat as Grand Master, was also visited.

"For a holiday trip," said Mr. Mothersill in conclusion, "I know of no place on this continent that I would rather visit than Washington. Washington is different in many respects from other cities of like size, and the visitor to the place will be amply repaid for the money expended."

THE VERISCOPE has had a run of twenty five performances in Toronto, and has packed the theatre to the door at every one of them. Misapprehension as to the nature of the exhibition caused some objection to the show, but after the first public performance it was personally endorsed by judges, business men and members of the city council, as well as editorially by the Toronto press. The great success of the exhibition was due to the fact, that the genuine pictures of the contest were presented, and given so well that every detail could be plainly seen, and yet with such delicacy, that no objections could be taken. To conduct the Veriscope with its half dozen of expert electricians and mechanics, necessitates an enormous expense, but the price at the Opera House Friday 29inst. will not be higher than 25 and 35 cents.

WEARING LAURELS—In its notice of the parting recital given by Dr. Vincent to the music lovers of Truro, the Daily News says:" Miss Hyndman, of New Glasgow, in every way sustained the reputation that had preceded her, as a really first-class soprano soloist. She is a bright brunette, petite and pretty, with considerable professional stage address, and charmed every one by her almost faultless rendition of every selection she attempted. In Dudley Buck's "Fear Thee Not, Oh Israel," she certainly excelled, and in that and in "The Plains of Peace," she at once showed herself to her new and critical audience, an artiste of more than ordinary ability, with a clear, rich voice that will make her a favorite in Truro. When she came to Mascheroni's "The Land of Yesterday," she showed to advantage the full tension of her flexible voice, and though somewhat hoarse from a rather long rehearsal in the afternoon, took "high A" most creditably—church walls here again prevented the lovely songstress from receiving well merited and much deserved rounds of applause."

The Miss Hyndman here referred to is Miss Annie Hyndman, daughter of Charles Hyndman, Esq., of Brighton.

—The City Council of Charlottetown donated $500 in aid of the sufferers by the Windsor fire, and the amount has been duly forwarded. Besides this amount upwards of $1000 in cash have been raised by private subscriptions among the citizens and about $200 in the form of supplies. Summerside and other sections of the province are yet to be heard from.
