Soccer and Hockey : victory and defeat

The UPEI Soccer Panthers won 4-0 over Moncton in Charlottetown last Friday. Goals were scored by Richard Pierre Gilles, Andy Cameron, Doug Blain, and Janos Barna for the UPEI club. On Sunday, the Mount Allison Mounties defeated the Panthers 3-1, which represents the first loss of the Panthers in 37 Atlantic Universities games. UPEI is now tied with UNB with a record of 8-1-2. Michael Brodersen, a rookie on the Panthers, scored the lone goal, while Shawn Camp scored all three Mounties goals on penalty kicks.

In hockey action during the past week, the UPEI Panthers beat the Acadian Axeman 6-3 on Thursday, and Concordia 7-6 on Friday. On Sunday, however, the hockey Panthers were defeated by the Moncton Blue Eagles 6-2, with Bob Hicks and Randy Muttart scoring the Panther goals.

This coming weekend the UPEI Athletics Department will be hosting the AUSA Soccer Playoffs, 1985. The playoffs will be taking place at MacAdam field from October 26-27. Be there!
