

Life-Saving Hatred.

We entered a barber's shop one morning in Limehouse, London. A sailor was being prepared for the razor. His snowy white lathered chin and rubicund nose suggested the idea of a red carrot on the top of a cauliflower. Most remarkable, he persisted in whistling during the operation of shaving. The professor of the tonsorial art evidently had his hand full, it requiring the most careful dexterity to escape slicing the whistling phenomenon's puckered cheeks. The tune he essayed was 'The Campbells are Coming.' When the little cockney barber got through, rejoicing at his success, he exclaimed: 'Vel, now, hivy, shaved a man dead, a man mad and a man drunk, but hi'm blown if I've ever shaved one whistling before.' The sailor having got through his abolution at the washstand, in full tune, voluntarily informed us of the cause of his musical fervor. 'I'm a MacGregor, you must understand,' he commenced, 'and exactly this day twelve-month I was in death's grip in the hospital in Sierra Leone, Brain mad wi' the coast of Africa fever. The doctors an' all had given me up, and they were only waiting for the breath to be out of my body for decency's sake before they buried it. But, of a God's mercy, I thought I heard the bagpipes playing 'The Campbells are Comin', and the devil himself could not hold me. Up I got, and away out of the hospital I went, like a hunted deer, boiling with rage agen the Campbells. The rain was pouring in torrents, and it was a good hour before they secured me and brought me back. But, feth, it broke the fever and saved my life, though the leeches (the doctors) all said it was a miracle. That's why I whistle the tune to-day.' Donald departed whistling.

Liver is King.

The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with dyspepsia or liver complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the liver and stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

CATARRH. Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.
