

IN MEMORIAM

HILTZ—In loving memory of Alexander Hiltz who passed away March 11, 1954.

Sadly missed by his wife and family.

MACLEOD — In loving memory of grandfather Allen MacLeod, who passed away March 11, 1956.

In our hearts your memory lingers
Tender loving, kind and true.
Lovingly remembered by granddaughters Blanche and family.

JEFFERY — In loving memory of a dear mother Mrs. George A. Jeffery who passed away March 11th, 1955.

Beautiful memories silently kept. Of a wonderful mother we will never forget.
For each of us you did your best. May God grant you eternal rest. Always remembered by son Albert and family.

MACLEOD — In loving memory of Allan MacLeod who passed away March 11th, 1956.

What would we give if we could say Hello, dad, in the same old way To hear your voice and see your smile To sit with you and chat a while So you who have a father Cherish him with care For you'll never know the heartache Till you see his vacant chair.
Remembered by son Albert, Tena and family.

MACLEOD — In loving memory of my dear husband, Allen MacLeod, who passed away March 11th, 1956.

No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain,
We have suffered since we lost you
Life will never be the same.
You suffered much in silence
Your spirit did not bend,
You faced your task with courage
until the very end.
At times we are lonely,
Your smile then seems to say
"Don't grieve for me my loved ones
I am with you all the way".
Always remembered and sadly missed by wife Hannah.

MACLEOD — In loving memory of our dear father, Allen MacLeod, who passed away March 11th, 1956.

When father breathed his last farewell,
The shock means more than words can tell
The world seems quite another place,
Without the smile of a father's face.
Alone in sorrow he stands by our side,
And whispers dear daughters don't cry.
We miss him more when we need a friend,
On him we could always depend,
A loving father, good and kind
What a wonderful memory he left behind.
Always remembered and sadly missed by daughters Mary and Annie.

DIAMOND In memory of Ralph Ernest Diamond born Dec. 5, 1955 died March 11, 1956.

Each day our memory wanders,
To a little grave not far away,
Where we laid our little darling,
Two years ago today.

Always remembered by Mommy, Daddy and sister Valerie.

Explorers In Japanese Role

After the satisfactory completion of the missionary exploration of Japan, the Explorer's Group of Trinity United Church yesterday affiliated with the Woman's Missionary Society in a service of worship led by Chief Explorer, Helen Darrach.
The theme was "Living Like Jesus" and featured a dedication and presentation of the Treasure Chest, a program which included the display of work related to the mission project on Japan. These were composed of posters, Battledore, chopsticks, carp banner, Noshi and Japanese numbers. The artists told the story of the part their activity represented.
Several of the girls were dressed in native costumes. Chief Counsellor was Mrs. Leigh Kennedy assisted by counsellors, Mrs. Sterling Beaton, Mrs. Bonar Dalziel and Miss Helen Wilson, pianist.

Red Cross Drive Backed By City Mayor

The following message has been issued by Mayor E.C. Johnstone to the citizens of Charlottetown in connection with the current Red Cross Campaign:

"With 'Let's Knock on More Doors' the slogan for all workers in the 1958 Red Cross Campaign, almost 200 canvassers who are members of the General Charlottetown Committee, headed by Mr. James E. Burden will be calling on firms and employees in Charlottetown this week. Then, the last week-end in March, some 90 women representing over 30 ladies' organizations in Charlottetown will knock on the door of every home in the city to make sure that every potential contributor is given an opportunity to share in providing Red Cross Services. All of these canvassers are 'out' to raise Charlottetown's objective of $12,000, which has fallen short in the past few years. I would ask you to remember that all of these canvassers are volunteers, all busy people who are sacrificing their time in order to do their part to make Red Cross Services available for all of us.

Don't ask them to call back again make up your mind how much you are going to contribute today—and have your contribution ready when they call.

As Immediate Past President of the Prince Edward Island Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society, and a former Provincial Red Cross Campaign Chairman, I know whereof I speak when it comes to telling you the value of the services being provided for all of us through the medium of our Red Cross, and the necessity for all of us to share in providing these services by making our contributions as generous as possible during the month of March."

Better Demand Soon For Base Metals, Is Belief

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor
TORONTO (CP) — Conditions of over-supply and low prices which now press hard on base metals will pass away, Simon D. Strauss of New York, vice-president of the American Smelting and Refining Company, said Monday in an address to the Prospectors and Developers Association.

The one certainty in the outlook for base metals, he said, is that it will change—whether it be from the shortages of the Korean War period or from the surpluses of today.

"Our customers, who today are concerned with shrinking their inventories, will look back at the prices now prevailing and wonder why they did not, instead, replenish their stocks with copper at 20 cents, lead at 9 1/2 cents and zinc at eight cents a pound—which are the prices prevailing in Europe—or copper at 23 cents, lead at 13 cents, and zinc at 10 cents—which are the prices prevailing in the United States.

"For in the long run, prices are certain to reflect the cost of producing the quantity of metals needed by industry and in my opinion that means prices higher than those prevailing today."

Curiously enough, Mr. Strauss said, industrial demand for metals in 1957 was relatively good. Consumption in the U.S. was below 1956 levels, but in other parts of the world it increased.

Deliveries to copper fabricators throughout the world, as reported by the Copper Institute, set an all-time record. Similar figures were not available for lead and zinc, but based on information available it would appear that there was a small decline from 1956, probably about two or three per cent.

Accordingly, today's difficulties were not so much from decreased demand as from excess production. The difference between a shortage and a surplus is a small one, Mr. Strauss said.

"At the beginning of 1956 consumers and producers alike were talking of a copper shortage. "In the two years from Jan. 1, 1956, to Dec. 31, 1957, the copper Institute reported production of 6,000,000 tons of copper. In the same period, producers' stocks of unsold copper increased by 237,000 tons—less than four per cent production. We can be quite sure that consumers did not increase their stocks in this period—because prices were falling.

"Thus a surplus of less than four per cent forced the price of copper down from over £400 a ton in London to the level of £160.

"Copper producers now are cutting back their production. Curtailment comes at a time when business activity is increasing more rapidly than a year ago for 1958, as a whole, owing to copper producers' holding inventories, probably lower than in 1957."

Looking ahead, however, could feel quite confident. Mr. Strauss said "In the Western world the pressure for improved standards will create a demand that will readily absorb the entire surplus production we are after all, relatively small, he said.

The meeting of the producers and developers, which of business sessions Monday continue until Wednesday. About 1,500 delegates are expected.

Mrs. Viola MacMillan, a woman mine owner—a prospector and mine developer—was re-elected president for a consecutive term.
