THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 28, 1896.

THE PROOF FROM THE FIGURES.

The Patriot has assumed, on behalf of the Provincial Government, the tone of an injured innocent. It declares that The Examiner, in its reference to the Bedeque vacancy, "uses the words 'deception, 'corruption,' 'extravagance' freely, but does not produce one particle of proof to substantiate its charges." Is it not too bad that the pure and blameless Administration of Mr. Peters should be condemned without proof? This question and much more is implied in the Patriot's lugubrious outcry because The Examiner's charges are not backed up by proof. Unfortunately for the Government, the people are fully impressed with the idea that they were deceived, that the Government is corrupt, and that it is, as compared with its predecessors, extravagant. Perhaps the Patriot will say whether or not the people are wrong in saying that they were led to believe that the Liberals,the good Liberals led by Mr. Peters, would be more economical in the expenditure of the public money than the Government led by Hon Mr. Sullivan, and would make ends meet, not go further into debt, and not impose direct taxation without first consulting them? At any rate, we ask attention to the following figures drawn from the public accounts :—

SULLIVAN GOVERNMENT EXPENDITURE.

880	$257,308.38
1881	261,275.51
1882	257,228 03
1883	270,477.40
1884	279,545 35
1885	266,317.75
1886	304,466 65
1887	288,052.13
1888	279,939.40
1889	263,604 84

An average expenditure, over a period of ten years, of $272,821.54.

PETERS GOVERNMENT EXPENDITURES.

1891	304,486 41
1892	283,303 57
1893	337,415.36
1894	302,634.19
1895	310,177.20

An average yearly expenditure in five years of $307,603.34, or an average yearly expenditure of $34,781.80 more than the average annual expenditure of the Sullivan Government.

It is not necessary to refer to the fact that the admitted annual deficits of these latter five years under the Liberal administration amount to the considerable sum of $241,059.83. We contend that there is proof in the figures here quoted of all that The Examiner has charged against the present administration.

The fact that the expenditures are nearly $35,000 a year more than those Hon. Mr. Sullivan's administration proves "extravagance."

The fact that this is so, notwithstanding the assurances given before the election that the expenditures would be less than those of the Sullivan-Ferguson administration, and that ends would be made to meet, proves "deception."

And the fact that in the election year of 1893 the expenditures of the Peters Administration were $64,593.82 more than the average of those of the Sullivan Government, and about $30,000 above the average of those of the Peters Administration, proves "corruption"—up to the hilt.

DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS.

The Government Party had not much to say in the debate on the address, concluded last evening. It won't do, as Mr. Laurier admitted, to go too deeply into the causes of the Liberal victory. Enough for the Liberal Leaders that the Tories were divided and defeated and that they are enjoying the fleshpots of office. The speeches of Sir Charles Tupper, Mr. Foster and Sir Hibbert Tupper, were unanswerable. The point that the Liberals gained office, not by fair, square fighting on the issues, but as a result of intrigue and double dealing, has been made good beyond a doubt. Anyone who looks at the facts as set forth by the Liberal-Conservative leader and his able lieutenants must conclude that "Sir Charles Tupper's overthrow was more honorable than Mr. Laurier's victory."

A decided hit seems also to have been made by Senator Ferguson in his reply to Sir Oliver Mowat's laudation of the Senate.

That the Government has to deal with an Opposition strong in numbers, strong in ability, and strong in the right, is now apparent to the country.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The Guardian: "Don't forget our Island, Mr. Davies, when the estimates are being made up."

—Prominent among those whose names are attached to the petition of the Conservative Senators, requesting Sir McKenzie Bowell to continue in the Leadership is the Hon. Donald Ferguson.

—The Autorite, of Paris, noticing the report that the Czarina is to remain at Balmoral as the guest of Queen Victoria, while the Czar is in Paris, says: "If this report is true France will be face to face with an event of enormous gravity, the consequences of which will be incalculable."

—We regret exceedingly to have to announce that a cablegram, received here this morning by Mr. W. F. H. Carvell, contained the news of the unexpected death at Liverpool, where she had recently arrived, of Mrs. Hawe, sister of the late Hon. J. S. Carvell and Mr. Lewis Carvell. No particulars of the sad event were given in the cablegram.

—A letter from Premier Laurier to the Rev. E. H. Burgess, of Stellarton, concludes with the following paragraph:—"With regard to the fear of dismissal which is entertained by some of the railway employes, I firmly endorse your statement as you put it. Those who have been good and faithful employes have nothing to dread. I would not say as much of those who have been offensive partisans."

—Montreal Star: Another feature of Mr Laurier's reply was the official announcement that business can know nothing of the character of the proposed tariff revision until the Government has completed its promised investigation. This is unlucky for business, but it apparently can do nothing but exercise the virtue of Job. It is curious that a party should carry the elections and yet be able to say nothing about the main plank in its platform at all intelligible to the men chiefly interested. Perhaps Sir Richard, when he comes to speak, can say something more definite.

—Senator Longheed, in the Senate, has introduced a bill to amend the Insurance Act which provides that all policies of insurance negotiated by United States companies in Canada shall be payable in legal tender of the Dominion, notwithstanding that there may be a stipulation to the contrary in the policies. The object of this bill is to meet the contingency which might arise in the United States by reason of a free silver policy being adopted in that country. The present position of policies of insurance negotiated in Canada of United States companies is that, upon payment of those policies maturing, payment in most cases, if not in all, is made at the head office of the companies in the United States. Canadian policy holders would therefore be compelled, if silver became legal tender, to accept payment of their policies in that coin, which is only worth fifty-two cents in the dollar. As all premiums are payable in gold, it is urged that there can be no valid objection to making the policies payable in the same coin. The Bill is likely to give rise to an interesting discussion in the Upper House.

BRYAN STILL TALKING.

Says that the Gold Standard Is a Conspiracy.

In the course of a speech to the citizens of Albany on Tuesday last Mr. Bryan said: "Our opponents at last have taken a definite position on the money question. Their platform adopted at St. Louis declares that the gold standard must be maintained in this nation until other nations shall consent to its abandonment. We believe that the declaration that commits us to a gold standard until other nations come to our relief is equavelent to a declaration in favor of a permanent continuation of a gold standard, because we do not believe that other nations will take pity on us before we take pity on ourselves. We have then to consider this question: Ought the American people to submit longer to a gold standard? The Democratic party has begun a war of extermination against the gold standard. We ask no quarter; we give no quarter. We shall prosecute our warfare until there is not an American citizen who dares to advocate the gold standard. They ask 'Why?' We reply that the gold standard is a conspiracy against the human race, and that we would no more join it than we would join an army marching to despoil our homes and destroy our families. I ask you not to take my word alone as to the evils of the gold standard. I call as a witness a gentleman whose voice has been heard in the councils of the Democratic party."

Here Mr. Bryan quoted at some length from the speech of Mr. Carlisle on the subject of bi-metallism, delivered in the House of Representatives some eighteen years ago.

ENGLISH FREE SILVERITES.

Special cable despatches to the New York Journal from London says: The East Suffold Chamber of Agriculture held a public meeting in the Town Hall at Ipswich to hear an address and hold a debate on the topic, "The battle for free coinage, or the American presidential election and the British farmers." A resolution of sympathy for the American farmer was adopted as follows: "This chamber believing that the disastrous fall in prices from which agriculture is suffering in all gold standard countries has been caused mainly by legislation closing the mints against one of the two precious metals, heartily sympathize with and wish success to the American farmers in their present struggle to get the mints reopened."

An address was made by Robert Lacey Everette, ex-member of Parliament for Suffolk, and now a member of the Royal Commission of Inquiry into the agricultural depression. He said farmers here are suffering exactly the same as American farmers, but being such a comparatively small class in England, their complaints and interests are ignored. He strongly believed that the success of Bryan and free silver would greatly help English farmers. Other speakers were mostly farmers, and they expressed similar opinions.

It is stated that the French are taking to heart the unpleasant showing of their new census much more than they did five years ago. Then the Republic was in the first throes of its ecstasy at the prospect of a Russian alliance, and consoled itself by the thought that if the French population did not increase the Russian expanded at a tremendous rate. But now a good deal of gilt is off the golden rod. The Muscovite hordes are by no means so definitely under the French thumb as they were expected to be, and the Russian alliance itself is openly dependent on an unbroken succession of loans from French savings. These savings still make France the richest country in the world, but they also make it a shining attraction to outside robbers. Germany now has 14,000,000 more people than France, and the disparity increases with tragic certainty yearly.

THE UNFINISHED FLOWER.

The beautiful voice is still, the tender hand is fled,
The flower unfinished blooms with love of the lovely dead;
No artist can touch it now, tis linked with realms above:
And no earthly art can paint the splendour of spiritual love.

Touch not a line, leave it, as the artest left it there,
The part that adorns these pages—her life so sweet and fair;
The void will bloom with lovelets—links of heavenly birth—
That unites this saint in Heaven to loving friends on earth.

Dear mother, sister, brother, mourn not your loved one now,
She blooms a flower in Heaven, the crown upon her brow.
Emblem of life's uncertainty, virtue dying young,
Soaring from earth to Heaven like strains the angles sing.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Debate on the Draft Address.

Sir Charles Hibbert's Onslaught on the Parish Politicians.

Senator Ferguson Scores a Point on Sir Oliver.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.

In the House of Commons the debate on the address was resumed yesterday, when Sir Hibbert Tupper took the floor. He is a fighter, but always hits above the belt.

Sir Hibbert Tupper, before recess, devoted his attention more particularly to the Maritime members of the Cabinet and their records in provincial politics. His analysis of Messrs. Blair's and Fielding's course was cheered, time after time, by the Conservative benches.

After recess, Sir Hibbert continued his forcible arraignement of the new Government in its failure to keep its pledges in opposition. So keenly did Sir Hibbert Tupper carry home his exposition of Hon. Mr. Fielding's record, that the Finance Minister several times interrupted him, but was turned down on every occasion with artistic neatness.

Finally, Hon. Mr. Davies objected to a further discussion of Nova Scotia affairs as dealing with merely parish politics.

"And who" asked Sir Hibbert "introduced parish politics into this house? Why, the First Minister when he chose for his cabinet men like Mr. Fielding, who knew nothing else, to supplant that tried and trusted Liberal Financer, Sir Richard Cartwright."

After this rejoinder the Minister of Marine, like the Minister of Finance, ceased his interruptions.

While dealing with the statement that the tariff legislation could not be introduced till next session, Sir Hibbert expressed his suprise that, according to the Liberal idea, nine months constituted a period of gestation in political affairs.

In aptness of repartee, richness of wit, and force of argument, Sir Hibbert's speech was one of his greatest parliamentary efforts.

At ten o'clock the debate ended, and the address was formally passed.

In the Senate, Hon. Mr. Ferguson, referring to the speech just made by Sir Oliver Mowat, said that after all the kind things he (Sir Oliver Mowat) had said of the Senate, it was difficult for him to believe him guilty of heterodoxy upon any subject. But the effect of the kind things he had said was to some extent destroyed by the knowledge that he had not always held these flattering opinions about the Senate. He had recollections of certain resolutions passed by the inter-provincial conference at Quebec at which Sir Oliver presided and by the liberal convention held at Ottawa which were in no sense complimentary to the Senate. He criticized Sir Oliver's letter to Hon. Wilfred Laurier in May last with regard to his accepting a seat in the Senate which he said implied a threat that unless the Senate pursued a certain line it might become necessary to bring about certain constitutional changes affecting the Senate. He could only say with regard to the threat contained in that letter that the best proof of its not being necessary was to be found in the speech which he (Sir Oliver) had just delivered.

A LIBERAL - CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS,

Unanimity of Spirit in the Party.

Sir Charles Tupper Established in the Leadership.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.

The Conservatives held a caucus yesterday. Speeches were made by Hon. Messrs. Foster, Montague, Haggart, Caron, McNeill, McLean and several other prominent members of the party, and on motion of Mr. McLean, seconded by Mr. Dupont of Bagot, Sir Charles Tupper was unanimously continued as leader of the party

Sir Charles, in reply, spoke for about an hour.

The spirit of the caucus, as well as its formal action, demonstrated that the Conservative members are a unit on the old lines of the party, and that the recent battle has wiped away all discord in their ranks.

Henceforth a united front will be presented to the enemy.
