DROWNED.—It is reported that a man named McDonald fell off the wharf at Bonshaw on Monday evening and was drowned before he could receive any assistance.

YACHTING.—The party that left in Mr. Ralph Peake's yacht last week, returned yesterday afternoon after a very pleasant cruise around the shores of New Brunswick.

We regret to hear that, from illness, which confines him to his room, Mr. E. J. Hodgson will not be able to address the Liberal-Conservative meeting this evening, as had been intended.

The steamer Hadji arrived from Montreal yesterday, with a cargo of general merchandise. The Carroll arrived from Boston this morning with freight and a large number of passengers.

A VALUABLE FARM.—Mr. A. McNeill, Auctioneer, sold Capt. Freeland's farm, on St. Peter's Road, on Monday last, to Mr. John Ferguson (who owns the adjoining farm), for the sum of $4,155.00. The crop, stock, etc., also realized fair prices.

THE Halifax "Citizen," which was recently purchased by Mr. Robt. McConnell, of New Glasgow, N. S., has been sold to Mr. Charles Annand, of the "Chronicle," who will continue to issue the paper as an evening edition of the "Chronicle."

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday morning, John Gardiner was fined $3 or 14 days for being drunk and disorderly. John Reid, for same offence was fined the same. John Murphy, for same offence, was fined $2 or eight days.

THE Railway Employees Picnic takes place at Marie to day. A special train will leave Charlottetown station at 8 o'clock, a. m., returning will leave Marie at 6 p. m. The programme for games and boat races has been well arranged; and the prizes offered are very large.

THE Rev. T. DeW. Talmage, we believe, has consented to lecture in Charlottetown on the 10th and 11th prox. The subject of his first lecture will be "The Right Side of Things." No doubt a large number of his many admirers will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the great and popular lecturer.

A considerable lot of productions, principally on spiritualism, free-loveism, &c., that were taken from the lady alluded to in yesterday's issue, were burned by the City Marshal on Market Square yesterday morning. By the way, we cannot help reminding the Argus, which called this individual a "lady," that it is necessary to draw the line somewhere.

Boston, Aug. 20.

In the Lackawanna coal regions the desperation of the idle miners cannot be described. Fifty thousand men are striking, and great trouble is feared next winter. Union colliers of Schuylkill county are raising $25,000 to assist the strike in Lehigh region. An attempt to start the colliers on the north side to day is feared will cause trouble. Miners' meetings recently denounced black-legs and placarded the coal breakers with notes, ordering operations to cease. "Coffin" notices are also freely circulated. Wholesale arrests are being made in Shamokin region and outlaws are threatening vengeance.

WAR NEWS.

ATHENS, Aug. 20.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 20.

Seven thousand Turkish troops disembarked at Sulina and are marching on the Tutscha, which is weakly garrisoned.

The Turks from Silistria are said to be marching against Tchernavoda, and the Russians are hastening to Ismail, where reinforcements are expected.

The Province of Salonica and the coast district from Olympia to the terminus of Adrianople has been declared in a state of siege by the Porte.

Arms continue to arrive here and volunteers literally from the four corners of the globe, but owing to the state of affairs in Bulgaria there will be no movement at present.

Hobart Pasha has left a subordinate to superintend the embarkation of the Caucasians and has gone to Sinope with the most of the fleet. It is believed he goes thence to the Danube.

A correspondent of the Times at Yeni Saghra telegraphs the 16th: "I went with the Turkish army on the 14th to the Chain of Baghza, at Lauei, two hours and a half from the Pass. I saw the bodies of one hundred and twenty persons murdered by the Cossacks and Bulgarians. Among the victims were two women, one very beautiful and young. She had been killed and thrown naked into a pool of water. I saw families, including children, who had been thrown into a well. The houses of these people and the handsome embroidered dresses of the women showed that they had been rich. In one house the women and young girls had been shut up and subjected, during ten days, to outrages by the Cossacks and Bulgarians. The Bulgarians, when they heard of the arrival of the Turkish army at Chain Baghza, carried off Turkish women and children from three to thirty years of age, and fled to the Balkans. The victims of whom I spoke above were all collected together and murdered in succession."

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 20.

The steam tug "Mat White," while towing a barque on Jam River, early this morning, blew up near Rip-raps; the captain, engineer, and one fireman are missing.

PANAMA, Aug. 20.

The details of the loss of the steamship "Eten" state the loss of life to be 50. The loss of the vessel was due to the disarrangement of currents, which had been unreliable since the great upheaval and tidal wave of last spring.

VOTERS.

Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—Please advise the young men to stand up for their rights, and not allow their votes to be virtually taken away from them. Muster in force on Thursday, and do not be fooled out of your votes.

SAXON.

Editor Daily Examiner:

Sir,—Will you allow me to protest against the action of yourself and your contemporary the Argus re immoral literature. In both cases the course pursued was, I am sure, well meant; but was it judicious? Human nature being what it is, a warning not to buy from a certain person and not to take a certain newspaper (the name of which is given) will in too many cases be read without the "not," and the warning will become a gratuitous advertisement. The action of the public will, it is hoped, abate the nuisance, but surely if any time such illicit sales become known to any decent person, his duty is privately to inform the Police Magistrate, but not to give public warning.

OBSERVER.

ELECTIONS.

YOUNG MEN—ATTENTION!

Editor Daily Examiner.

Sir,—As one of the young men of the city, I wish to protest against the scandalous way we have been treated by the Stewart-Davies Combination. I have had my name registered at the County Clerk's office, and am told to appear at the Court House on Thursday, and will probably have to waste another day there, and perhaps go away disfranchised. Since I have been in the town I have not been presented with a notice of taxation of any kind; and I am told that the law says we vote by virtue of having paid certain taxes. What are they? What have we to pay? Or are we to go up on Thursday next before the County Court Judge on a fool's errand? It does seem as if all this bothersome trouble has been put upon us by the patent combination company for the express purpose of disfranchising the many Liberal-Conservatives that did not vote at the Smith-DeBlois and Davies election. If the combination succeed—well, to say the least, I pity the warm time they will have during the coming year. I hope the young men will rise and exert themselves to foil this evident stratagem of our enemies. I hope they will insist upon their names going upon the list.

Years, etc., SUSPENSE.

Ch'town, Aug. 21, 1877.

THE REGISTRY OFFICE JOB.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner.

Sir,—It seems that Norman J. Campbell once had a friend, probably many years ago, and that friend gave to him a piece of advice which he has laid to heart, and so important did he deem that advice that he has taken the public into his confidence and told it to us in the columns of the Examiner. It is as follows: "Never wrestle with a chimney sweep."

I think it most excellent advice—so excellent and so good that, by adopting it, I have placed a most insuperable barrier to my entering into a controversy with him. I very much regret this, but his advice is so good I cannot refrain from following it.

The Argus has dropped Campbell. In an obscurely worded paragraph it abandons him to his fate. The Patriot has never uttered a word in his defence; will the Summerside Journal have pity upon the poor outcast? If not, he is a wanderer for sympathy indeed.

I still reiterate "as to whom I am, is, I think, a matter of indifference." If my charges are untrue, they can be refuted; but that they never have been, because they are unanswerable. Amongst the turgid diction of his sentences it dimly appears as though he thought a lawyer had written my letters. He entirely mistakes. No lawyer wrote them, nor was any lawyer consulted as to a single statement, but I am very frequently in the Registry Office and I cannot but see how its duties are mismanaged. So that, although Campbell has "no doubt" upon what he is pleased to call his "mind," he is entirely inaccurate; and as to the source from which I derived my information, he is still further astray. I have communicated with no "dismissioned clerk." I have held no communication with any one who, to use Campbell's language, has been "kicked out of the Registry office." My information comes from a higher source. That information is correct and true to the very letter. Hence the Argus' abandonment of a man and his doings which are found to be perfectly indefensible; moreover, moved thereby to a hint from a quarter which it could not disregard.

If, to use Campbell's own elegant language, "he took it into his cocoonat"—which I suppose is Registry office slang for head—to endeavor to answer my charges, he might have done something to allay the strong feelings which exist among the public against the mismanagement of that office; but he has not done this, but in his innocence and simplicity has given us his friend's excellent advice, which effectually prevents any one adopting it from entering into disputation with him.

This, however, is poor work. What the public are most concerned with are the doings in the Registry Office, and promising for the future to ignore Campbell, his "cocoonat," and his "mind," I shall lay some further facts before your readers which cannot but be of interest to the public.

Yours truly,

CARD.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—You will soon be called upon to elect a Licensing Board in accordance with the late Act of Parliament. Being solicited, I consented to nomination, and my name has been before you for some weeks. Gentlemen, many of you have already promised me your support, and should you place me in so responsible a position, be assured I shall do my duty firmly, yet with moderation and even-handed justice to all.

JOSEPH KNIGHT.

Ch'town, Aug. 20—

To the Civic Electors of Charlottetown.

HAVING attended a meeting in the Athenaeum on Friday evening last, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Licensing Board, it was agreed that the three persons receiving the highest number of ballots should be the choice. Messrs. Dawson, Cundall and Blake, received the nomination. The next highest on the list was the Hon. H. J. Callbeck. Since then Mr. Blake has declined to run. In Monday morning's Examiner, Mr. Joseph Knight offers his services to the public without getting the consent of the meeting that nominated the candidates, although he received but very few ballots on Friday night. Since Mr. Knight has thought proper not to be bound by the decision of the meeting, it opens the way for others, and I, therefore, offer myself as a candidate for the suffrages of the people. If elected, I shall endeavor to discharge my duty fearlessly and impartially. In our City we have taverns, or night colleges, where the young are taught to drink, swear and gamble; and, if elected, I shall do my utmost to have them closed. The morals of the community must be sacredly guarded and the majesty of the law faithfully vindicated.
