

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 20, 1881.

Public Meetings.

The gigantic efforts made by the Grits of New Brunswick to obtain a fit audience for Mr. Blake seem to have been fairly successful...

The Moon Through the Telescope.

GEORGE FAIRLIE BECK, of Peterboro, Ont., has been regarding the moon through a telescope, and writing to the Mail...

Temperance Convention.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The meeting resumed at 3 p. m. Word was received from Rev. J. O. Borrie and Dr. Murray...

Resolved, That political and legal action in the suppression of the liquor traffic is not only legitimate but right expedient...

Resolved, That this Convention of the Province of Prince Edward Island hereby records its emphatic protest against the attempts made last session in the Dominion Parliament...

Resolved, That the Convention respectfully memorialize the Government of P. E. Island, that no person be appointed Vendors under the Canada Temperance Act...

Resolved, That testimony has been heard and is now in possession of the Convention which enables it to unhesitatingly affirm that the C. T. Act has in some localities been well enforced...

Resolved, That the Convention appeal to all classes and orders of Society to direct attention towards the appalling evils which result from the sale and use of intoxicating liquors...

The Committee on nomination of officers recommended the following which were approved by the meeting.

President.—F. W. Hales, Esq. Vice-Presidents.—Hon. H. J. Callbeck, City; David Rogers, Esq., Freetown; Wm. Laird, Esq., New Glasgow; Rev. D. J. Gillis, East Point.

It was resolved that the Alliance tender its hearty appreciation of the visit of Rev. Thomas Gales to this Province, and thank him for his efforts to establish a P. E. Island Branch...

The Alliance appointed a Finance Committee and Committee on Legal Action, when the meeting closed to meet again on Tuesday evening next, the 26th inst.

Public Temperance Meeting.

The Public Temperance meeting in Market Hall last evening passed off very pleasantly. The Rev. Thomas Gales in a masterly address explained that the object of the Alliance was to secure legislation in the direction of the suppression of the liquor traffic...

Sir Francis Hincks on Canada.

CANADA AS A NATION.

Sir Francis Hincks has been interviewed by a Brooklyn Eagle reporter on the condition of Canada. He denied several of Mr. Goldwin Smith's recent statements point blank. For example, as to local jealousies injuring the progress of the country, he said that if there existed in the Cabinet any undue preponderance for any particular Province...

CONFEDERATION AND COMMERCIAL UNION.

He by no means thought Confederation a mistake, and was sure that a feeling national in the sense of its being thoroughly Canadian was developing every year. As to commercial union, he said Mr. Smith made many reckless statements, and was very angry when they were contradicted.

RECIPROCITY.

There was a great difference between the reciprocity treaty of Hon. George Brown and Mr. Smith's scheme. The former proposed in 1877 that certain articles should be admitted free in both countries, with the reserved proviso that whatever articles were admitted free into Canada from the United States, should also be admitted free into Canada from Great Britain.

ANNEXATION.

He was sure no desire for annexation existed in Canada. She was virtually a self-governing country; yet from P. E. Island to British Columbia not a single representative had raised his voice in favor of it in Parliament.

THE FEELING IN THE MOTHER COUNTRY.

As to the Mother Country, of course if the Dominion were a unit on the subject of annexation he did not suppose England would object. He could neither imagine such a contingency nor recall a single instance in history where a people changed their allegiance without a civil war.

Death of Dean Stanley.

Dean Stanley is dead. By an exchange we learn that he was the son of the late Rev. Dr. Stanley, Bishop of Norwich, and was educated at Rugby under Dr. Arnold. While yet a young man, he began his career at Oxford by obtaining a scholarship at Balliol College and shortly after the Newdigate prize for his poem, The Two Gypsies.

An inspection of our volunteer militia-men, by Lieut.-Col. Taylor, is now going on at Victoria Park.

Supreme Court King's County.

The Supreme Court opened at Georgetown Court House on Tuesday. The following gentlemen composed the Grand Jury:

Archibald J. McDonald, Georgetown, foreman; John McKinnon, Rollo Bay; Daniel Forbes, Montague; Donald B. McPhee, Georgetown; Edward Lane, New Perth; Michael Gregory, Souris; Angus McDonald, Fox River; Alex. McDonald, Hillbrook; David Sencaubaugh, Gasparaux; Duncan Munn, White Sands; Donald Walker, Launching; Jas. Clow, Murray Harbor; Donald McLeod, Montague; Benj. Douglas, Hillbrook; Richard W. Morrison, Dundas; Jas. McEwen, Lot 40; Wm. Gordon, Brudnell; John C. Scrimgeour, Cardigan.

There are only two civil cases for trial, and the criminal calendar is very light. In the Queen at the prosecution of Edward Bell vs. Neil Kennedy—indictment found last term for an assault—the defendant pleaded "guilty."

Souris Notes.

PURSUANT to public notice, a meeting of the Souris Grammar School took place in the schoolroom, for the purpose of taking into consideration important matters, chiefly financial, connected with the school. The present secretary of trustees, upon auditing the books, (which were recently transferred to him) found them in a very unsatisfactory condition—($112 one hundred and twelve dollars of the District money being unaccounted for.)

Messrs. Sterns Bros. have opened a new dry goods store in the spacious building formerly occupied by J. Knight, Son & Co. They have not yet received their complete stock of goods. They are gentlemen of high moral standing, good business capacity, and justly merit a fair share of patronage.

Lobsters for the past month have been so scarce that factories, at least the majority of them, are nothing like self-sustaining, more especially those on the South shore. C. J. Haley, Esq., informs us that with his four factories this year he will not pack as many cases as in former years when he had only one. This plainly shows that this shell fish can be fished out and exhausted, and, moreover, that when factories become so numerous, it will prove detrimental to permanent industry, for instance cod-fishing, as it has done in the adjacent provinces.

The tea held at Souris on the 13th was, notwithstanding the unpromising weather, a grand success. The afternoon was quite misty at intervals, which did not render it very agreeable to the two and a half thousands on the grounds. In all, from Charlottetown and way stations, by both trains, about 800 persons arrived. It was the largest assemblage of people ever witnessed here, among them, young and old, grave and gay, all apparently enjoying themselves to their heart's desire.

Hon. Neil Dow and A. M. Powell, Esq., located on temperance in the Court House, July 12th, to a thronged and uncomfortably filled house, James R. McLean, Esq., in the chair. Mr. Dow, on being introduced by the Chairman, came to the front amid the deafening applause of the audience.

If the amount of paper consumed by a nation has any bearing upon the question of enlightenment and civilization England and the United States take the lead of the world. England produces annually 180,000 tons, and uses about five kilograms (about 11 pounds) for each unit of its population.

HEALEY'S HIBERNIAN MINSTRELS will arrive this evening. The Halifax Evening Recorder says "the company is a first-class one in every particular."

TEA PARTIES take place to-morrow at Kelly's Cross, DeSable, at Montague Bridge, and at Alberton. We wish them all success.

Official returns show how vast are the flocks of sheep owned in the Australian colonies. The New Zealand and Australian Land Company owns 530,000 sheep; Mr. Robert Campbell, 385,000; Mr. George Henry Moore, 90,000; Messrs. Dalgetty & Co., 208,000; Sir Dillon Bell, 82,000; the Hon. William Robinson, 68,000; Sir Crafter Wilson, 400,000; Mr. Kitchen, 80,000, and Mrs. Allan McLean, 500,000.

Woodburn Glen.

Air:—Craige Lea!

O ken ye where the wild flowers blow, In gay profusion, fair and free, O ken ye where the torrents fall, And wind around the greenwood tree.

Tis there the wild dove pensive coos, And pleads his love, nor pleads in vain, The Mavis wakes his sylvan Muse, And Echo sings it o'er again!

It is not for the bowers of bloom, The blossom waving on the tree, The choral song, the bushy croon, That gas my heart gang dancing free.
