IN MEMORIAM

MR. CYRUS D. MACDOUGALL

The angel of death visited the vicinity of Argyle Shore on April 26th, 1951, and claimed as its own, Cyrus Duncan MacDougall in his 74th year. Although he had been in failing health for several months his death came suddenly and unexpectedly to those around him. Mr. MacDougall was the son of the late Alexander MacDougall and Mary MacLaughlin and was born in Argyle Shore where he lived all his life except for the short time he had spent in Western Canada. He was a man of quiet disposition and exemplary character. His friendly spirit and high principles won many friends and made no enemies. He was a member of Bonshaw Baptist Church, and death had no fears for him; the Saviour, whom he had early learned to love was ever present with him, beautifying his soul through suffering.

The late Mr. MacDougall leaves to mourn his passing one sister Lena, Mrs. Duncan Stewart, New Glasgow, N. S., and one brother John W. Argyle Shore, with whom he resided until the time of his death. The funeral which was largely attended was held from Argyle Shore and was conducted by Rev. J. Davison, Charlottetown Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. L. S. Wolfrey, Hampton United Church. The hymns sung were all favourites of the deceased. The Lord Is My Shepherd, Rock of Ages and Nearer My God To Thee, also Will the Circle Be Unbroken was tenderly rendered by Mr. George Carson and daughter Eleanor. The pallbearers were Messrs Chester E. Shaw, Wilbert MacPhail, Robison MacFadyen, Nicholas Gillis, William V. Campbell and Myron Shaw. The floral tributes were many and beautiful which bore their own silent testimony of the deceased. The remains were laid to rest in the People's Cemetery, Charlottetown, beside that of his sister Ada, Mrs. Peter Craig who predeceased him some years ago.

Wins Baking Honors at Hants County Fair

A big hug for Mom! Her cooking not only keeps a fella running for his high chair—but it wins prizes at the fair as well! This winsome young winner at America's oldest agricultural fair is Mrs. Harold Curry, of Curry's Corner, N.S. An ex-teacher who takes farm and house work in her stride, Mrs. Curry knows the value of top-grade ingredients in baking... notably Fleischmann's Yeast. "I can compare Fleischmann's with no other yeast," says Mrs. Curry. "When I started baking breads, I started with Fleischmann's. I found it so reliable that I have never used anything else... Convenient, too, is the Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast, for that extra baking of rolls for a surprise treat." That's it exactly! Because Fleischmann's Yeast is so reliable, so uniformly fast rising, the majority of prize-winning bakers will use no other.
