

Startling Mystery!

A FIERY MONSTER DROPS FROM THE HEAVENS INTO A CREEK—HIS MAMMOTH SWORD COVERED WITH HIEROGLYPHICS.

Accord is a little Ulster county village in the township of Rochester, located on the Delaware and Hudson Canal, New York, which has never achieved or even sought any special distinction so far as known, except that it was the residence of one Daniel Bell, an eccentric man who claims to have made important and valuable mineral discoveries, including massive diamonds in that vicinity.

But during the past week, this little place has been the scene of much excitement, and visitors have come from far and near. A fiery monster was seen to drop into the Rondout Creek at that place recently, sending up a column of steam and boiling water as it fell, that filled those who witnessed it with wonder and consternation.

General Sir Patrick McDougall, commanding the British forces, who is about to retire from that post and return to England, was made the recipient, Wednesday, by a number of leading citizens of Halifax of a handsome testimonial of their esteem.

It is the intention of the British Chancellor of the Exchequer to consider during the present year the question of permitting the growing of tobacco in the United Kingdom.

The Pope's circular to the Irish bishops appears to have satisfied nobody. The London Times complains that it has taken his Holiness unaccountable time to find out that God's justice and the Invincibles' justice are incompatible.

A lady in Kirgston Ont., who is still alive, slept for a period of ten years only waking for meals; she then recovered and remained in perfect consciousness for a year and a half, resembling Rip Van Winkle, in that she was oblivious of all that passed during her slumber.

The London Times hints that Mr. Gladstone is inclined to throw cold water over the emigration scheme proposed by Canadian emigrants, owing to his objections to the State aid system; but that his endeavors to kill off the project will be frustrated.

Mrs. A. F. McLeod, Dressmaker and Milliner, has removed from Mrs. Burris' premises, to the house next to the St. Vincent Nursery, and from distally opposite the entrance to the old burying ground, Malpeque Road, where she will be most happy to attend punctually to all orders entrusted to her, and at reasonable rates.
