HOW TO GET TO CHARLOTTETOWN

The steamer Halifax leaves Boston for Charlottetown every Saturday at noon and will be due at Charlottetown on Monday night. On the following Tuesday at one she will leave on return to Boston. Halifax and Port Hawkesbury are called at every trip. Passengers may take the steamer at any of the ports mentioned. The Halifax has been supplemented by the Grand Duchess.

The steamer City of Ghent plys between Halifax and Charlottetown each week, calling at several ports en route. She is due here every Thursday.

The steamers Coban, Bonavista, Campana, Tiber and Polino, of Montreal, also make Charlottetown a port of call.

Passengers for this Province coming by way of Pictou are brought to Charlottetown by the steamer Princess. Scriptural Names.
We smile at such Puritan names as "Praise God Barebones" and "How Aged in Pines Before the Lord Smith." The Moors, it is said, give sibilant names, but of course the phrases are chosen from the Koran. They are quite as singular as were the Puritan names, and are said often to be as bad a fit. Some examples of these names are given by Mr. George D. Coyne. More than one owner of false weights of our acquaintance rejoices in the title "Slave of the Trustworthy." A former governor of Naha—detested throughout the province for his cruelty and extortion—answered to the name "The Blessed One."
There is, too, in Mogador a loafer whose fiery eyes, dark skin, strong language and drunken habits have gained for him on the English steamers, where he now and then works, the sobriquet "Devil," whereas in his family circle and among the faithful he is styled "Pilgrim of Salvation."—Youth's Companion.

Brains and Climate.
The weight of a man's brain has nothing to do with his mental power. It is a question of climate, not of intellect. The colder the climate the greater the size of the brain.
