

The Daily Examiner

SEPTEMBER 26, 1884.

The Meeting Last Night.

It was pleasing to see so large a meeting, and to observe among those present so large a proportion of those who profit by and suffer from the traffic in alcohol, viz., liquor dealers and women.

According to the natural and proper order of proceeding, the "repealers" should first have set forth their reasons for demanding that the Scott Act shall no longer be law in Charlottetown.

1. In view of the uncertainty of the Liquor License Act, if the Scott is repealed, what is to take its place?

2. If a Liquor License Act were in force to-morrow, who is there to see that its restrictions would be carried out?

3. The best way to secure a further measure of prohibition, is to maintain the Scott Act in force.

In speaking on the second point, Mr. Hodgson called to mind the notorious fact that when we had a License Law it was as grossly violated as the Scott Act, and said that our Police Force is small and inefficient, and our Stipendiary Magistrate either unable or unwilling to compel them to do their duty in this matter.

Mr. Richard Pickard said he was one of those who signed the petition, and one of those who wanted to see the question tested.

The Rev. John Burwash argued the point raised by Mr. Pickard, and declared that prohibition is steadily advancing. In proof of this he pointed out that the Maine Liquor Law is now, after twenty years of trial, by the voice of the sovereign people, a part of the constitution of the State, and cannot be repealed by the Legislature.

After a pause, in which a champion of "the gallant six hundred" was looked for in vain, "Brother Millner" came to the front, and related the story, from Grip, of the liquor dealer who, when found in tears and asked what was wrong, replied that he was weeping for the poor, misguided people who support the Scott Act!

R. B. Fitzgerald, Esq., had a wilful misrepresentation of the words of Rev. George W. Hodgson, as to his conduct as a Magistrate set right, and then explained, in a satisfactory way, some of the difficulties in a satisfactory way.

to prosecute offenders against the Scott Act just as offenders against any other law of the land, and he pleaded on behalf of the police, that public opinion does not require the enforcement of the Scott Act as it does that of other laws.

Desperate Fight with a Lunatic.

DENNIS DUNN ESCAPES FROM THE ASYLUM—WADES INTO THE HILLSBOROUGH AND ASSAULTS HIS CAPTORS WITH A DEADLY WEAPON.

A fortnight ago Dennis Dunn, of Murray Harbor, escaped from Falconwood, and since that time has remained a source of annoyance to the people of West Royalty.

The Panama Canal Company has signed a contract providing for the completion of the last section of the canal in 1887.

The Markets.

Telegraphic and other advices to THE EXAMINER state that there has been a short crop of potatoes throughout the United States and Canada; and prices will probably rise high for this year's crop.

The prices of grain are low all around. In Montreal, oats are quoted at 35 to 35 1/2 cents; barley, 55 to 67 1/2.

Bacon at Liverpool was firmer. Pork, 75s; lard, 38s; bacon, 48s 6d to 49s 6d; and tallow, 35s 6d.

Advices from Chicago state that the hog market was active and weak at a decline of 10c to 15c.

In Montreal, Mess Pork is quiet at from $20 to $20.50; bacon, 13c to 14c.

There is no change in cheese, but the market is in an unsettled condition.

Our Advertisers.

L. E. Prowse informs the public that, having recently enlarged his premises, and secured a large stock of new and fashionable goods, he is prepared to give better bargains than ever.

R. Bearisto informs all interested that he will sell twenty-five building lots at Kensington, on the 30th inst., at 2 o'clock.

W. W. Wellner is selling his stock of Waltham and Elgin Watches at an immense reduction from former prices.

Henry Longworth advertises an auction sale of Stock Farm Stock at the Provincial Exhibition.

Wm. Dodd holds a sale of apples on Monday next, at eleven o'clock.

A. McNeill directs attention to the sale of cattle on Exhibition Day.

A blue book recently issued by the British Government gives an analysed account of the public income and expenditure for the year ending March 31st, 1884.

The Rev. John Burwash argued the point raised by Mr. Pickard, and declared that prohibition is steadily advancing. In proof of this he pointed out that the Maine Liquor Law is now, after twenty years of trial, by the voice of the sovereign people, a part of the constitution of the State, and cannot be repealed by the Legislature.

In the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1883, Canada exported 13,451,410 dozen of eggs, at a value of $2,396,586.
