A Great Book Free!

When Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first edition of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now giving away, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to him, at above address, 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sent post-paid. It is a veritable medicine library, complete in one volume. Contains 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. The Free Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away.

A dollar-and-a-half saved is a dollar-and-a-half made, is it not? Well, to save this dollar-and-a-half collect McLean's Stamps. Every good house wife collects these stamps, don't you? If you don't it is not late to start now. Every merchant who is in our little book we give you free, has McLean's Stamps. Why not deal with them. They sell as cheap as any one else, ask them for the stamps and they will only be too pleased to give them to you and when your book is full bring it to our office at R-verre Hotel, Kent St., and get your money. Ask for McLean Stamps, and see that you get them.

The Cumminsville Sage.
"It is a little and an easy thing," said the Cumminsville sage, "to give a sunny smile and a cheerful word to the downtrodden and unfortunate. The only drawback is the danger that it may encourage him to try to borrow money from you."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Revised Answer.
"Is life worth living?" was at one time a much quoted question, to which the most popular answer was that "it depended on the liver." Nowadays a poorly paid and hardworked clergyman replies that "it depends on the living."—Punch.

Retort Courteous.
"The new boarder has not said a word about the meals yet," said the boarding house mistress.
"No, I believe he's a very religious man," replied one of the victims.—Yonkers Statesman.

Cure For Insomnia.
"I've cured my husband's insomnia."
"How did you do it?"
"Pretended I was ill, and the doctor left medicine which Henry was to give me every half hour all night long."—Vanity Fair.

A Unique Collection.

A Philadelphia man owns a most unique assortment of pieces of blotting paper, collected by his father, who was long an official of the White House, each of which bears, reversed, the signature of a president from General Harrison, who died a month after his election in 1841, to Garfield. On one sheet, the most highly prized of the lot, the last official letter signed by President Lincoln was blotted before he was assassinated by Booth.

No Complaints.

Horse Dealer—Well, John, how about that horse I sold you? Was he quiet enough?
Undertaker—Well, sir, he did give us a little trouble at first. We put him in one of the mourning coaches, you know, and parties don't like to be shook up in their grief, but we've put him in the hearse now, and we haven't heard any complaint so far.—Household Words.

Britain's "Tribute Money."

Several years ago a large sum of money was sent out to China from England in relief of an appalling famine. But Dr. Wenyon of the Wesleyan mission related in a recent speech that he had discovered in Shanghai a commemorative column, erected by the governments' authority, on which this British contribution was calmly set down as "tribute money."—Penang Gazette.

The Unattainable.

She looked at him with soulful, pensive eyes.
"In what," she asked, "do you think true earthly happiness, if it existed, would consist?"
He gave the question careful consideration before he answered.
"In having weather that would enable one to wear an overcoat in summer and a crash suit in winter."—Washington Star.

Uncanny Jewel Box.

The native Andamanese women have a curious custom. When one of them becomes a widow, she prepares the skull of her deceased husband and carries it about suspended at her side. There it answers the purpose of a treasure box, in which she places her jewels, her money and other valuable possessions, so far as space will allow.

Rheumatic Torture

Solomon Woodworth, of Hope-well Hill, N.B., is rescued from a deplorably helpless condition, induced by the agonies of rheumatism. Mr. Woodworth had contracted rheumatism of the severest form and in a very short time was incapacitated for work—for weeks he could get no rest—suffered the most violent pains in his arms and shoulders—grew worse and felt he could not live, so terrible were his sufferings—his arms became perfectly helpless. He began taking South American Rheumatic Cure—after the second dose he experienced great relief and at the end of three hours every vestige of the pain was gone—the use of his hand and arm returned gradually and he feels altogether like a new man and to-day rejoices in a cure which he proclaims almost a miracle. South American Rheumatic Cure cures in 1 to 3 days every form of rheumatism and neuralgia. Do not suffer longer—it will relieve in six hours.
