BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—A $20 legal tender United States note of the series of 1880, signed "B. R. Bruce, Registrar," and "A. N. Wyman, Treasurer," check letter C, is reported to be in circulation. With this omission on the note no one should be deceived.

THE Presbytery of P. E. Island will meet in quarterly session in Summerside on Wednesday, 2nd November, at 11 o'clock a. m. BY reference to the advertising columns of to-day's issue it will be seen that the Y. M. C. A., of this city, have secured the services of the celebrated Jubilee Singers, from the Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn. Those singers have won a world-wide reputation, and have performed before all the Crown heads of Europe. They will, no doubt, be welcomed in Charlottetown, and hope that the music-loving citizens will avail themselves of this grand opportunity of hearing these celebrated vocalists.

OUR old friend, Mr. C. B. Bagster, arrived this morning in the S. S. Carroll from Boston, very glad to be "home again" after his extended round trip to the Pacific, twice passing over the whole length of the C. P. R. by the Lake Route. On the return journey he visited friends and relations in Ontario, made various trips to Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, etc., and spent a summer (keeping bachelor's hall) at that popular watering place, known as Onset Grove. Returning to Charlottetown he has resumed his old quarters at Mrs. George McKay's on Kent Street, where he proposes to winter once more.

ALMOST every day newspaper men are called upon to notice this or that thing which is of no interest to the public, but which would be an advertisement for him who asks the newspaper favor. The columns of a newspaper are the publisher's stock in trade, worth so much an inch, and which he is willing to sell to make a living. Hence, when a publisher is asked for so much space to puff some one free, he who makes the request is acting precisely as if he should ask a jeweler for a ring, or a tailor for a coat. There are some people who think it a favor conferred upon a newspaper to ask a puff. Every puff is worth at least ten cents a line, and when a newspaper gives this away it is just so much out of his pocket.—Ez.

A FARMER named Peter Doyle, fifty years of age, living in Middle Misquodobit, N. S., left his home a week ago last Wednesday to attend a religious service at a farm house four miles away. He did not return. On Monday morning the neighbors were notified and a search was made. After a long and thorough search his body was found lying in a pool of blood about a mile and a quarter from his own house. He had been shot through the lungs. Nothing pointing to the guilty party was elicited at the inquest, but it is rumored that arrests are to be made. A young man who bears a very hard name has been employed with Doyle for some months, and it is hinted that he and Doyle's wife may have been implicated. This, however, is as yet only a suspicion, and may prove wholly groundless.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.)

The Fisheries Question.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.

A special from Washington states that Secretary Bayard has recently asserted that his government has not through its diplomatic representatives asserted its rights to jurisdiction more than 3 miles from the Alaska shore. He does not believe such a claim could be sustained, and that a similar claim by Great Britain to Canadian sealers would be conceded. Attorney-General Garland takes the opposite ground and has maintained the right of the revenue marine vessels to make seizures more than three miles from the Alaskan shore. The President's only interference thus far has been to direct the release of vessels seized in opposition to Secretary Bayard's views. No matter how radical the difference of opinion between the Cabinet officers, a conflict of authority is not inevitable. As to the foreign policy and diplomatic claims of the administration Mr. Bayard is supreme, unless the President overrules him.

Sudden Death of a Conspirator.

LONDON, Oct. 25.

A man died suddenly in South London to-day, and when the police took charge of the body a search of his clothes revealed that he was an American and connected with a dynamite conspiracy. The names of his fellow conspirators were given, but the police were not able to arrest them because they have not committed any overt act. At the inquest to-morrow over the remains full disclosures regarding the conspiracy are probable.
