

Flyers Defeat Stars 6-1 To Tie For League Lead

The Flyers dropped the Stars 6-1 last night at Memorial Field to tie for the first place in the league standings. It was a free hitting game with a total of 21 hits being slashed out by both teams. The Flyers had eleven of them and the Stars 10, which included two doubles and a home run.

The Flyers pushed across three big runs in the top of the second which were enough to win the ball game. A fielder's and five singles accounted for the runs. The winners added two more in the fifth and a single in the ninth.

MacLeod personally accounted for the Star's lone home run when he blasted a mighty home run into right field in the seventh MacLeod ripped in a double in the second frame to lead his team at the plate. Lorne McGaughan was the only Star's player who failed to get a hit. Donnie LeClair had two singles and Don MacDonald hit a double.

MacLeod, Burke and MacLeod each belted out two hits for the winners and Devine led the field with three bingles in four trips. The Flyer infield played error-less and their smart play accounted for the fact that the Star's could get only one run out of ten hits.

Jack Burke made the play of the game when he raced far to his right to pull down a long drive in the fourth.

Bob Bedard Caustic In Canadian Tennis Views

MONTREAL (CP)—Official eyebrows were raised Tuesday over a Canadian Press interview in London with Bob Bedard, 23-year-old Sherbrooke tennis player who spoke his mind about things general in Canadian tennis.

Bedard, who has made a swing of the European circuit with Toronto's Don Fontana and Don Platt, was quoted at Wimbledon as saying he won't return to Europe and doubts if other Canadians will go over next year.

He also said he couldn't see Canada ever being anything but a second-rate tennis power and blamed this condition largely on Canada's short tennis season and lack of opportunities for Canadian boys to play in the United States. He said no one had showed him anything in Canada and "that's why my bad strokes are still that way."

The final 18 holes of the 72-hole tourney will be played today.

Doig, who learned his golf as a caddy, shot a 73 for the opening 18 holes to give him a 221 total.

Second is the local club's Rocky Jollymore and New Glasgow professional Bob Foley with 216 each. Another five strokes behind are Marcel Desjardins, a Sydney pro, and Moncton pro Al Ogilvie with 221 each.

Kenny Lane Decisions "Kid" Howard And Keith Paris Wins Welterweight Crown

HALIFAX, (CP)—Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., used his unorthodox southpaw style to good advantage Tuesday night as he punched out an unanimous 10-round decision over Dick (Kid) Howard.

It was Lane's second win in five weeks over the Canadian lightweight champion from Halifax. Lane weighed 138, Howard 136.

The 6,500 Forum fight fans saw Lane flick his right into Howard's face time and again as the stocky and shorter Howard tried to bore in for his strong infighting. Referee Jack McKenna stopped the scheduled 10-rounder at 2:11 of the third as Grace bled freely from the nose and was reeling about the ring.

Lane won an unanimous decision over Howard here a month ago. In an earlier bout, Keith Paris of Halifax won the vacant Marietta welterweight boxing title with a third-round technical knockout over Bob Grace of Bridgewater, N.S.

At the end both were arm weary. There were no knockdowns during the battle, a preliminary to the Dick (Kid) Howard-Kenny Lane match.

Bob Hesson of Standford, Ont., Canadian amateur light-heavyweight champ, made the jump to professional ranks with an unanimous decision over Fred Stewart of Thorburn. N. S. Hesson weighed 175, Stewart 168.

In a four-round curtain-raiser, Scotty Graham, 140, Halifax, defeated Young Tynes, 145, Truro.

The judges gave Lane a wide margin. One scored it five rounds for Lane, two for Howard and three even. The others made it 6-3-1 and 5-3-2.

There were no knockdowns and neither fighter was marked. Lane was warned twice for heeling. In the ninth he connected with a solid right and left that

Nellie Fox Becoming A "Little Poison" Batter

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO (AP)—It's been some 20 years since the big leagues had a "little poison" batter, but tony Nellie Fox of Chicago White Sox is gaining that sobriquet among American League pitchers.

The record book says Jacob Nelson Fox is 5 feet 8 and weighs 150, yet the belting bantam from St. Thomas, Pa., won't argue if you call him smaller on both counts.

The thing that does count is that Fox carried a 339 batting average into Tuesday night's game with Detroit Tigers at Comiskey Park.

He's the main reason the Sox have stayed within close reach of New York Yankees, even though Rivera and Jim Busby are trying the likes of Minnie Miñoso, Jim Toedt, 250.

"I've had lots of luck at bat, especially on the last road trip," said the 27-year-old Fox. "I'm swinging all the time and I'm connecting."

EIGHT STRIKE-OUTS
Fox, who had struck out only eight times through the last Sox road swing, not only led the club with his .339, but also was high man in total bases with 131.

Fox spans the ball with more accuracy than distance. But at that, Nellie had 5 homers, 5 triples and 14 two-baggers.

Sox general manager Frank Lane jokes that the only thing that would make Fox slump would be a flurry of homers.

But Fox counters: "The day will never come when little me starts swinging for the fences. I'm not built like a slugger and I'm content just to punk that ball where they ain't."

B. C. Crew Seeks Laurels At Henley Royal Regatta

By ARCH MacKENZIE
CANADIAN PRESS STAFF WRITER
HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (CP)—Canada's first bid for honors in the Henley Royal Regatta 70 years ago.

Friday, the University of British Columbia eights crew will be seeking to stay in the fight for the biggest prize of all, the Grand Challenge Cup, which has always eluded Canada's grasp.

A Toronto Argonauts foursome made Canada's Henley debut in 1885 in the Steward's Challenge Cup—unsuccessfully as it turned out. The first Canadian triumph was marked up in 1904 in the diamond scull when Lou Scholes won 6-3-1 and 5-3-2.

There were no knockdowns and neither fighter was marked. Lane was warned twice for heeling. In the ninth he connected with a solid right and left that

In This Corner

Charlottetown's dynamic fight promoter, Ivan Doherty, is planning a "Centennial Special" for July 12th. The main event will bring together a fighter who has been proudly claimed by two communities, Cobey McCluskey, and Jimmy Skinner, an American negro middleweight from New York. Skinner will be the second member of the same stable to have a crack at McCluskey. The first was Rudy Watkins, whom Cobey decided some weeks ago.

After his recent decisive K.O. over Willy Pollard at Dartmouth, a number of sports writers have remarked that McCluskey has turned tiger and has forsaken his fancy-Dan style for that of the slugger. This style certainly paid off in his scrap with Pollard as he had the Bostonian asleep on the resin in the third round. According to the press he showed punching power that few believed he had. This, of course, will come as bad news to his opponents who were always kept busy avoiding his left left hand jabs without the added mental strain of worrying about being belted with a sandbag under the guise of a padded fist that would herald the premature arrival of the sandman.

In a preliminary attraction Gaston Roy, that Frenchman with the howitzer punch, will take on Artie Chorbax, another New Yorker with nine professional fights to his credit since being discharged from the U. S. Army. Chorbax lost two of those fights by decisions. This American is a young fellow, only 21 years old, and his bout with Roy could easily steal the show. As a matter of fact, as any local fight follower knows, any bout that involves that fighting Frenchman could draw the raves on practically any card.

Gaston is a fighter that people love to watch. To Roy a "retreat" probably means a second helping of ice-cream at a birthday party. His experience in back-tracking is so limited as to be non-existent. He has seemingly never heard of that favorite army term "strategic withdrawal." This is one of the qualities that makes his battles so exciting, and what has kept the crowd on the edge of their seats in the past.

Another American will make an appearance on the same card as yet promoter Doherty has not been able to complete arrangements and in a curtain-raiser Bobby Quinn will tangle with Young Steele. This will be

Carter Heavy Favorite In Title Fight Tonight

BOSTON (AP)—Odds climbed to 4 to 1 for confident lightweight champion Jimmy Carter Tuesday on the eve of his scheduled 15-round title fight with Wallace (Bud) Smith of Cincinnati at Boston Garden.

"I'm in great shape—never better," Carter said at the local gym where he has completed his conditioning.

This will be Carter's 11th title bout and he appeared almost unconcerned on what he calls "a day of complete relaxation."

Interscholastic Track And Field Meet Thursday

Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at Memorial Field another big Centennial event will take place with the staging of the island interscholastic track and field meet.

This meet is being staged by the Centennial Committee assisted by the Physical Fitness Division and will bring together young athletes from city schools, Summer-side, Parkdale, Spring Park, Central Royalty, Glenfanning and other centres. Competition is always very keen in these school meets and it is expected this one will be no exception.

Normally only one provincial interscholastic meet is held annually in this Province but this year officials are running this meet as an "extra" to encourage our boys and girls. Another meet will be run off in late September to close out the year's activities in track and field. It is hoped a goodly number of parents and interested fans will be on hand to encourage our youngsters as they give everything they have for their school and community.

Meyer Placed On Disabled List

BROOKLYN (AP)—Russ Meyer, Brooklyn's hardluck pitcher, has been placed on the disabled list with a shoulder fracture.

The Dodgers announced Tuesday the 31-year-old righthander was injured in a collision with teammate Gil Hodges and outfielder Bill Bruton of Milwaukee during a game with the Braves last Sunday.

The break which will sideline Meyer for 30 days is between the collarbone and breastbone.
