GALA DAY IN IRISHTOWN

Picnic in Honor of Mr. Ready—Complimentary Address.

Tuesday was a gala day in Irishtown. A scene of thirty years ago was enacted with a different dramatic personae. The scene of thirty years ago was a grand picnic in honor of Mr. John Forristal who, after a term of 25 years, has resigned his position of teacher of Irishtown school. The picnic of Tuesday was held in honor of Mr. J. A. Ready who, after a service of two years, has severed his connection with the same school. About 300 people were present. The scene of merriment was beneath the shady canopy of "Maple Grove," on the grounds of Mr. Wm. Mann, Irishtown. A more ideal spot for a picnic could not be found. The tables were spread under trees that formed a canopy of brightest green against a sky of heavenly blue. The tables were exceedingly fine, and were loaded with all the good things imaginable, and the little fellows by working hard, managed to appropriate a sufficient quantity to render them unusually expensive. In a meadow nearby games of all kinds were contested, while from the grand stand sounds of music sweet were emitted from a string orchestra and the school choir. All present were delighted, and the old people said they attended no picnic so good since thirty years ago. In the evening a soiree in Mr. Ready's honor was held at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Mann, where the young folk passed a most pleasant and enjoyable time.

The school examination was held on Wednesday forenoon, and the reader can learn how successful it was from the following address, which was read by Mr. John A. Millman:

To J. A. Ready, B. A., teacher of Irishtown school.

DEAR SIR,—We, the undersigned residents of the Irishtown school district, learn with regret that you are about to leave this school, in which for the last two years you have labored so successfully. We cannot allow you to depart without expressing our high appreciation of your services during the time you have had charge of our school. Your diligence, energy, zeal, and scholarship are best shown in the result of your work as a teacher, our school having borne a good name as the visitor's reports show, since you have had charge. Socially your society has been an acquisition to our settlement, and, in many ways you have contributed to the well-being of both pupils and parents. Your mild and unassuming manner has endeared you, not only to the pupils and parents, but to all with whom you have had social intercourse.

In taking leave of you we have only to say that each and all of us give you our heartfelt wishes for your future happiness and prosperity.

EDWIN PAYNTER,
MICHAEL READY,
ALEX. CAMPBELL,
Trustee and Ratepayers.

Mr. Ready's reply was interrupted by sobs from both parents and pupils, and when at last school was dismissed few dry eyes were to be seen.

Doctors said Incurable

But the Notary, Mr. Lemire, was cured of Kidney Disease in two months by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is only when thoroughly convinced of the superior merit of a remedy that public men will give their sanction.

Mr. E. H. Lemire, Notary Public, 1692 Notre Dame Street, Montreal, tells of his remarkable recovery from a severe attack of kidney disease. When doctors had failed, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills saved his life. He writes: "I give this statement, first because it is only just that the merit of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills should be made known, and again in order that others may profit by my experience. For years I suffered with kidney disease which doctors pronounced incurable. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which I have used for two months, I am completely cured. They helped me from the first, and the cure is now perfect."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly on the kidneys, and through their combined influence on the kidneys and liver, cure the most complicated diseases of these delicate organs. One pill a dose. 25 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Sturgeon School Examination

On Friday, June 30, the closing examination at Sturgeon school took place. The pupils, fifty-five in number, were examined in the presence of the school officers and ratepayers, who declared themselves highly pleased with the examination and the way the school has been conducted for the past two years by the teacher, Miss Minnie Creed. The following address was presented to the teacher in behalf of the trustees and ratepayers:

We, as trustees and ratepayers of Sturgeon school district, Number 83, in King's County, do make this address to you, Miss Minnie Creed, as our most highly respected and esteemed school teacher, for the noble manner in which you have conducted our school for the two years in which you have been engaged as teacher to instruct the young and advanced pupils. Under your care and management they have gained so much in progress and nobility that you have won the love and gratitude of the parents for your trouble. For your kindness and noble manner you are held in high esteem and respect by all who know you. We, as trustees and ratepayers do wish you success and prosperity in your future days as you are going to give up school teaching for some other cause. We hope that this short address will please you in showing the respect we hold for you as our teacher.

After this address the teacher made a suitable reply to all. Then the pupils joined hands and sang Auld Lang Syne, followed by God Save the Queen.

JAS. M. SMITH,
Sec. of Trustees.

A Curious Case.

PARIS, July 4.—A verdict has been rendered in the curious case of Getron V. Dutuc. The plaintiff and defendant, who were neighbours, traded wives some time ago, and the exchange did not disturb their friendship until M. Getron realized that all the children of the families had fallen to his share. He was supporting not only the two children of his first marriage, but also the three of the former Mme. Dutuc, now Mme. Getron. He demanded that M. Dutuc pay him half of the cost of rearing the children. He lost the suit, the court declaring that the Dutucs owe nothing to the Getrons, because the obligation of parents to bring up their children is not an in solido obligation. Consequently the parent who has alone discharged the obligation cannot afterwards claim payment from the other of half the sum he or she has thus voluntarily disbursed.

Upleasant Experience

LONDON, July 4.—Inhabitants of Thurso, in the far North of Scotland, are at present undergoing a most curious, if unpleasant experience. The other day, during a strong wind, over a hundred bottle-nosed whales were stranded along the sand-dunes to the town. To remove them, far less bury them, was out of the power of the inhabitants, and the June sun, which is pouring its rays upon the bleached bottle-noses, is making the little town almost uninhabitable. Short of a convulsion of nature to clear the fibre of the whales and decrease the off-nosiness of the odour, tourists have the prospect of being compelled to vacate their homes for the remainder of the Summer.

NEWS NOTES.

Two deaths have occurred of two famous horses. One of them was Gen. Lord Roberts' grey Arab charger Violel, which was 29 years old. He bore Lord Roberts in his African campaign, and the Queen conferred medals on the animal for his services, which were worn on his martingale when he conspicuously carried Gen. Roberts in Her Majesty's jubilee procession. The other animal was the Prince of Wales' brood mare Perdna II, which was the dam of Persimmon and other racers.

MRS. WILLIAM STONE DEAD

Souris has lost one of its most estimable residents by the death of Mrs William Stone, which sad event occurred on the morning of the 27th ult., after an illness of only twelve days, in the 56th year of her age. The deceased was a woman of sterling worth and integrity, and endeared herself to all who knew her by her genial disposition. She died fortified by the last sacraments of the Catholic Church, of which she had been through life a worthy member. To her family, brothers and sisters, it is a consolation in their sore affliction to know that she died a peaceful, happy death, fully resigned to the Divine Will, and with firm hope of eternal bliss. The funeral took place on the 29th ult., to St. Mary's Church, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. D. F. McDonald, after which the interment took place with the usual ceremonies.

Long, long shall we miss thee, our lives are now lonely,
We miss the dear music thy loved voice e'er made;
And of all the sweet past now to cheer us we've only
The sacred remembrance which never shall fade.

Mother, in thy cold grave, Oh, how can we leave thee?
Thy life is held closer, more dear than our own,
O, Heaven forgive us, thus deeply to mourn thee,
But home is now dreary and cheerless and lone.

Farewell, then, God rest thee! though hearts are now breaking,
We'll meet thee in Heaven, for Hope's angles tell
That life is a dream and death only the waking,
Farewell then, our loved one! God bless thee, farewell.

SOLDIER'S GOOD FORTUNE.

Gunner Napoleon Comtais of the R. C. A. Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, July 3.—Napoleon Comtais, gunner, No. 2 Company of the Royal Canadian Artillery stationed at the Citadel here, considers himself a lucky man. He will wear the Queen's uniform for years yet. He expected at one time that kidney disease would necessitate his quitting the service. But he heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Gunner Comtais recently received a letter asking about his cure. He replied as follows:—
Royal Canadian Artillery Library,
Quebec, June 1st, 1899.

Dear Sir,—I received your letter and hereby certify that I was cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills. By them I can be a soldier a few years yet.

The initial operations of the great iron works have begun.

Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion contains the hypophosphites.

These alone make it of great value for all affections of the nervous system.

It also contains glycerine, a most valuable, soothing and healing agent. Then there is the cod-liver oil, acknowledged by all physicians as the best remedy for poor blood and loss in weight.

These three great remedial agents blended into a creamy Emulsion, make a remarkable tissue builder.
