Larter's Team Wins Ch'ship

By JIM CULLEN

Rogers Rangers humbled Bert Steele's St. Dunstan's High School hockey team 3-1 in the fifth game of their best-of-five championship series in the Charlottetown and District Junior Hockey League at the Charlottetown Forum, Sunday afternoon before approximately 2,000 enthusiastic fans.

The High School team replaced the Junior Varsity aggregation as the St. Dunstan's representative in the local junior loop after the Christmas recess and were undefeated in league competition. In the semi-final round the Saints trampled the North River Junior hockey club while the Rangers' faced elimination before battling back for a thrilling victory over John "Spy" Ready's Prince of Wales Welshmen to gain the right to meet the highly rated Red and White team in the finals.

The Steele coached forces downed the Rangers 6-3 in their first meeting in the final round and then they added insult to injury when they blasted the Norman Larter coached squad 9-2 and took a 2-0 stranglehold on the best-of-five series.

The third game appeared to be just a formality, but the Rangers returned to jell and they pulled out a 5-4 overtime win over the Malpeque road students on a goal by James Kennedy. In the fourth game the Rangers fought an uphill battle all the way and squeezed out a 4-3 decision over the Saints to force the fifth and deciding game.

In Sunday's game the Rangers proved to be the stronger team as they outbumped and outskated the Steele coached aggregation throughout the game. Arnold MacLeod played a stand-out two-way game for the winners. He was a thorn in the side of the student's attack all afternoon.

Both goaltenders played a big part in the outcome of the game and we feel that neither netminder had a chance on any of the three goals that were scored. The fourth goal was scored in an open net when the Saints pulled Carl McQuaid for an extra attacker.

The Rangers' championship concluded what we feel was a most successful season for the Charlottetown and District Junior Hockey League. The Larter coached squad captured both the regular league honors and the championship, but they were forced to come from behind to emerge as champions.

Tid Bits From Here And There

Morell will host Buster's Flyers in the second game of their Island Intermediate 'C' championship final tonight. The Morell representative leads the best-of-three series 1-0 as a result of their 7-5 win over the Flyers at the Charlottetown Forum, last week. A win for the Morell pucksters would give them the Island championship on home ice tonight.

Martene Dayman, an Australian swimming star, suspended along with Dawn Fraser, is taking her case to the highest authority. Her lawyers announced Monday she will appeal to the International Swimming Federation. Miss Dayman was suspended for three years. Miss Fraser, a triple Olympic gold medalist in the 100-metre freestyle, was set down for 10 years by the Amateur Swimming Federation of Australia.

Youth in and around Halifax have come up with a new fad called "Sidewalk Surfing." The "Surf Board" is usually homemade from a short piece of board to which four roller-skate wheels have been attached. The rider stands on the board, if he's agile and lucky, and races down any inclined paved surface. Victoria General Hospital in Halifax reports two or three persons treated every day for scrapes received when they parted company with the "Surf Board."

Harry "The Barber" Sentner was a little disappointed yesterday due to Roger Crozier's failure to capture the Vezina trophy, but Harry came out with a big prediction as he called for the Red Wings to take the Stanley Cup and added they will eliminate the Black Hawks in six. We are afraid Mr. Sentner is suffering from a multitude of disarranged ideas. This observer calls for the Billy Reay coached aggregation to topple the high flying Red Wings in six contests and then win the Cup from Toronto in the finals.

S' side Trample Rangers; Win Junior Hockey Title

Summerside Junior Legionnaires, using a six goal second period as a safe lead, defeated Charlottetown's Rogers Rangers 9-4 at the Charlottetown Forum last night, before some 1100 fans. The Legionnaires, who won the Island Junior crown last year by defeating North River Juniors, now meet the Nova Scotia entry in the Canadian Junior finals.
The Legionnaires combined fast skating, a hard rock defence, and perfect passing to down the Rangers, who were playing their sixth game in little more than a week.
The Rangers were able to hold off the bigger and heavier Legionnaires throughout the first period. Although the Summerside team did have a big ice advantage, John Reid and the Ranger defence was able to hold them off.
The Legionnaires were even better in the second frame than they had been in the opening period. Paul MacWilliams opened the scoring for the Legionnaires with a back hand drive that went over Reid's elbow into the upper right hand corner of the net at 3:16. Wayne Trainor gave the Summerside team a 2-0 lead after four minutes and 14 seconds of action after taking a pass from behind the net from Whi Mutter and rifling a hard shot past Reid. Ivan Baglole scored Summerside's third goal on a real flouk. Bob Perry had taken a shot at the Ranger net in which the Ranger goalkeeper was able to handle but the rebound came out to Baglole who fired for the corner. Reid stuck out his leg but the puck took a bounce over Reid's leg. Dave Gaudet scored goal number four at 8:14 for the Legionnaires on another rebound that Reid netted. Paul MacWilliams scored his second goal in the period when he combined on a play with Terry Arsenault and Baglole at 16:27. Arnold MacLeod scored the nicest goal of the night when he took a pass from Jamie Kennedy and skated in all alone on Gary Sommers. MacLeod gave a nod of his head and Somers went that way while the Ranger forward shot the puck into the open side of the net.
Paul MacWilliams rounded out his hat trick with a goal at 11:04, less than a minute after MacLeod's marker. MacWilliams took a pass from behind the net and rifled a hard shot past Reid.
