a grade below which he cannot go to pass. The motto of the man of the mind as the State; the country therefore is not all in all for the soldier. This is the radical view in a soldier's mind. It is to be added to this, that he has none of those administrative services which are completely indispensable to a soldier's mind. A GOOD COMPARISON.

THE Rev. William Rowland, a well-known clergyman in England, reading one of the following accounts by comparison between Dr. McNeill's celebrated Vermifuge and a ferret:—

When the ferret was placed at the entrance of a rat-hole, enter the aperture, travels along the intestine, seizes upon the rat, exterminates his existence, and returns to the light. And in like manner has found Dr. McNeill's American Vermifuge to operate upon the worms of children, rendering them innocuous.

This remedy, like the ferret, enters the aperture of the mouth, travels down the pulmonary and intestinal tubes, lays hold of the worms, shakes the life out of the reptiles, sweeps them clean their den, and carries their carcasses clear of the system. This at least, has been the effect of the Vermifuge upon my children.

A neighbor of Mr. Rowland, Mr. John Briggs, writes the following interesting certificate, both giving their most unequivocal approval of this great specific, and having witnessed its operation upon their own children. Let others try it, and be satisfied.

IF Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. McNeill's celebrated Vermifuge, and take none of the other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. McNeill's Vermifuge, also his Celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.
