THE CAPTURE OF FORT ARTHUR.

Japanese Loss 300 Men.—The Chinese Make a Desperate Resistance.

According to advices from Tokio, Marshal Oyama has sent a report from Port Arthur under date of Nov. 22nd, as follows: On Nov. 20 the Japanese army attacked the forts near Port Arthur. The right division stormed and captured the fort to the westward of the artillery parade grounds at 6.30 in the morning. It advanced in the direction of Port Arthur and stormed and captured Fort Kobson. The left division stormed and captured the fort southeast of Kackio, and on Nov. 22 the two divisions took all the outer forts. The enemy fought bravely throughout. The number of Japanese killed and wounded exceeded 200. The killed, wounded and prisoners of the enemy can not now be estimated. A great quantity of ammunition and other material and many caissons were captured. The enemy numbered more than 2,000.

The battle lasted eighteen hours. The reports of the fighting are very meagre, but it is believed that both sides suffered heavily. China's loss, it is said, exceeds that of Japan, for undisciplined as the Emperor's soldiers were, they fought with the desperation of tigers. The attack on Port Arthur by Japan's second army under General Oyama was so carefully planned that when fire was opened the Japanese troops assailed the city at every point. The fighting was terrible and was only ended when the Chinese, unable to struggle any longer, withdrew in retreat to the mountain passes near by, leaving the city to the mercy of their foes. The fall of Port Arthur clears the way to Peking for Japan. Whether or not that city will suffer a like fate must depend upon what action China will take within a very few days. Already China has asked for peace on the terms of paying 250,000,000 taels or $175,000,000 for it. With Peking in peril so one can estimate what figure Japan will place upon peace. The plan of the Japanese for an advance upon Peking have succeeded completely. At Moukden an advance through the interior was so hazardous as to be almost impossible. The second army was sent to silence Port Arthur and it has done so. With the great naval station in Japanese hands and with Japan's victorious fleet guarding the place on the water side, China's fleet is powerless. Japan, on the other hand, has a clear road by land beyond the sea gate, thence along the westerly shores of the Pe-Chi-Li gulf to Chi-Tien-Tsin. With the Japanese army in pursuit the Chinese must make their last stand in the mountains that are in the path to their destination. Passes may be held for a long time if the Chinese army can be rallied sufficiently to make a stand. It is not believed here that China will continue the war any longer. Port Arthur is regarded by all European military and naval critics as the key-stone of China's defence, and without which she will be at Japan's mercy.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND HORSES.

The "Gem of the Gulf" is finding a large sale for its superior horse stock this season. Bayers have been on the island from all quarters and some very good stock has been picked up, though the last reports are that the prices are accounted for the introduction of purchasers, have gone up and very few good horses can now be obtained less than $125.—and these figures certainly give no margin for speculators. Messrs Martin L. Tupper, of Upper Stevedock, and John Beck, of Dartmouth, have just returned from a trip to the island and brought back "between ten and twelve" horses sold at profitable prices in Halifax and Dartmouth. "Martin" has but few equals in Colchester as a judge of a good saleable horse.

Messrs. William Ellis, of the Ellis Hotel, and Archibald, of Musquodoboit, returned last night from the island, with a string of 12 horses for local markets. They report the markets on the island pretty well culled of the best animals, and that traders will not pay a much higher price for their purchases for the rest of the season.

Two American speculators, while Messrs. Tupper and Beck were on the island, shipped two carloads of horses to Boston, sold them at auction in that city, and returned for another consignment, all within three weeks' time.—Truro News.

INDIANS ON THE WAR-PATH.

The Crees are Making Serious Trouble Near Silver Bow, Montana.

A gang of Cree Indians, remnants of Louis Riel's notorious band, are making serious trouble in the vicinity of Battle, Montana, near Silver Bow. Eben Alloys, who, with his uncle A. Grindell, have a contract for cutting wood six miles from Silver Bow, have been camped near there for some time. There are about one hundred lodges of Crees, comprising in all three hundred Indians, encamped near Silver Bow, but no attempt to molest the wood camp had been made till Friday. In the afternoon, when Grindell and the Alloys returned home from the woods, they found two Indians carrying off their property. On seeing them, the Indians opened fire and the men narrowly escaped. Mr. Alloys at once went to Butte after the sheriff. He said that a short time ago the Indians visited Doran's ranch in the same vicinity. Laura Doran noticed a party of them carrying off a quantity of vegetables, and remonstrating with them. Two of the Indians chased the girl into the house, brandishing their huge knives in the air and threatening to kill her if she interfered with them. The Indians are said to have killed a number of cattle in the same vicinity.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

New York, Nov. 26.—A special cable from Rio Janeiro says Brazil has decided to send a fleet against this country, it is learned, on account of Brazil's refusal to arbitrate pending questions. Though the action of the government in the case is universally approved here, President Moraes will prepare new propositions and forward them to the Italian Government. The United States may be asked to recognize the Brazilian fleet left yesterday with sealed orders. It is rumored that warships have been sent after DaGama, who now commands 3,000 men. The monarchists, report says, propose rising all over the country and forcing the Government will be unable to cope with them. Troublesome times are predicted.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 26.—Under a new edict, the entrance of American newspapers into the country has been prohibited. This action is supposed to be due to the attitude of the American press on the Armenian question.

ROME, Nov. 26.—Repeated earthquakes shook Reggio Messina today. The terror of the inhabitants has increased. It is wet and cold throughout the districts around both cities and hundreds are living in the fields. Many families are destitute of shelter and have only straw for their beds. Relief committees are being organized and a special relief bill is in preparation for parliament.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—A comely woman of the unfortunate class, about 30, was found dead in a frequent thoroughfare in Kensington about midnight. Her throat was cut from ear to ear and some of the newspapers intimate it is another crime of the Jack the Ripper order.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The Moscow Gazette protests against the Anglo-Russian entente saying: "Previously whenever Russia was in difficulty England aimed to turn the situation to her own profit. We do not believe England is cordial to Russia. She appears so only because she is convinced of Franco-Russian solidarity and the winning power of the triple alliance and hastens to join the stronger side."

BERLIN, November 26.—Despatches from St. Petersburg ridicule the reports of an Anglo-Russian alliance on any basis of a free passage of the straits, mutual action in the far east, etc. The negotiations in progress between the two governments relate solely, it is said, to a more accurate definition of the Afghan frontier. A settlement of the Pamir question has been effected and a protocol been signed. The entente covers also the succession to the throne of Afghanistan, in which Russia has pledged herself to abstain. This is a practical gain for England, as it relieves her of fear of an Afghan pretender.

ROME, Nov. 25.—Despatches received here from Reggio say that there are 50,000 persons in that district who have been rendered homeless by the recent earthquakes. Many bodies were upheaved in the cemetery at San Procopio, and a number of bodies remain in sight and will have to be interred. Horrible scenes have been witnessed in the stricken districts where numbers of people have been wounded, and in several cases terribly maimed. Some of the sufferers had limbs torn off, which caused death before they could be removed from the streets. The military and volunteers of all classes of the inhabitants are working with energy building huts and providing food for those who are most in want. Sixty churches and convents have been destroyed and the most serious disturbances continue to be felt in Millazzo, Sicily, where the inhabitants are still terror-stricken.

GOOD TEMPLARS LODGE.—Another Good Templars' Lodge was recently organized at Pownal, with the following staff of officers: Jane Wood, V. T.; William Lund, Chap.; W. A. Chandler, F. S.; Bertie Webster, Sec.; Ida Wood, A. S.; Hensley Jenkins, Treas.; Samuel Chandler, Mar.; J. Jenkins, D. D.; L. C. Leitch, F. S.; Bruce Stewart, O. S. The regular meeting will be held on Monday evening. The Lodge has twenty-five charter members.

ROME, Nov. 25.—The town of Alatri, in the province of Rome, was the scene today of a riot similar in its nature to that occurred at Roma, and growing out of the same cause—the imposition of octro duties. A mob numbering 600 persons, mostly peasants and including many women, attacked the mayor's residence with stones. The police were powerless, and it was necessary to call out the military before order could be restored.

—Montreal Witness: The celebration of Thanksgiving throughout Canada cannot but have caused many a merchant and financier to look back more carefully over the events of the past year, as reasonably such a survey must have led all to a deep sense of gratitude for the escapes which Canada has had. It is quite true that the present dealing in business is one of unpopularity, or rather perhaps of patient waiting for the turn of the tide of quietude which has been affecting our trade. It is quite true also that the coming winter promises to be one of some severity upon many classes. But when we contrast the condition of Canada with that of other countries we have much to be thankful for.

—The Brandon Mail, summing up the tariff outlook, concludes thus sensibly: "We should always retain enough duty, when the Americans are slaughtering excessive production, to prevent reasonable profits from being realized but our duties should never be high enough to admit of combines to extort from our own people. In the matter of natural products we should always let in as reasonably as possible such merchandise as does not diminish the prices of our own productions. In short, we should look at the trade question, like business men, and in acting do the most good to the greatest possible number."
