

THE LEADING DAILY PAPER OF THE PROVINCE... RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION...

ONE YEAR $1.00... THREE MONTHS .75... ONE MONTH .25...

The Weekly Examiner is issued every Friday morning from the publishers' office...

CALENDAR FOR OCTOBER, 1895

Full Moon, 3rd day, 6h 34.9m p. m. Last Quarter, 11th day, 10h 21m a. m. New Moon, 18th day, 1h 07.5m a. m. First Quarter, 25th day, 6h 51.5m a. m.

Table with columns: Day of Week, Sun rises, Sun sets, High water. Rows for days of the week from Tuesday to Thursday.

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

EYE AND EAR, NOSE AND THROAT

Office - Kent Street

Aug 16, '94-ly

The Prince Edward Island COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

THE PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND Commercial College and Shortland Institute is now open.

Subjects taught include Bookkeeping, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Business and Legal Forms, Business Correspondence, Penmanship, Shortland and Typ. writing.

Students admitted at any time. We guarantee attention to business. S. F. HODGSON, W. H. CROSSKILL, Principal.

NELLIE M. HODGSON, Asst. Teacher. Box 212, Charlottetown, sept 30

JUST SO.

For fineness of finish, artistic posing and moderate prices our Photos are unsurpassed anywhere.

C LEWIS, Entrance on Grafton Street, Opposite P. O. sept 16

For Sale or To Rent

The well-known Business Stand, the "Central Hotel," formerly the "Railway House," situated on Richmond Street.

THOMAS CAMPBELL, Richmond Street. sept 13

MONTAGUE Carriage Factory.

We are showing this season a finer line of Carriages than shown by us heretofore. The assortment consists of Top and Open Buggies, Jump Seats and Road Carts.

For style, comfort, durability and excellence of workmanship our stock cannot be surpassed.

Also at hand, at lowest prices, CARTS, TRUCK WAGONS, and all Carriage Findings, such as Breeches, Whip Sockets, Washers, etc., usually found in a first-class Carriage Shop.

Prompt attention to Repairs. Painting a specialty. Terms reasonable. JOHN McLEAN & SON. July 13-ly & wky

PHOTOGRAPHY

Superior workmanship, refined finish and moderate prices combine to make these Photos the most satisfactory in Charlottetown to-day.

GEO. H. COOK

Corner Queen & Grafton Sts.

-IF YOU-

Want a wife, Want a cook, Want a partner, Want a situation, Want a servant girl, Want to sell a farm, Want to sell a house, Want to rent a house, Want to exchange anything, Want to sell plants or grain, Want to sell groceries or drugs, Want to find customers for anything, Want to sell by horse, pigs or cattle. ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

TERMS: Four Dollars a Year

"This is true Liberty, when Free Born Men, having to advise the Public, may speak free."-Euripides.

Single Copies Two Cents

VOL 35.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. ISLAND FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1895.

NO 92

W. & W. Popular Shoe Store. W. & W.

LOW PRICES

JUST WHAT YOU WANT.

The latest productions in Quality, Style and Comfortable FOOTWEAR.

Our New Stock is up to date and well selected in the best market for spot cash.

Your purse will open quickly when you gaze upon the bargains we offer in our new lines of Fall and Winter Stock of now selling at the lowest bottom prices for cash. Come and see the goods; we will make the prices right. Remember the place.

Boots, Shoes, Rubbers and Overshoes,

WEEKS & WARREN,

Next to Lewis' Photo Rooms, Market Square.

Charlottetown, September 13, 1895. 135 & wky

True Lovers

of delicious TEA are satisfied when supplied with our lines of English Breakfast Congou, India, China, Oolong and Ceylon Teas. We believe our 22c. Blend to be the best on the market for quality, strength, flavor and price.

We carry a full line of Canned Goods, Jams and Jellies, Fish, Boned and Skinned Dried Codfish Flour, Meal, etc., which we will sell at the very lowest prices.

Our aim is to buy the most reliable good and sell them at the lowest prices. Eggs taken in exchange for cash or goods. Goods delivered to all parts of the city.

WILLIAM GRANT & CO.,

Charlottetown, June 19, 1895-135 w

QUEEN STREET.

$7.00 each.

$250 each.

JEWEL COOK STOVE AND RANGES,

$7.00 to $250 each.

The largest line sold on the American Continent and the best. Sold only by R. B. NORTON & CO., City Hardware Store.

Charlottetown, September 17, 1895-25

FIRE.

Hazard's Sea Shooting Powder, F. F. Acadia Smokeless 1-22 Papers

Shells, Nos. 8, 10, 12, Wire Cartridges, Loaded Cartridge, 10 and 12, Shot, all Sizes, Wads and Caps,

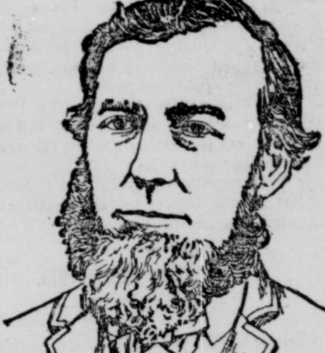

1 Double Barrel No. 8 Gun (Muzzle), Guns, Muzzle and Breech Loaders, 10 & 12

SIMON W. CRABBE, Char'town, Aug. 23, 1895-135 & wky

A GREAT MANY PEOPLE

imagine they cannot get a stylish, up-to-date, made-to-order Suit of Clothes under $20.00 or $25.00. These people have never seen the Suits we make for $12.00, $14.00, $16.00 and $18.00. Fit, workmanship and material guaranteed, thoroughly made and trimmed. Also, Rubber Coats, Fur Coats, Fur Capes, made-up Ulsters.

JOHN MACLEOD & CO., Charlottetown, October 9, 1895 135 w

A POET OF CANADA.

He Slugs of Cheese Principally, & Turns Occasionally to Other Themes.

The light of James McIntyre is general, Ontario, poet and undertaker can no longer be hidden under a bush or a cheese box. The course of events is bringing him prominently before the mind of every close student of contemporary literature, and he will no longer down.

Fair Canada is our theme. Land of rich cheese, milk and cream.

But besides looking to him for verses that contain more butter fat to the line than the works of any other author, living or dead, the weary Canadian are turning to him for an example of serenity and philosophic calm that is sorely needed at the present time.

Canada has been having a hard time of it with her literary men. They have been squabbling in the papers over their rights and wrongs, and a battle of the barbs is in progress. All of them want to sit above the Artistic and literary world, and sit at the head of the table. Mr. William Wilfred Campbell, like McGregor, claims that the head of the table is where he sits, and the friends of Mr. B. Carman argue that he should have the precedence.

Old friends and new he'll gladly meet On the west side of Thames street, He'll argue the case of the country young, And a good stock of furniture.

Neither floods of water nor words can disturb him. He woad his ox-eyed muse in peace, and with a mind not cumbered with envy, his position is too thoroughly established to be lightly discussed. He is a poet of the people. Notice the modesty of the prologue to his second volume, entitled "The Rise and Progress of the Canadian Cheese Trade." In his epigrams feet firmly planted in the rich alluvial pasture land of central Ontario, thus McIntyre:

It is folly now to aim Or to seek for distant fame, But rest content if we can claim Something of a local name. On the pleasant banks of Thame Because in simple strains we sung The glories of our country young, Of cows, and milk, and cream, and cheese, And of fat steers sent o'er the seas, Of more or less of the same kind, Of hogs and sheep and hens and geese, Themes worthy of our songs and glees.

Worthy indeed, and worthily treated, Which of all the quarrelling Canadian poets could have written this simple lay. Above all, he is the laureate of the day, and his verses are a post par excellence. Whether he chants a Pindaric ode to one Father Lannan,

Who was the first there to squeeze His cows' milk into good cheese, or from the top of his caseous Patmos beholds with prophetic vision a ten-ton cheese to be, cheese is his great argument. But although these great themes is dwelt upon often and stimulates him to some of his loftiest flights, no pent-up cheese factory contracts his power. He is no "sing the glories of an empty day." Enslilage and bears, wild geese and stone stables, tile drains and the Northwest rebellion engage his lyre in turn, while

In Ontario the hen Is worthy of the poet's pen. Naturally his sympathy with the cow is very close and is tenderly expressed in the following lines:

The cow is a kindly creature, Kind and gentle in each feature, About her is a homely charm, And her dog should not alarm, But let all guard her safe from harm The gentle creature on the farm.

Still it is not on account of her estimable personal qualities, but as the fountain head and sine qua non of cheese, that the cow appeals most strongly to the poet's affection. Shake-speare himself had a wider range or a more versatile fancy than the bard of cheese. Now he moves in stately measure along the banks of the Canadian Thames, pausing at St. Catherine's famed for mineral waters.

And for the beauty of her daughters, and now thrills the reader with a tale of adventure, whose opening lines kindle the imagination, and disclose a vista of wonderful possibilities:

I bought of land two miles square, I knew not it contained a bear. In the work of a writer so catholic in taste and so lofty in theme it is not surprising to find a broad and noble tolerance towards his brothers of the poetic choir. McIntyre's generous appreciation of the work of others bespeaks a mind too wise for envy and too great for scorn. With fine emotion he laments in this musical threnody the fate of Shelley:

But I have scarcely time to tell thee Of the strange and gifted Shelley; Kind-hearted man, but ill-fated, So youthful, drowned and cremated. Elsewhere he pays this tribute to Whitman:

Poe erratic who leads the van, Wildly wayward Walt Whitman; He erred grand work in civil war, Where he did dress many a scar, And kindly wet the hot parched mouth Of Northern soldiers wounded South.

It is not much to say that Post McIntyre has fairly met the other Canadian singers and beaten them all on their own ground. To take the much-discussed Mr. Carman, his stoutest adherents will hardly maintain that his thought is always clear, always tangible. Too often his poetry swims into a mist of words as vague as such of his own "gray winds." No such reproach can ever be brought

In Advanced Years

The strength and pure blood necessary to resist the effects of cold seasons are given by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I have for the last 25 years of my life been complaining of a weakness of the lungs and colds in the head, especially in the winter. Last fall I was again attacked. Reading of Hood's Sarsaparilla I was led to try it. I am now taking the fifth bottle with good results. I can positively say that I have not spent a winter as free from coughs or pains and difficult breathing as I have for the last 25 years as was last winter. I can lie down and sleep all night without any annoyance from cough or pain in the lungs or asthmatic difficulty."

E. M. CHAMBERS, J. P., Cornhill, N. B.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the Only True Blood Purifier

Prominently in the public eye today.

Hood's Pills

are a household necessity. Price 25c. per box.

SUNLIGHT Soap

BAR 6c.

A Household Comfort

For every 12 Sunlight wrappers sent to Lever Bros., Ltd., Toronto, a useful paper-bound book, 100 pages, will be sent Wetton & Mitchell, Halifax, Agents for Nova Scotia and P. E. Island.

MORTGAGE SALE.

To be sold by Public Auction, at the as Courts Building in Charlottetown on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of November, A. D. 1895, at 12 o'clock, noon:- All that tract of land situated on Township number fifty-two, in King's County, P. E. I., bounded as follows:- On the north by the road side of the road leading from Head of Cardigan to Pisiquid, extending thereon or having a front of eleven chains, and extending back north by parallel lines for the distance of one hundred chains, being bounded on the west by land now or formerly in possession of Kenneth Benton and John Scrimgeour, and on the east by land now or formerly in possession of Norman McLean, and containing an area of one hundred and ten acres of land, a little more or less, and is the farm lately in possession of Malcolm McLean.

The above sale is being made under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain indenture of Mortgage of said lands, dated the 16th day of March, A. D. 1889, and made between Frederick W. Craswell, of Head of Cardigan, in King's County, and Margaret E. Craswell, his wife, of the one part, and the undersigned of the other part.

For further particulars apply at the office of A. A. McLean, Solicitor, Charlottetown. Dated at Milton, this 4th October, A. D. 1895.

DAVID C. HOOPER, JAMES M. HOOPER, oct 4-41 a w. (5) Mortgagees.

TO LET.

That large Shop, part of the "London House" Building, lately occupied by J. T. McKenize, Tailor, with good room upstairs for work shop or store room. Apply to

HON. DANIEL DAVIES, L. H. DAVIES, Q. C., Executors Estate late Geo. Davies, Or to F. W. L. Moore, Solicitor, in the Building. oct 11

Painless Dentistry. CRAPAUD.

Dr J. E. McDonald, Dentist, will be in Charlottetown, Friday and Saturday, 15th and 16th inst, where he will demonstrate his new and simple method of Painless Extraction of teeth. No bad after effects follow the use of this method, and the dentist is requested to try it, on judge for himself. Observe the date, Friday and Saturday, October 15th and 16th inst. Crapaud. My P. E. County patients will please note my absence from Summerside on the above dates. J. E. McDONALD, D. D. S. Summerside, Oct 7, 1895.

Dominion Coal Company, Ltd

The undersigned having been appointed sole selling Agents in the Province of Prince Edward Island for the above Company, are now prepared to issue orders for Round, Slack and Run of Mines, and will keep a Stock of each Mine's Coal on hand to supply customers at lowest prices. PEAKE BROS. & CO., Selling Agents. Charlottetown, May 25, 1894-17

FOR SALE.

The House and Land on the corner of Powell and Sidney Streets. For further particulars apply to the owner, MRS. BOWSWELL, Or EUSTACE HAVILAND, ESQ. sept 19-dy

The light of James McIntyre is general, Ontario, poet and undertaker can no longer be hidden under a bush or a cheese box. The course of events is bringing him prominently before the mind of every close student of contemporary literature, and he will no longer down.

Fair Canada is our theme. Land of rich cheese, milk and cream. But besides looking to him for verses that contain more butter fat to the line than the works of any other author, living or dead, the weary Canadian are turning to him for an example of serenity and philosophic calm that is sorely needed at the present time.

Canada has been having a hard time of it with her literary men. They have been squabbling in the papers over their rights and wrongs, and a battle of the barbs is in progress. All of them want to sit above the Artistic and literary world, and sit at the head of the table. Mr. William Wilfred Campbell, like McGregor, claims that the head of the table is where he sits, and the friends of Mr. B. Carman argue that he should have the precedence.

Old friends and new he'll gladly meet On the west side of Thames street, He'll argue the case of the country young, And a good stock of furniture.

Neither floods of water nor words can disturb him. He woad his ox-eyed muse in peace, and with a mind not cumbered with envy, his position is too thoroughly established to be lightly discussed. He is a poet of the people. Notice the modesty of the prologue to his second volume, entitled "The Rise and Progress of the Canadian Cheese Trade." In his epigrams feet firmly planted in the rich alluvial pasture land of central Ontario, thus McIntyre:

It is folly now to aim Or to seek for distant fame, But rest content if we can claim Something of a local name. On the pleasant banks of Thame Because in simple strains we sung The glories of our country young, Of cows, and milk, and cream, and cheese, And of fat steers sent o'er the seas, Of more or less of the same kind, Of hogs and sheep and hens and geese, Themes worthy of our songs and glees.

Worthy indeed, and worthily treated, Which of all the quarrelling Canadian poets could have written this simple lay. Above all, he is the laureate of the day, and his verses are a post par excellence. Whether he chants a Pindaric ode to one Father Lannan,

Who was the first there to squeeze His cows' milk into good cheese, or from the top of his caseous Patmos beholds with prophetic vision a ten-ton cheese to be, cheese is his great argument. But although these great themes is dwelt upon often and stimulates him to some of his loftiest flights, no pent-up cheese factory contracts his power. He is no "sing the glories of an empty day." Enslilage and bears, wild geese and stone stables, tile drains and the Northwest rebellion engage his lyre in turn, while

In Ontario the hen Is worthy of the poet's pen. Naturally his sympathy with the cow is very close and is tenderly expressed in the following lines:

The cow is a kindly creature, Kind and gentle in each feature, About her is a homely charm, And her dog should not alarm, But let all guard her safe from harm The gentle creature on the farm.

Still it is not on account of her estimable personal qualities, but as the fountain head and sine qua non of cheese, that the cow appeals most strongly to the poet's affection. Shake-speare himself had a wider range or a more versatile fancy than the bard of cheese. Now he moves in stately measure along the banks of the Canadian Thames, pausing at St. Catherine's famed for mineral waters.

And for the beauty of her daughters, and now thrills the reader with a tale of adventure, whose opening lines kindle the imagination, and disclose a vista of wonderful possibilities:

I bought of land two miles square, I knew not it contained a bear. In the work of a writer so catholic in taste and so lofty in theme it is not surprising to find a broad and noble tolerance towards his brothers of the poetic choir. McIntyre's generous appreciation of the work of others bespeaks a mind too wise for envy and too great for scorn. With fine emotion he laments in this musical threnody the fate of Shelley:

But I have scarcely time to tell thee Of the strange and gifted Shelley; Kind-hearted man, but ill-fated, So youthful, drowned and cremated. Elsewhere he pays this tribute to Whitman:

Poe erratic who leads the van, Wildly wayward Walt Whitman; He erred grand work in civil war, Where he did dress many a scar, And kindly wet the hot parched mouth Of Northern soldiers wounded South.

It is not much to say that Post McIntyre has fairly met the other Canadian singers and beaten them all on their own ground. To take the much-discussed Mr. Carman, his stoutest adherents will hardly maintain that his thought is always clear, always tangible. Too often his poetry swims into a mist of words as vague as such of his own "gray winds." No such reproach can ever be brought

ODDS AND ENDS.

Property to the value of over $4,500,000 is left in the railway carriages of Great Britain every year.

Kidney Pains. In Jan. 1892 my son was taken with Kidney disease. Though attended by three physicians, and change of climate he grew worse and by '93 had fallen from 195 lbs. to 95 lbs. In 10 days from starting to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills we were able to move him home. In 4 months he gained 50 lbs. and was fully restored to health by the use of this medicine. Jno. S. Hastings, 23 St. Paul St., Montreal.

Every two days of fog in London, it is calculated, costs 25,000 people on beds of sickness and kills 2,500.

This is Concentration. One pill a dose, one box 25 cents. One pill relieves constipation. One box cures an ordinary case. One pill taken weekly neutralizes formation of uric acid in the blood and prevents Bright's Kidney Disease and Diabetes. True only of Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

The British Isles comprise no fewer than 1,600 separate islands and islets, without counting mere jutting rocks or isolated peninsulas.

If you want to know what Miller's Emulsion of Norwegian Cod Liver Oil will do, for a consumptive patient ask one who has tried it. Ask anyone who has used it in lung troubles of any kind. What they say about Miller's Emulsion shall be your recommendation. It is the finest preparation of this kind in the world and is worth its weight in gold to a consumptive sufferer, whom it will raise from a bed of sickness to health and strength of body and mind, giving the new lease of life and buoyancy to the weary.

There are now in England 66,750 publications, 27,254 occasional retailers of spirit, 30,496 retailers of beer and ciders to be counted on the premises, 12,376 holders of off-licenses, and 1,915 occasional license holders.

That Pale Face. For Nervous Prostration and Anemia there is no medicine that will so promptly and infallibly restore vigor and strength as Scott's Emulsion.

The following members of the Imperial Parliament have been raised to the peerage: Sir Algernon Borthwick, proprietor of the London Morning Post; Baron Henry de Worms, formerly Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies; and the Hon. Horace Curzon Plunkett.

Hands and Ankles Raw. For years I have been a great sufferer from itchy skin trouble and salt rheum. My hands and ankles were literally raw. The first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment allayed the burning, itching, and smarting. One box and a half entirely cured me. It is also instant relief for chilblains. Henry A. Parmenter, St. Catharines, Ont.

The death is reported at Clayton, Ont., of Mr. Isaiah Marshall, aged 104 years. He had the use of all his faculties almost to the close of his life.

A Remarkable Cure.-J. W. Jennison, Gifford-Spent between $200 and $300 in consulting doctors; tried Dixon's and all other treatments, but got no relief. One box of Chase's Catarrh Cure did me more good than all other remedies, in 25 cents box at that.

The Sultan has informed President Faure of his intention to contribute 500,000 fr. to the subscription opened for the erection of mosque in Paris.

Orilla's Prominent Furniture Dealer Gives Facts. ORILLA, Feb. 10th, 1894. EMBANSON, BATES & CO. Gentlemen,-About three or four weeks ago I had an attack of Itching Piles. I tried two or three different remedies recommended by druggists as the "best and only cure," etc., but got no relief. About the time I was beginning to despair of finding any relief, with some slight misgivings I bought a box of your Pile Cure, which I am pleased to say gave me almost instant relief and permanent cure. I consider your Dr. Chase's Ointment a God-send. ALF. J. DEAN.

The Dominion Government is being urged to put a tax upon natural gas, which is being piped in large quantities from Canada to cities in the United States.

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS CURE BACK-ACHE. ONE PILL A DOSE 25c A BOX

Sold wholesale and retail by Geo. E. Hughes, Charlottetown.

NOTICE.

LAND SURVEYING, &c.

The subscriber is now prepared to make surveys of Land, run Boundary and Survey Lines, Curved Plans, etc.; also, Mechanical and Architectural Drawings, Plans, Specifications and Estimates. J. P. NICHOLSON, Surveyor, Fernald Street, Charlottetown. sept 19-dy

NOT WHAT WE SAY, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla Does, that tells the story of its merit and success. Remember HOOD'S Cures.

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

White Rose Kerosene. 530 Barrels landing ex schooner Nutwood to-day from New York. oct 7-21

against the subject of this article. Whatever else he may be, he is never obscure. His characteristics of lucid thought and simple, forcible expression, are well shown in these lines on a thousand-pound hog:

Pig had to do some roofing work. To make one thousand pounds of pork: Our stomach it doth not incline To eat a hog seven feet nine. On smaller pig we love to dine, And if we do not enjoy an dinner, For big fat hog we don't repine, Let others eat enormous swine.

Let them, indeed! High praise has been given to the patriotic verse of Prof. Roberts, but when has the so-called Canadian laureate, in any of his bursts of O-momy country poetry, equalled this?

But we sing more glorious theme, It is our verdant pasture land, Where cows produce a flood of cream To make the cheese of our most brand, Young Dominion so gigantic, Thousands of miles from the Atlantic, Till in the West you reach Pacific.

Mr. W. W. Campbell, who started the late poetical unpopularity, has been called "Poet of the Lakes," but here again a single brief quotation from one of McIntyre's lyrics is sufficient to demolish his would-be rival's claim to the title:

Here in great lakes we do take pride, And them with Uncle Sam divide, Other lakes seem inferior, In size to Lake Superior.

Mr. Lampan has been called the didactic poet of Canada, but only by those unacquainted with the protean genius of McIntyre. The seers of Ingersoll has written verses of a most soaring ethical quality, touching with a fearless yet reverent hand the fundamental truths of religion. Whether it be the tenets of the Christian faith, or the inspirations which have found expression in the teachings of Brahma, Buddha, Confucius, Mohammed or the lamented Mme. Blavatsky, has he not laid these basic principles in his terse couplets?

Fifty bushels to the acre Make us grateful to our Maker. Has he not here pointed out the spring from which flow the healing waters? In taking reluctant leave of this great