

THE EXAMINER.

VOL. XXVI.

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, MONDAY, APRIL 19, 1875.

NO. 16.

ALMANAC FOR APRIL, 1875.

MOON'S CHANGES.
New Moon, 6th Day, 2h. 25m., a.m., N. E., below horizon.
First Quarter, 12th Day, 5h. 21m., p.m., North.
Full Moon, 20th Day, 0h. 18m., a.m., South, below horizon.
3rd Quarter, 28th Day, 5h. 3m., p.m., N. W., below horizon.

DAY	WEEK	SUN	MOON	HIGH	DAY'S
		RISE	SETS	WATER	TEMP.
1	Thursday	4 44	25 A	31	7 17	12 29
2	Friday	4 31	24 1 44	8 17	17	42
3	Saturday	4 19	25 3 1	9 4	17	40
4	Sunday	3 38	27 4 21	9 47	17	49
5	Monday	3 27	29 5 43	10 25	17	52
6	Tuesday	3 15	30 7 5	11 3	17	55
7	Wednesday	3 2	32 8 30	11 42	17	59
8	Thursday	3 1	33 10 2 M	13 2	17	2
9	Friday	2 34	34 11 31	0 24	5	5
10	Saturday	2 27	35 M	1 11	8	8
11	Sunday	2 17	37 1 32	2 5	12	12
12	Monday	2 8	38 2 19	3 7	15	15
13	Tuesday	2 2	39 3 21	4 28	17	17
14	Wednesday	2 0	40 3 27	5 53	20	20
15	Thursday	1 51	42 3 51	7 9	24	24
16	Friday	1 43	43 4 12	8 4	27	27
17	Saturday	1 35	45 4 28	8 45	30	30
18	Sunday	1 26	46 4 49	9 25	33	33
19	Monday	1 17	47 5 14	10 14	36	36
20	Tuesday	1 8	48 5 43	11 29	39	39
21	Wednesday	1 0	50 5 28	10 59	42	42
22	Thursday	0 51	51 5 46	11 30	46	46
23	Friday	0 42	52 6 14	1 1	49	49
24	Saturday	0 34	53 6 43	0 40	52	52
25	Sunday	0 25	54 7 1	1 20	55	55
26	Monday	0 16	55 7 39	2 5	58	58
27	Tuesday	0 7	56 8 12	4 2	61	61
28	Wednesday	0 0	57 9 14	4 2	64	64
29	Thursday	5 17	0 11 14	5 19	6	6
30	Friday	4 52	2 A	6 34	14	14

INSURANCE.

MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
ROBERT LONGWORTH, Esq., President.
Hon. JAS. DUNSMAN.
Hon. L. C. OWEN.
Hon. A. A. McDONALD.
Hon. J. C. POPE.
THOMAS HANDELMAN, Esq., Secretary.
GEORGE E. DEAR, Esq., Clerk.
Risks taken daily at their office, corner Great George and Lower Water Streets.

ST. LAWRENCE Marine Insurance Co.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.
Authorized Capital, - - $300,000.
Subscribed Capital, - - 143,950.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS:
ARCHIBALD KENNEDY, President.
JOHN F. ROBERTSON.
ARTHUR LORD.
P. W. HYNDMAN.
RALPH B. PEASE.
THOMAS MORRIS.
GEORGE D. LONGWORTH.
Risks taken daily at their office, Exchange Building.

THE LIVERPOOL & LONDON AND GLOBE INSURANCE COMPANY

FIRE AND LIFE.
Invested Funds, 1st Jan'y, 1874, $21,628,356
Deposited with Receiver General of Canada, 162,800
Other Investments in Dominion of Canada, 307,091
FAIR RATES. -
Prompt & Liberal Settlements.
Insurance against Fire effected upon Private Residences, Household Furniture and Farm Properties, for
One, Three or more years,
At Reduced Rates.
Office—Great George Street, Charlotte town, P. E. I.
R. R. FITZGERALD, Agent
WM. DUNLOP, Special Agent
Ch'town, July 27, 1874.—6m

IMPERIAL Fire Insurance Company OF LONDON.

Subscribed & Invested Capital, £1,965,000 Stg.
The above Offices being of UNDOUBTED STANDING, guarantee perfect security and Prompt Payment of Losses.
DETACHED DWELLINGS insured for One, Two, or Three Years on SPECIALLY ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
FENTON T. NEWBERRY, AGENT.
Jan. 18, 1874. 1y

PHENIX INSURANCE COMPANY, OF BROOKLYN, N. Y.

Cash Assets, - - - $2,015,383.84
The above Offices being of UNDOUBTED STANDING, guarantee perfect security and Prompt Payment of Losses.
DETACHED DWELLINGS insured for One, Two, or Three Years on SPECIALLY ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
FENTON T. NEWBERRY, AGENT.
Jan. 18, 1874. 1y

MEMORIAL & RECORD BOOK

gives you interesting facts relative to the fisheries. How fish are caught, and where they are caught, olden time and modern time fishing. Old Land Sketches, Big Trips, Statistics of the Fisheries, Tales of Narrow Escapes, Fearful Gales, Maritime Poetry, and other matters of interest concerning this important industry. Very handsomely illustrated with original engravings. Price $1.00 in Paper Covers, $1.50 in bound in Cloth. Sent anywhere on receipt of price. Agents wanted, to whom exclusive territory will be given. Liberal commissions. Write for particulars.
PROCTOR BROS., Publishers.
Cape Ann Advertiser Office.
Mar 27 75 Gloucester, Mass.

MAILS

WILL be closed during the winter months, at the Post Office, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, as follows:—
GREAT BRITAIN, via Halifax, at 8 o'clock, p. m., on—Tuesday, 2nd Feb., Thursday, 4th Feb., do 16th do do 18th do do 22nd do do 24th Mar., do 4th Mar., do 16th do do 18th do do 30th do do 1st Apr., do 13th Apr., do 15th do do 27th do do 29th do do
Dominion of Canada, United States of America and Great Britain, via United States, at 8 o'clock, p. m., every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.
Correspondence for the United Kingdom, intended to be forwarded by steamers sailing from Portland every Saturday, must be marked "By Canadian Packet."
Summerside and Georgetown, and offices on these routes, daily, Sunday excepted, at 9 o'clock, p. m.
Western Route, Tignish, Alberton, &c., Wednesday and Saturday, at 9 o'clock, p. m.
Eastern Route, St. Peter's, Souris, &c., Monday and Thursday, at 9 o'clock, p. m.
Southern Route, Belfast, Murray Harbour, &c., Monday and Thursday, at 9 o'clock, p. m.
Bedford Route, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 9 p. m.
Brackley Point Route, Monday and Thursday, at 8 a. m.
Pisiquid, Johnston's River, &c., Friday, at 12.30, p. m.
Correspondence for Newfoundland and West Indies will be forwarded to Halifax by every mail.
Letters to be registered must be posted half an hour previous to the time for closing the mails by which they are to be forwarded.
A. A. McDONALD, Postmaster.
Post Office, Ch'town, Jan. 25, 1875.

POETRY.

LABOR AND REST.

A fisherman sat in his boat on the sea,
And watched the broad sun as it sank on his lee,
He had seen it rise, and he sighed, "Ah me,
Telling, always telling."
He thought of his labor early and late,
Of his earnings small and his sufferings great;
It seemed such a harsh and wearisome fate,
Telling, always telling.
The fishermen's wife in her seaside cot
Sat sewing, in address at thought of her lot;
The day was done, but her work was not;
Telling, always telling.
She thought of her husband toiled on the main
Of her little sons born to feel poverty's pain,
To live but their parents' life over again,
Telling, always telling.
She thought of their dwelling and clothing poor,
Of the grim wolf that scarce could be kept from
The door,
Telling, always telling.
And a tear trickled down, as she murmured o'er,
Telling, always telling.
And she thought as she watched the surf on the shore,
With its restless beat and its ceaseless roar—
That this sea to her life a resemblance bore—
Telling, always telling.
But the sunset glory caught above sea and sky,
And it lifted her thought above sea and sky,
And it seemed to silence her querulous cry,
"Telling, always telling."
For it told of rest when the work is done,
Of ease when the race to the end is run,
Of glorious peace when the light is won—
Telling, no more telling.
And she bowed her knees to her God in prayer
For His help the burden of life to bear
With a patient faith, until called to share
Resting after toiling.

LITERATURE.

THE TRIUMPH OF TRUTH.

CHAPTER V.

From the moment when Ulric left the house of his benefactor, and was settled in that of his employer, he commenced a very different life. The youth could no longer follow his inclination as he did before, but sat at his writing-desk from early morning till late in the evening, calculating accounts of the most complicated kind, or writing letters, or making various entries in great ledgers, or whatever else the course of business brought with it, all required the most diligent attention. At first Ulric found these duties irksome; but in a few weeks his perseverance so far prevailed, that it appeared to him as if he had been for years accustomed to business.
If Ulric had thought or feared that Mr. Schleicher would not treat him well, he would have found himself mistaken. Mr. Schleicher did, indeed, give him more work to do than the other young men in the office; but he never said a harsh word; on the contrary, he testified by friendly expressions on various occasions how much he valued Ulric's zeal and energy. The youth was surprised at this, and many times acknowledged, in his heart, the wrong he had done Mr. Schleicher in having entertained an unfavorable opinion of him.
One day, about four weeks after Ulric had entered into business, Martin came to see him, and to talk to him for a short time.
"When he first entered Ulric's room he looked around with astonishment, for he had not expected they would give his favorite (for such indeed Ulric was) so fine an apartment.
"Very well, indeed! You live very comfortably here, Mr. Ulric! he said, gazing curiously around. "Silk curtains, sofa, carpets, mahogany chairs and tables! Mr. Breitenbach with all his thousands, has nothing so elegant as this. Well, I suppose you are quite content here in the city, and think no more of your old friends."
Ulric shook the hand of the honest old man, and smiling, looked at him full in the face. "You know, Martin," he said, "that all the splendor in the world would not compensate me for my little room at home with the view over the Elbe, and with all the pleasant remembrances that belong to it. And as to forgetting old friends,—You, at least, old Martin, should be the last to suspect me of it. Had not Mr. Breitenbach himself desired that I should only, four times a year, visit him for a couple of days, I should have been with you every evening, in spite of the miles which divide us!"
"Yes, yes, I know it well," answered Martin, and he smiled kindly. "But now, tell me how you like Hamburg?"
"Very well," replied Ulric, cordially.
"Certainly, Martin, we have done Mr. Schleicher justice, when we thought he would behave ill to me. He is always kind and indulgent, and that he gives me so much work only proves he means well by me."
"Humph!" murmured Martin to himself. "It is surprising if I have been so totally mistaken in the man. Certainly, appearances deceive, and perhaps all may be better than we thought. But we shall see. When Mr. Schleicher comes to the house, Mr. Breitenbach's first question is naturally, 'Well, how is my boy Ulric?' And then Mr. Schleicher never ceases praising him, and assures him a thousand times that he has never before had so steady a young man with him. I am now come for the express purpose of hearing from your own lips whether Mr. Schleicher is really as satisfied with you as he professes to be. I see and hear, indeed many things which astonish me! Well, if we have been mistaken in Mr. Schleicher, I shall be doubly rejoiced on your account, and on his own. But, nevertheless, be on your guard, Ulric. I am an old man, and have seen much, and had experience in the world, and I know very well how often the saying, that 'appearances deceive,' hits the right nail on the head. It may be that we have done Mr. Schleicher injustice, or it may also be that he has only put on a hypocritical mask; but keep your eyes open Ulric. This can hurt no one, but it may be useful to yourself. And now let us talk of something else."
Martin said nothing but the truth, when he related the praises which Mr. Schleicher bestowed upon Ulric, whenever he conversed with his fosterfather concerning him.
After these interviews Mr. Breitenbach used to look triumphantly at old Martin, who was always present, as much as to say, "Now, Martin, who is right?"
"You, sir, are right so far," old Martin would observe. "God grant you may continue to be so, and then I shall rejoice from my heart that I was wrong. But let us see the end of it. The evening of every day is not yet come, and appearances deceive. The old man did not give up his distrust any more than he lost sight of his favorite;

FOR SETTLERS OR PARASITES—WHICH?

(From the Ottawa Citizen.)

A strange fatality seems to attend the efforts of the present Government in the North West. Disaster follows disaster and whether this is owing to the fact that action is taken without anyone acquainted with the wants and circumstances of the country being consulted, or that the sole advice of Mr. D. A. Smith—whose every action is inimical to the best interests of the settlers—is relied on, we do not pretend to say definitely; perhaps we may reasonably attribute the present aspect of affairs to both causes. Conspicuous among the failures referred to was the letting the Dawson route contract last year to a firm with no capital, and less suitable experience, at so late an hour that the first arrival of the contractor at Thunder Bay was coincident with the first batch of emigrant passengers.
The full account of the horrors of that route during June and July, when 700 persons were passing over at one time, and not sufficient accommodation existing for 20 persons to a trip, will never be known. It is a fact easily proven, that en route three children died from exposure, and strong men were seen to weep because they could not obtain food for their children. It was estimated by good authority on the spot that $25,000 would not pay the damage to personal effects of emigrants who passed over that route during those two months, damage resulting from the want of tarpaulin covers to protect baggage from rain. The Hudson Bay Company agent at Fort Francis states that he twice saw boat loads of baggage lying uncovered all night in the rain, and another witness saw several trunks opened at Fort Garry, after a tedious waiting for them, when the entire contents were found destroyed by mildew. And yet the contract is again given to the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been heard applying in vain at the agencies in England, Ireland and Canada for such documents, a result to be expected when the same men who probably no better precautions for due fulfillment. The present Administration takes much credit to itself for its emigration policy. Now, what are the facts? The Agricultural Department, which should be under the management of a Minister of modern and progressive ideas, is certainly not so controlled, estimable as may be the private qualities of the gentleman now presiding over it. This may account for the fact that no documents relating to Canada's best field for emigration can be found when required at any of the agencies. Time and again have parties been