THE ENGINEER'S BI-WEEKLY

ENGINEERS DRINK FASTER THAN BIOLOGY STUDENTS OR
NURSES WERE EVERYWHERE

The official event was the first Engineers pub of the year held in October, in the barn. There was a really festive mood and an excellent crowd. The P.E.I. school of Nursing made a good showing - they danced and chugged their way through the night. It was also the scene of the invitational chugging match between Biology and Engineers. Biology put up a good showing but were trounced by us, much to everyone's glee. The EXCELLENT music of the evening was provided by Jim Coady, President of the Anti-Disco Association. Live, but not Sober, entertainment was performed by Steve Richard and Gord McPhee. The lyrics of their song about lust on a farm will not be published due to censor regulations and the embarrassment of a fellow student. The evening could not be complete without initiation of some of the first year girls - although it was not their idea. Everything came to an end at 12.30 to allow people enough time to be able to make it to Differentials in the morning. Many thanks to the Nurses, resident students, Biology students and even Business students, who along with the regulars made the evening a success.

FROM THE PRES.

Well, we've already sent our delegates to the Atlantic Student Engineering Conference. You will be reading a report on it in a future issue and by now, we've probably all heard fantastic tales of the guy's adventures. Moving along, we made a good profit on the pub and there will be another one soon. Show up and help support this one - you are guaranteed to have a good time. Also, engineering jackets are being ordered. Anyone who is interested or wants more information can contact Bryan MacLeod or Harold French. Finally, a big cheer for the Engineering hockey and basketball teams who are making a fine showing this season. C'mon let's see some more fans at the games, we need a cheering section

The story you have been waiting for!!! First floor Duffy vacated the premises. That is, the softball team and Willie Dog packed up and went to Mt. A to play against Andy and the yard-apes. The first game was played at 4:00 Friday afternoon. We won. After the first inning nobody bothered to keep score. However, we were not too tired to disco. No sir - the U.P.E.I. Engineers were in full gear. We even dared to dance (right Gord). Then came Sat. morning (right Harold) and with bleeding eyes and D.T.'s we carefully and slowly ate dinner. Next game, there was no game. Andy's team forfeited. Rather than let a good team stagnate, we played a game among ourselves. For those who missed Sat. night, I will say that you missed a good party. A grateful thankyou is extended to Andy and Hope and the boys (AND GIRL) of Mt. A.

TOKEN ARTSIE JOKE!

Two artsies were out-duck hunting, but despite the abundance of ducks (the season hadn't started) they had caught only one duck after 5 days. The first Artsie asked his partner, "Do you think we're doing something wrong?", to which his friend replied, "You know, maybe we're not throwing the dog high enough."
