

Local and Other Items.

FRESH HERRING.—Fresh fish sold at ten cents per dozen in the market to-day.

Slow.—The City Surveyor is very slow about nailing down the planks in the sidewalk. What's the matter?

BACK AGAIN.—The fish carts are back again at their old stand on Market Square. What's the matter with the new fish market on Queen's Wharf?

GREATLY ADMIRER.—Mr. Benj. Heartz's splendid young Percheron stallion, John C., was shown on Market square to-day and greatly admired.

FOR WEST BAY.—The schooner Sea Breeze has cleared for West Bay, C. B., carrying a general cargo of oats, potatoes and pressed hay, shipped by C. H. Schurman.

TROTTING.—The managers of the Moncton Driving Park intend having several races in the park on Queen's birthday. Among them will be a free-for-all running race and a three-minute race.

THE TANNER ACT.—Mrs. Weider is the name of a patient in the Lancaster Co., Pa., Hospital, who has not tasted food for forty-six days. She is rational on all subjects but insists upon living on air and water.

KERMIS.—The ladies of St. Peter's Church will hold a Kermis on board the steamer Southport on the 14th June next. St. Peter's Boys' Band will be in attendance, and there will be refreshments and other attractions.

BREACH OF FISHERY LAWS.—The sale of the seines and boats of the American schooners Argonaut and Colonel French takes place at Souris next Wednesday. We understand that the condemned property is almost new and as it will be sold at Sheriff's sale bargains may be expected.

FAST DRIVING.—Complaints are frequently made about the speeding of horses on our streets, and we think it is time the practice were stopped. The authorities some time ago made an example of one or two offenders, but further action appears to be necessary. Let it be taken at once.

SMALLPOX.—A Hawkesbury, C. B., despatch of the 7th says: The schooner William Matheson, of Provincetown, came in last night, with a man on board sick, supposed to be smallpox. The Board of Health built a suitable place for him in an isolated spot and landed him, and provided a nurse to attend him.

SCOTT ACT.—The Gleaser makes the statement that the anti-Scott Act party will make another attempt to repeal the Act in Fredericton this year, the three years expiring next fall. One Scott Act case at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon. It was adjourned till Monday.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Mr. E. Kinsman has opened up shop in the premises lately occupied by Wm. Dodd, Esq., on Queen Street, where he is prepared to attend to all orders in his line of business. Having secured the services of Mr. R. Bearisto, he is also prepared to conduct auction sales, etc. He solicits a share of patronage. See his advertisement elsewhere.

INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.—A wedding was to have taken place on High Street, Moncton, on Tuesday night, between a maiden of fifty-five and a youth of sixty-five. The bridal party had assembled and the bride made her appearance, but the groom did not show up and the wedding was indefinitely postponed. The cause of the expected groom's strange conduct is not known.

A FEMALE MISER.—Mrs. Bridget Murphy, a widow, died in Halifax the other day in a state of extreme misery and degradation. The only furniture of the room which she occupied consisted of one old bed and two chairs. She had actually been in receipt of charity from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Just before her death she called a relative to her bedside, and disclosed the fact that she had $2000 in the savings bank.

STEAMERS MOVEMENTS.—The Princess of Wales left for Pictou this morning and will return this evening.

The St. Lawrence left Summerside for Point du Chene at an early hour this morning and will return this evening.

The M. A. Starr arrived from Halifax last evening and sails on return this evening.

The Carroll is now loading and sails for Boston about daylight to-morrow morning.

PERSONAL.—Hon. John Lafargy and daughter (Mrs. Geo. McSweeney) arrived from Moncton via Princess of Wales last evening and left for Summerside this morning.

Premier Fielding, of Nova Scotia, is in Ottawa on business with the government.

Lord Stanley, of Preston, has been gazetted Governor-General of Canada.

Hon. W. W. Sullivan arrived home from Ottawa last evening.

Hon. D. Laird returned from Ottawa last evening.

DEATH OF A PRIEST.—A telegram received yesterday by his Lordship Bishop McIntyre, from the Magdalen Islands, brings the sad news of the death of Father Hieronim, parish priest of St. Francis Xavier at Bassin. Father Hieronim was about twenty-seven years of age. He made his classical studies at St. Ann's College, P. Q., and afterwards entered the Grand Seminary, Quebec, where he completed his theological studies in 1885. He was ordained priest by Bishop McIntyre on the 31st May of the same year, in St. Magdalen's Church, House Harbor, and was immediately appointed to the parish of St. Francis Xavier. During his short charge of this parish he endeared himself to his people by his zeal in promoting their welfare, both spiritual and temporal. By his death the Bishop has lost a faithful priest and the people a good and zealous pastor.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—The Sussex correspondent of the St. John Telegraph says: "A curious case of the disappearance of a horse occurred here on Saturday morning last. Mr. Rankine, who represents the Messrs. Brayley, had purchased a very valuable horse in Montreal, which arrived here by the early freight train on Saturday morning about 3 o'clock. The horse was taken from the train by Conductor Campbell and his brakemen who had charge of the train, and tied in a shed in the freight house for a few moments while the night operator in charge was sent across the street to the Depot House to awaken Mr. Rankine. On the return of the night operator to the shed, which was in about ten minutes, the horse had mysteriously disappeared and has not since been found, nor can any trace of the animal be learned, although the roads leading in every direction for twenty miles have been searched."

[The Mr. Rankine above referred to is well known throughout the Island.]

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

NEWS FROM TORONTO.

Immigrants—Coolly Received.

TORONTO, May 10.

A mass meeting of bricklayers and stone masons was held last evening to protest against the importing of immigrants by the master builders. Four hundred immigrants have just been landed by the railway companies, and these have mostly been assisted and come through advertisements in British papers. All the laboring bodies are up in arms against the new comers.

The result of examinations in the Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons has been made known. Out of 175 who went for the final, only 105 passed; of 220 for the primary, only 130 passed. In the final are seven ladies; in the primary, six. Governor-General and Lady Lansdowne held a reception at Government House between 4 and 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when fully six hundred called to bid them farewell.

Last night Governor Campbell entertained a large company at dinner to meet their Excellencies who left to-day. C. Delia and Frank Parma quarrelled over a woman in a "dive" to-night, the former stabbing the latter in the abdomen with a butcher knife, inflicting a fatal wound. Delia escaped.

Ottawa News.

OTTAWA, May 10.

This being Ascension Day, Parliament did not sit. It will sit on Saturday, however, and every day of next week. The Toronto Empire intimates that in filling the vacancy in the Supreme Court Bench caused by the death of Judge Henry, the Government will select the best man available, irrespective of which part of the Dominion he may be found in. The idea that the new appointment must necessarily be made from Nova Scotia is erroneous. Robert Evans, a local man, was nominated to-day by the Liberal Conservatives in Cardwell.

The Emperor Better.

LONDON, May 10.

The Lancet says the Emperor of Germany is slowly gaining strength. The recent sudden increased flow of pus was not accompanied by fever and the discharge of pus is now decreasing.

BERLIN, May 10.

The Emperor passed a satisfactory night and is in good spirits. He ate his meals with appetite, and from 1 a. m. till 3.30 this evening remained in his study reclining on a sofa.

Troubled Ireland.

DUBLIN, May 10.

Exciting struggles occurred at Carmack, near Thurles, to-day, between a strong force of emergency policemen and tenants whom they sought to evict. The police used a battering ram. They met with strong resistance, the tenants throwing boiling water at them and assaulting them with sticks. Some intended evictions were effected, and others, it is believed, will be abandoned.

Censured.

HALIFAX, May 10.

The coroner's investigation into the cause of electric patrolman Crocker's death ended to-night with a censure upon the Chandler Electric Company, in not taking proper precaution to prevent accidents, after the death of Patrolman Webber, which occurred only 48 hours previous to Crocker's death, on the same post.

Chinese Immigration.

LONDON, May 10.

The Government of New Zealand has proclaimed all Chinese ports infected—to stop the entrance into the colony of Chinese immigrants. The Government of South Australia has proposed that an intercolonial conference be held for the purpose of arranging for united measures to exclude immigrants from China.

Furious Storm—Fish Plentiful.

HALIFAX, May 10.

A furious South-West storm raged at Canso yesterday, badly damaging the fishing fleet in that port.

All arrivals from the banks report fish plenty. Fifty sail of the fleet have gone to Marble Mountain to obtain bait.

Poured Out.

HALIFAX, May 10.

The Inspector of Licenses caused quite a flood in the drains near his office to-day. All the liquor that had been seized for six months was poured out. Champagne, whiskey, beer and brandy flowed down in mixed confusion.

Quebec News.

QUEBEC, May 10.

Charles Workman, a post office clerk, arrested a few days ago for robbing money letters, was sentenced to-day to five years in the penitentiary.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, May 11—10 a. m.

Moderate winds; partly cloudy, with a few local showers.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.—Drinking warm blood as a cure for consumption is largely practised in the greater cities of Europe and the practice is coming into use in Montreal. Mr. Rayard, Manager of the Eastern Abattoirs, says that twice a week ten ladies, belonging to some of the most aristocratic families in that city file into the abattoirs with silver goblets and drink the hot blood of young bullocks. The effect upon the patients, notwithstanding the conflicting opinions of the medical profession, is said to be startling. It is said that one lady, the daughter of an ex-clipper of the Recorder's Court, who was given up as a consumptive by her medical attendant last summer, is now strong again.

DIED.

Suddenly, at Upton Road, Lot 41, King's County, Catherine Stewart, wife of Charles Stewart, and mother of Mr. N. A. Stewart, of this city, aged 80 years.

At Albany, on the 24th April, Hattie Stewart McKay, aged three years.

At Marshfield, on the 30th April, Minnie, aged 18 months, daughter of Archibald and Susan Murray.

At her son's residence, on the New Glasgow Road, on the 1st inst., Janet, widow of the late Angus McRae, in the 97th year of her age. She emigrated to this Island with her husband in 1831, from Apple Cross, Resshire, Scotland, and was much and deservedly respected by all who knew her. The deceased was mother of Capt. Duncan McKay, of Ch'town.

At Murray Harbor North, April 30th, Mary, beloved wife of Fred J. Hoyt, after a protracted illness, aged 33 years. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn their irreparable loss.

At Belfast, on the 8th inst., Margaret, beloved wife of Capt. John McLeod, in the 69th year of her age, daughter of John Nicholson, (Stenshol) Orwell Cove. She leaves a husband, five brothers and four sisters, beside a large number of relatives and friends to mourn, but not without the hope of a glorious reunion in that land where sorrow and death are unheard of. This is the first break by death in that family. Three sisters and four brothers saw the coffin closed after the service by James Nicholson, M. L. C. Slowly and sadly the funeral procession of neighbors and friends proceeded to St. John's Church, of which she had been a member for many years, the tolling of the bell giving an air of sadness to the whole scene. We laid to rest till the resurrection morn, under the safe-keeping of Him "Whose eye goeth to and fro over all the earth," all that was mortal of her that loved and was beloved by us. Here she sleeps beside her father and mother, and as the shades of evening softly fall, and as the angels seemed to whisper, "Peace, be still," we said: "Sister, farewell."

(Patriot and Island Guardian please copy.)

At Souris West, April 4th, Johnnie, dearly beloved son of Capt. T. and Anastasia McCarthy, aged 12 years. R. I. P.

Angels called thee, darling, Called thee to their sunny home, And we know that thou art longing, For the dear ones here to come. Oh, we long to hear the singing, Of that bright immortal throng, Hear the glad harps gladly ringing, In that happy land of song.

Angels called thee, darling, Called thee in thy early bloom; Now thy form is lying in the cold and silent tomb. Small white hands are gently folded, Quiet now thy busy feet; Brightest eyes are closed forever, Gone the smiles that were so sweet.

Angels called thee From all care and pain, away To the realms of bliss eternal, To that land of purest day. And we miss thee, oh, so sadly, Since we took the farewell kiss, But we'll meet thee Johnnie, darling, In the land of perfect bliss.
