Mr. Urquhart at once informed Mr. McKenzie, who was in his dwelling house near by at the time, and the fire was extinguished as quickly as possible. [SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

New Customs Regulations.

LOCKPORT, N. S., June 24. The recent order of the Dominion Government to Canadian customs officials at Windsor, Ont., to make a record of all Americans residing at Detroit or visiting, who daily cross the line to engage in work in Canada, has led to a counter move by Collector Cutler at Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge. This morning as Canadian laborers, numbering about 200, who are engaged upon this side, reached our frontier they were surprised to find at the end of the suspension bridge, deputies stationed, who demanded their names, age, residence, occupation and where and by whom they were employed. During the day notices were served upon the employers of these foreigners that if they should continue to employ such foreign labor after July 1st, the United States district attorney should be recommended to proceed against them according to law.

A Season of Opera.

THE manager of the Templeton Opera Company being desirous of presenting to the citizens of Charlottetown an unusually strong attraction during Jubilee week, engaged some of the best artists in the world of comic opera. The result is, an organization complete in every particular. The company boasts of two prima donnas—Miss Lula Stevens and Miss Hattie Starr. Both ladies are clever actresses, with sweet voices which show correct cultivation. Besides being splendid singers, they possess the very necessary attribute to successful comic opera prima donna, viz: ability to act. The leading female roles of latter day operas call for good acting as well as first-class singing. In having two such ladies, the Templeton Company is fortunate. Miss Augusta Roche, the contralto of the company, is a lady who stands in the very front rank of musical artistes. She created the role of Lady Jane in Patience in America and was complimented by Sir Arthur Sullivan on her successful rendition of that well-known character. In such roles Miss Roche is unsurpassed by any singer on the American stage. The leading tenor is George F. Traverter, an Englishman who has earned an enviable reputation in the United States. His voice is sweet and pure and he speedily becomes a favorite with his audiences. Alf C. Whelan is a singing comedian of rare abilities. He has played Ko-Ko in "The Mikado" throughout the States, and has won no end of compliments. Mr. Harris, the original Mikado in America, needs little introduction. His success in the role of the Japanese ruler was complete. The flattering press notices he received are an assurance of his ability. D. A. Flint possesses a deep bass voice, which is heard to excellent advantage in such roles as Dick Deadeye. He is, beside, a thorough actor. Richard Burton is another clever singer, who has been winning high praise from eminent critics. The chorus, a very necessary adjunct, to a first-class opera company, is large in numbers and strong in voices. It is well drilled, and renders the ensemble music of the various operas with a dash and go that is thoroughly enjoyable. An orchestra accompanies the organization, which is not usual with opera companies coming down this way. The repertoire of the Templeton Opera Company comprises "Pinafore," "The Mikado," "Olivette," "Girofle-Girofla," and "The Mascotte." The music-loving community may confidently look forward to a musical treat on Monday night next, when the organization appears here for the first time. The National Anthem will be sung by the company at the end of each performance.

Miss McGarry's Second Entertainment.

THE audience at Miss McGarry's second Entertainment was much larger than that at the first, and the appreciation evinced was even more marked. It is not too much to say that the entertainment was satisfactory in every respect. The selections were very good, and Miss McGarry's reading was as nearly faultless as possible. Miss McGarry is undoubtedly the best reader who has appeared in Charlottetown. Mrs. Lear's songs were capital, and repeatedly encored.

THE PEOPLE SAY

—That the marines and sailors of the warship Canada should be invited to participate in the military proceedings on jubilee day.

—That most of us have not forgotten the rare treat received at their hands some years ago.

—That there is a great demand for the jubilee souvenir.

—That our jubilee celebration should be advertised in some of the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick papers.

—That the next blaze will probably be a large one.

—That Jennie McGarry is the best elocutionist who ever visited this province; and that she is a credit to Canada.
