

Unequal Marriages.

The genius of Milton never found a sweeter theme than the ideal marriage of our first parent in Eden, yet he who wrote so beautifully of the married state was himself the victim of an unhappy marriage. Indeed, men of genius have, perhaps, been more unfortunate in this respect than ordinary mortals, because living on a higher plane of thought, it was more difficult for them to find a helpmate equal to themselves. The same is true, although not to the same extent, of women of genius who have married men inferior to themselves in mind, because a woman's nature has not only more endurance but more adaptability in it than a man's. The man soon grows impatient of the conversation of a frivolous wife, especially if she disturbs his mental occupations, but the woman often feels a pleasure in the homage of a commonplace husband, if he be an honest and considerate fellow, and with her more than with man, "pity is akin to love." Hence it is that there are probably more clever and highly-gifted women who throw themselves away, as the phrase is, upon a good-natured simpleton, than of talented men who fall in love with women who are not in intellectual sympathy with them.

The world "marries and is given in marriage," and the wedding-bells ring on from age to age unceasingly, and yet how few who witness the life contract of brides and bridegrooms stop to consider the tremendous importance of so brief a ceremony. Upon the mental, moral, and physical qualities of the man and of the woman may depend the actions and results of a succession of him or her in generations yet to come. The ungodly will descend from sire to son, and the sensitiveness or acquisitiveness, uncontrolled by other qualities, in the father or the mother, may make the thief, the liar, or the miser, who, a few decades hence, will be the black sheep of the family fold. An ungovernable temper married to an ungovernable temper may beget the murderer whom society is forced to hang for its own protection, but who may be as irresponsible before the tribunal of Supreme Justice as the lunatic is now held to be before our earthly courts. It has been said, coarsely perhaps, in the ears of modern refinement but with perfect truth, that while we take every precaution to insure high qualities in the higher types of dogs and horses, we seem to think it a matter of no consequence to insure a noble nature to our own offspring.—Brooklyn Magazine

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health, but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up, disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, indigestion, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cts. Try it.

Undoubtedly one of the proudest men in Berlin is the Emperor's doctor, who received 150,000 marks on the Emperor's eightieth birthday, and now, rumor says, has received 300,000 marks on the Emperor's spouse, because the physician thinks the Kaiser may live to be one hundred. One wonders what he will then get.

If you have a cough, resulting from a sudden cold, procure Adamson's Botanic Balsam, take one-half to one teaspoonful three times a day, and your cough will cease. Trial bottles 10 cents.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN

On the Loss of Manhood.

A LECTURE on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhea, induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M.D.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without disastrous surgical operations, by which the system is ruined, and the patient left a mere shadow of his former self. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
