Chalk as a Coal Saver.
To make half a ton of coal go as 15 hundredweight place a quantity of chalk in the grates. Once heated this is practically inexhaustible from combustion and gives out great heat. Place the chalk at the back of each of your fires in nearly equal proportions with the coal. Full satisfaction will be felt both as to the cheerfulness and as to the warmth of the fire, and the saving throughout the winter will be at the rate of 25 per cent.—Exchange.

Dr Chase Cures Catarrh after Operations Fair.

Toronto, March 16th, 1897
My boy, aged 14, has been a sufferer from Catarrh, and lately we submitted him to an operation in the general hospital. Since then we have resorted to Dr Chase's Catarrh Cure, and one box of this medicine has made a prompt and complete cure.

An African Mother-in-law.

A native has been committed to the high court for trial for mutilating his mother-in-law by cutting off her ear. The native averred that his mother-in-law had attempted to entice her daughter away from him, her lawful husband, to some other native, and he took the extreme measure of cutting off her ear as a gentle hint to mind her own business.—Gwelo Times.

Not Wanted.
"I have here," he began, "a little poem, the child of"—
"Sorry," interrupted the editor, "but I couldn't think of taking a child away from its parent."—Harlem Life.

Gooseberries on Trees.
Travelers in Burma see many strange things, and perhaps one of the strangest is the way in which some kinds of fruit grow.

For instance, gooseberries that at home grow on small bushes in this part of the world grow on trees over 25 feet high. They are not a soft, pulpy fruit, but are as hard as marbles.

The real Burman grapes also grow on high trees and not on vines. They hang from the branches and trunk of the tree in clusters on a long stalk and are covered with a thick outer skin, which cannot be eaten.

The cachou, or monkey nut, is also peculiar and consists of a large, juicy fruit of soft pulp, with its nut or kernel attached to the outside of the fruit at the end farthest from the stalk from which it hangs.—London Standard.

A Logical Conclusion.
In a recent Walla Walla divorce suit, in which the defendant failed to appear, the referee made the following report:

"The plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for him, therefore he did not appear."—Walla Walla Statesman.

BETTER than cure is prevention. By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla you may keep well, with pure blood, strong nerves and a good APPETITE.

It is easy to love your neighbor as yourself,
When your neighbor is a pretty girl,
And it is just as easy to have good music
When your piano is a "Bell"

The above may not be very good poetry,
But it is a fact, all the same.
