

The Daily Examiner

OCTOBER 27, 1885.

The Northern Light.

We have no authority for saying so, but we believe it is the intention of the Government to have the Northern Light run between Georgetown and Pictou at the first of the coming season...

The Shooting of Young Fitzpatrick

THE boys, Beales and Smith, have fortunately escaped the agony of a protracted investigation into the terrible charge preferred against them; and they and their friends may well rejoice.

Blake in the Blues.

THE early retirement of Mr. Blake from the leadership of his party is being freely discussed. For some time back it has been an open secret that Mr. Blake is to be chafing under a leadership that brings him a great deal of hard work...

A great many of the old-time Grits never took kindly to Mr. Blake. They believed in Mr. McKenzie. It is little odds, however, who holds the Grit helm.

The New York World gives considerable space, including several illustrations, to a description of the wonderful ship railway across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec proposed by the celebrated engineer, James B. Eads.

engineering genius. Mr. Eads has demonstrated, through the success of his St. Louis bridge and the Mississippi jetties, that he has the grasp of a De Lesseps and the science of a Roebling.

The Gospel Army.

At the close of the public meeting last night a business meeting was convened for the purpose of organizing the Army on a permanent footing. Capt. Collins occupied the chair, and Mr. G. W. Ritchie acted as Secretary.

It is designed by the Army to enlist the co-operation of all Christians, for special efforts to bring souls to Christ, and, as far as possible, not conflict with the established regular public church services.

The general affairs of the Army are to be controlled by a Council—designated a Council of War—consisting of Officers of Headquarters, Captain, Lieutenant, Cadets, and one delegate from each station.

The headquarters are to be located in Charlottetown.

The expenses of the Army are to be met by voluntary contributions of the public.

The chief officers—who will compose the Executive—will consist of a General, Majors, Captains of Divisions, Secretary, and Treasurer.

The General to be appointed by the Council of War; other officers to be appointed by the General.

The following clause contains the doctrinal laws of the Army:— All members of the Army must believe that there is but one living and true God, infinite in power, everlasting, and maker and preserver of all things.

And also in the unity of the God-head, Father, Son and Holy Ghost. That He was the all-wise and all-wise, and that His blood is efficacious to cleanse from all sin.

That the Holy Bible is the inspired word of God, and was given by direct inspiration of God to the holy Patriarchs, Apostles and Evangelists of old, and that it contains all teachings necessary for a present and full salvation from sin, in the resurrection of the dead and life everlasting.

That there is a place of everlasting punishment called hell, prepared for the devil and his angels and all those who transgress the laws of God, and refuse to obey the teachings of God's Holy Word.

That God gives a reward to those who serve Him, and that there is an abode, everlasting and eternal, called heaven, prepared by Him as a dwelling place for those who have been redeemed by the blood of Jesus and have remained faithful soldiers to the end.

After the appointment of a committee to procure a permanent headquarters for the Army, the meeting adjourned for one week.

Geo. W. Ritchie, Sec'y for Meeting.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c. I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America and sent self-addressed envelope to Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, New York.

The Fitzpatrick Murder.

Evidence of Mr. and Mrs. Enman.

Description of the Alleged Murderer.

ROBINSON, the alleged murderer of the boy Fitzpatrick, is still at large. The police, up to the present, have obtained no trace of his whereabouts, and it is believed he has left the Island.

DAVID ENMAN (sworn) examined by Attorney-General.—Was in town yesterday week with my husband, and stayed at Robertson's. We had a cup of tea there.

My wife saw him; I didn't. I saw no carriage ahead, but there was a cart. Could see it ahead of us as we were going along the road, and we were gradually creeping up to it.

The horse in the cart was then walking. After the shot was fired the horse ran towards the house. He cried and roared as he ran along the side of the road towards us.

GRAND

Colonial Exhibition in London, Eng., 1886.

REFERRING to the above, it has been decided to forward specimens of Fruit in glass jars, preserved by a solution of salicylic acid; vegetables, such as Potatoes, Turnips, Cabbage, Mangolds, &c., will be placed in kegs or half-barrels, preserved in the same way.

Farmers who have extra good specimens of vegetables, are requested to forward samples of the various kinds (three or four will be sufficient) to my Station Master on the Railway, or direct to either of the Agents. Care should be taken to prevent injury to products from bruising.

Found a Manufacturer Overloaded!

Bought Part of His Stock at a Sacrifice.

Prices are Still Tumbling and Purchasers will Reap the Benefit Thereof!

REID BROS. have purchased a large Invoice of Fine Saxony All-wool Tweeds from a Manufacturer's Agent, whose name we are not permitted to mention, at a great sacrifice to the mills, and we intend giving our patrons the advantage of this purchase.

Experience has taught us that many persons have been driven away in disgust from houses who are continually advertising goods at extraordinary prices, which they are unable to produce when called for, and to meet this difficulty we ask intending purchasers to call and examine our stock and we are confident that one inspection will satisfy the most skeptical that we never advertise a humbug.

50 Men's Suits, heavy black worsted goods, winter weights, only $6.50 a suit, $12.00 do do Scotch Tweeds, fine quality, $9.00 worth $12.00.
