The Bye-Elections.

HAVING sown to the wind, the Liberal party is now reaping the whirlwind. Mercierism and Unrestricted Reciprocity leading on to Annexation have been planted and carefully tended and watered by the Leader of the Opposition, Sir Richard Cartwright, and their following in and out of Parliament. But these plants are detested by the mass of the people. The record of the bye-elections previous to to-day is as follows :

WON BY LIB-CONS.	WON BY GRITS.
North Lanark	Richelieu
Glengarry	Lincoln
Richmond, N. S.,	Queen's, N. S.,
Victoria, N. S.,
Kingston
Halton
Cumberland
Laval
Soulanges
Lennox
Prince Edward

In addition to their losses in the constituencies, the Grits have also lost, in the court, the seat for Queen's County, New Brunswick. Mr. King, Grit, was returned as elected by a majority of 29, but Mr. Baird protested the election and claimed the seat, which has been awarded him, on appeal, by the Supreme Court of the Province.

The Osborne Case.

THE case of Mrs. Osborne is a curious one. She moved in the best society in England, and is married to a captain in the British army. Before her marriage she was accused of having stolen valuable jewels from a Mrs. Hargreaves. She denied the charge; Captain Osborne believed her; and married her. The accusation having been repeated, the husband took an action for defamation of character. During the progress of the trial, her counsel discovered that she was guilty and threw up the case. She was, of course, disgraced; and left the country. Overwhelmed with shame and mortification, Captain Osborne resigned his position in the army; but his resignation was not accepted. Then he insisted that his wife should return to England and give herself up to the authorities. But when a few days ago, she appeared for examination, there was no one to prosecute. She was released from custody; then re-arrested on a charge of perjury; and now she again awaits trial. The case has awakened world-wide interest. Every one sympathises with Captain Osborne; and it seems probable that the sympathy for the husband will, eventuate in her escape from the punishment due to her crimes. There are several points in the case which are curiously illustrative of the moral strength and weakness of English people.

Literary Notes.

Apropos of the eighty-third birthday of President Lincoln, Harper's Weekly for Feb. 13th will contain a superbly illustrated article by Charles Carleton Coffin on the "Ancestry and Early Years of Abraham Lincoln." The illustrations, which are numerous, include views of the localities made famous as the scenes of Lincoln's childhood and youth as they now appear, and the portrait is from the first ever taken of the President. Of this picture Mr. Coffin says: "It was taken in 1857 in Chicago. Lincoln was visiting his neice, Mrs. Harriet Chapman, in Charleston. "'Uncle Abe,' she said, "I want your picture.'

"'Hattie, I have never had it taken, but I am going to Chicago in a few days, and will sit for you,' he replied.

"A few days later the picture was received by Mrs. Chapman. I obtained this copy in Charleston, Illinois, October, 1890, and received the above information from Mr. W. G. Chapman."

Harper's Weekly for February 13th will contain a remarkably interesting article on "Our Indian Contingent," detailing some of the results which have followed the enlistment of Indians in the United States army. Several characteristic illustrations by Frederic Remington will accompany the article.

The publishers of the Century Magazine have issued a pamphlet entitled "Cheap Money," containing the articles on Cheap Money Experiments which have been appearing in "Topics of the Time" of the Century during the past year or more. Single copies cost 10 cents each, postpaid. The pamphlet will be supplied in packages, by the hundred, at 5 cents each, for distribution.

The Mistake With Chili.

(From Harper's Weekly.)

If our government had amicably accepted the situation, had recalled Mr. Egan, and replaced him under the new Chilian government by an American Minister of high character carrying the cordial welcome of the great republic to its smaller sister, the Chilian feeling would have been friendly instead of hostile, and the lamentable event which has brought us to the verge of war would have been avoided. Had our disposition been really friendly, had there been no politics in the business, nothing but a determination of honorable peace, Chili would not have been forced into the dilemma in which she was unfortunately placed, and we should have been spared this absurd result of our proposed Pan-American millenium of last year.

Now that la grippe is ravaging the country, it behooves us to keep in a condition to defy it, and for this purpose there is nothing better than Everybody's Pills. 25 cents invested in this popular family medicine now may save that many dollars later.

FOR lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Price 25 cents.—Reddin Bros. novldwly

The Military Social.

THE social in McLeod's Hall last evening under the auspices of No. 3 Company, 82nd Battalion, was a very pleasant affair. There was a good attendance. The hall was appropriately decorated with bunting. Captain Stewart presided. The following programme was carried out in an excellent manner :

Selection—82nd Batt. Band.
Vocal Solo—James R. Davison.
Reading—E Peake.
Violin Solo—James Hyndman.
Quartette—Messrs. Peake, Bayfield, Hyndman and McLean.
Address—Col. Irving.
Vocal Solo—John Lewis.
Recitation—Capt. S F. Hodgson.
Vocal Solo—J. Davison.
Recitation—C. B. Warren.
Selection—82nd Batt. Band.

After this programme was concluded the cakes and baskets were "auctioned off," very good prices being obtained. T. A. McLean, Esq., and Sergt.-Major Allen acted as auctioneer's. Then came coffee and cake and social converse, and the time passed quickly and very pleasantly.

The evenings entertainment was brought to a close by an address by Sergt.-Major Allen, and the National Anthem by the Band and audience.

Wedding Bells.

St. John's Episcopal Church at Crapaud was crowded last evening to witness the marriage of Mr. Bertram Haslam, son of the late William Haslam, Esq., of Springfield, to Miss Ada Smith, eldest daughter of Isaac Smith, Esq., of Crapaud. The Rev. A. W Daniel performed the ceremony. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's father, where about forty couples sat down to supper. After a pleasant evening was passed the bridal party left for Springfield amidst showers of rice and good wishes. The presents were numerous and costly.

Supreme Court.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 11.

McLeod vs. Cowan. Action against a returning officer. Argument in this case was concluded this forenoon.

Jas. D. Taylor and another vs. Wm. E Dawson and others. Action of illegal trespass. Argument on rule nisi for new trial is being heard this afternoon.

Personal

James E. Macdonald, M. P. P., Cardigan, was registered at the Hotel Davies yesterday

Mr. J. Heber Haslam, of the C. P. R., was among the passengers in the Stanley yesterday. He was at the Hotel Davies last evening.

Thomas A. McLean, Esq., of the firm of McKinnon & McLean, returned yesterday from his business trip to Nova Scotia.

The family of Herr Kuentzel, a victim of the Viru massacre, recently received an anonymous gift of 100,000 marks. It now transpires that Emperor William was the donor.

We are pleased to learn that the Rev. J. A. Gordon has declined to accept the call lately extended to him to take control of the Baptist Foreign Mission work and will still labor among us.

Messrs Frank Beer, of Beer Bros., and James Paton, of James Paton & Co., left last evening, via Georgetown, on a business trip to the Old Country. Mr. Sterns, of Perkins & Sterns, left the previous day. All three crossed in the Stanley to Pictou to-day.

The Daily Telegram, of Vancouver, B. C., reports :

A. H. MacNeill, LL. B., barrister-at-law, of Prince Edward Island, passed a highly creditable examination before Justice Walkem at New Westminster yesterday, and he will now be entitled to practice in the supreme court of British Columbia.

We congratulate Mr. McNeill upon the success which has attended his first step towards fame and fortune in the far West.

Mr B D. Higgs, of the Guardian, left last evening on a holiday trip to the United States and the Northwest. In Mr. Higgs's absence the Guardian will be edited by Mr. W. D. Taunton, lately on the staff of the Montreal Herald, and a former resident of Charlottetown. Mr. Taunton is expected here this evening

Rev. Jas. Carruthers, of St. James' Church, Charlottetown, was registered at the Queen Hotel, Halifax, on Monday. Speaking of the visit, the Herald says : Mr. Carruthers is to give the students of Pine Hill the benefit of valuable lectures during his stay, and the young men at the school of the prophets, if they heed his instruction, will have great cause to congratulate themselves that he came to them.

Capt. Alexander McLeod, the father of J. O. McLeod, Homer Street, is in the city on a visit to his son. Capt. McLeod has till lately been connected with Her Majesty's surveying steamer Gulnare. This is his third visit to the coast and he expects to be here a month or two, looking after his investments.—Vancouver, B. C., World.

Bismarck, says Edmund Yates in the New York Tribune, has just received a valuable present from the German Colony in Burmah. It consists of a centrepiece of sold silver two feet long and three feet high. The pedestal is entirely covered with beautiful worked figures, and at each corner are artistically wrought dragons, each of which carries a high ivory tusk, which is hollowed out and decorated with Burmese carving. This gift, which is pronounced by experts to be the most perfect masterpiece of Burmese art industry which ever reached Europe, has taken eighteen months to complete.

Both the Emperor and Empress of Austria were too ill, says Edmund Yates in the New York Tribune, to go to the funeral of the Empress's mother, who died last week at the age of eighty-six, having survived her husband nearly four years. The Empress is now in Istria, and her medical attendants are very anxious as to the possible effects of her mother's death on her mind and health. The Princess Louise Wilhelmina was a woman of strong character and great energy. She inherited none of the peculiarities of the Bavarian royal family, and always exercised a salutary influence on her daughter, whose eccentricities she often checked at the opportune moment. She spent nearly her whole life in Munich, where she was born, during all the troubles occasioned by the invasions of Napoleon I.

AS A RESTORER of the system after the weakening effects of la grippe, Campbell's Elixir of Life seems to be all that could be desired. It is pleasant to take, and has been used by the foremost physicians of Montreal, with most gratifying results. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by A. S. Johnson.

Hockey News.

Reporter : Hello! old man ; what's the matter? You look kind of used up.

Down Easter : Well, I do feel a little sore this morning. We had a full practice for our big hockey match last night, and for over two hours we played for all we were worth ; but the westerns were too much for us, making 4 goals to our 1. However, we only played 8 men to their 10, and will give a good account of ourselves next Wednesday night.

Reporter : Do the boys play as good a game as they did last year ?

Down Easter : Oh yes ! I think much better. They have better staying powers. To tell you the truth, the gymnasium training we had last summer is beginning to show good results.

Reporter : You say that you will play a match game on Wednesday night. Will the play be as interesting as the big match of last season ?

Down Easter : Yes, the game will be interesting, amusing, and very hardly contested. You would be surprised at the rivalry between the Easts and Wests. Both sides are going to win ; but you know the sun rises on us eastern boys first. Good morning ; be sure and tell all your readers to reserve next Wednesday night for us.

Horrible Chinese Crimes.

THE REBELS WHO TORTURED PRISONERS CAUGHT AND BEHEADED BY HUNDREDS.

News has been received from Shanghai of a terrible atrocity committed by Chinese rebels on the border of Manchuria and of equally terrible punishment inflicted by government troops upon the captured rebels. These rebels were led by several Buddhist priests, and they were especially savage against native Christians.

At one place they burned sixty children and butchered nine Chinese nuns. At another they cremated sixty men whom they imprisoned in a barn. Their expeditions were solely for plunder. Viceroy Li sent a large army against them and their strength was broken. Hundreds of prisoners were taken.

The punishment meted out to the rebels by their conquerors fitted their crimes. Men were beheaded by hundreds, and entire trunks of trees were utilized as blocks along which prisoners were ranged in lines and their executioners simply mowed off their heads when the signal was given.

They were not even tied and the headless trunks fell against the block or tumbled backward or to one side when the fatal sword severed the neck. The heads were hung in long rows on poles as a warning to others, and in a short time intense cold froze the bodies stiff, but not before camp followers and ghouls had stripped them of every atom of clothing.

One of the most notorious of the priestly marauders was Han Chang Chung, who was for many years enshrined in a Mongolian temple as the living Buddha. He had at one time 3000 followers.

The most horrible atrocities were perpetrated by these desperadoes. Eye witnesses state that almost the entire population of villages was cruelly maltreated and murdered.

A case in point is the occurrence at a village called Kutulan, in the Jehol prefecture, Manchuria. A band of 500 marauders swooped down upon this place in the dead of night, and finally carried away with them all the women. Before going they put sixty men in a large barn, securely fastened all places of egress and set fire to the place.

At Talijow, which has been Christian for two centuries, they massacred nine Chinese sisters, nuns, and burned the orphanage, which contained sixty little inmates. The piercing of the bodies of captives with bayonets were among the atrocities practiced by the rebels. One band is said to have been led by a huge amazon, who rode astride her horse like a man.

News Notes.

School lands sold at Brandon a few days ago nettled a little over $8 an acre.

The Danube has overflowed its banks in the Pesth district, causing serious floods.

The reports from Rome that the Italian Government contemplates the immediate re-establishment of full diplomatic relations with the United States are discredited in Washington.

The Canadian failures reported by Dun & Russell for the last seven days are forty-six, and for the corresponding week last year forty-five.

The President of the United States has issued his proclamation promulgating the reciprocity treaty with the British West India Colonies, Trinidad, Windward and Leeward Islands, etc.

A special meeting of the shareholders of the Chignecto marine railway will be held in London Feb. 20th, for the purpose of devising means to secure the completion of the work.

A new star has appeared in the firmament. About two degrees south of the medium bright star "Chi-Auriga" it may be seen with a good opera glass. It is of the fifth magnitude. It is wrapped in a whirlwind of flames, due either to an explosion or to a collision with some giant orb.

MAKES FLESH AND BLOOD.—When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is sinking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat in fact, Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life," and has saved and cured thousands. In big bottles 50c. and $1 at Charlottetown drug stores.

SOME tobaccos spurt up in the pipe while smoking, with little crackling explosions. This is caused by the addition of foreign matter to assist the combustion. When the purity of the tobacco is not tampered with and it has been properly taken care of, this combustible foreign matter is wholly unnecessary. For in that case it burns at a lower temperature than almost anything else. Nothing of this kind is seen in smoking the "Myrtle Navy." It burns with steady combustion throughout.

A Psalm of Labor.

Teach me, my God and King,
In all things Thee to see,
And what I do in anything
To do it as for Thee.

All many of Thee partake ;
Nothing can be so mean
Which with this tincture, "For thy sake,"
Will not grow bright and clean.

A servant with this clause
Makes drudgery divine ;
Who sweeps a room as for thy laws
Makes that and the action fine.

This is the famous stone
That turneth all to gold,
For that which God doth touch and own
Cannot for less be told.

The Good-Bye.

A wife with shining eyes of brown—
Love-lit and burning clear,
Leaned forth with softly whispered words,
"Good-bye, I love you, dear !"

And through the press of gloomy streets,
'Midst business—hard'ning, drear,
The sweet voice followed him from home;
"Good-bye, I love you, dear !"

When heart and head waged bitter war
O'er cunning's crafty leer,
There came between the treach'rous thoughts
"Good bye, I love you, dear !"

There's mighty power in little words—
Sweet words of faith and cheer;
'Tis oftentimes a heart's one strength—
"Good-bye, I love you dear !"

GEO. CARTER & CO.,

Seedsmen, Charlottetown.

SEASON 1892.

WE are now busy preparing for our THIRTEENTH Season in the Seed business.

Making a specialty of Seeds, and confining our attention to the Province of P. E. Island, we offer to Farmers and Gardeners only such Seeds as are suited to our soil and climate.

Our large trade with all parts of the Island, supplying the largest Farmers and Market Gardeners, has given us an intimate knowledge of the best varieties ; while, of equal importance, we have the knowlenge of the countries which best produce these varieties and the growers who may be depended upon to produce them in greatest perfection.

We have a Complete System of Testing Seeds.

Everyone interested will do well to watch this space from week to week, as we have some things to say that all should know.

Our Seed Catalogue for 1892 will be ready about 1st March. Send name and address and we will mail a copy free of charge.

No need of sending money away to foreign firms. We can supply Seeds EQUALLY GOOD, much better adapted to our climate, fully as low or lower in price, and without any risk of delay or loss. Address :
