POLICY OF THE MINISTRY.

"We have in this country at the present moment NO IDEA of having a system of Free Trade."—Hon. A. McKenzie at Toronto.
"The policy of the Government is determined opposition to the Opposition."—Premier's Speech at the Drill Shed.
In other words, the policy of the Government is to slander their opponents and do nothing for the good of the country.

THE OPPOSITION PLATFORM.

A RE-ADJUSTMENT OF THE TARIFF.
To make the duties fall more equitably.
To make it the interest of the United States to accord Reciprocity.
To revive the languishing West India Trade.
To remove the present barriers to the development of our Agricultural, Mining and other Natural resources; and generally
To encourage Home Industries with Home Markets for Home Produce.
To promote our Fishing interests and protect the rights of our Fishermen.
ECONOMY IN DEPARTMENTAL ADMINISTRA-TION.
A REPRESENTATIVE OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND IN THE CABINET.

THE PLANK ON WHICH SIR JOHN MCDONALD STANDS.

"NEITHER AT LONDON OR ELSEWHERE HAVE I GONE BEYOND MY MOTION IN PARLI-AMENT, AND HAVE NEVER PROPOSED AN INCREASE, BUT ONLY A RE-ADJUSTMENT OF TARIFF."
"JOHN A. McDONALD."

"We can well understand that we may raise the duty on woollen, cotton and other goods, but lower the duty on articles of general consumption which we cannot produce, and the volume of taxation may be LESS IN FACT, although it may be raised, at any given time, higher than it was before.
If a man were obliged to pay a cent more for his cotton, and had a cent taken off his tea, it would be found, by calculation, that he was a gainer by the operation."—Sir John in Parliament.

MR. TILLEY'S PLANK.

MR. TILLEY then took up the public expenditure, showing that an average expenditure of $22,500,000 was all that was necessary, and the expenditure ought to have been kept within that, instead of an average, as it has been, of $24,000,000.
The policy of the Opposition was NOT IN-CREASED TAXATION, as it had been stated by their opponents, but a readjustment of the tariff and REDUCED EXPENDI-TURES. These were the planks in their platform, together with encouragement to our manufacturing industries; ship's materials, raw materials, machinery not made in the country, free; 15 PER CENT. on non-enumerated articles; and an increase of the tariff on such articles as we can produce in the country, giving employment to our people and a HOME MARKET FOR OUR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCE.

DR. TUPPER'S PLANK.

"I TRUST I have satisfied the House that IT IS NOT a question of high or low taxation, any further than this, that, inasmuch as we governed the country with a small taxation, and inasmuch as we are prepared to govern the country again without those extravagant expenditures made by the present Government since they have been entrusted with power, all we ask is, NOT THAT THE TAXATION OF THE PEOPLE SHALL BE INCREASED, because we do not require so much money as the hon. gentlemen opposite, as we have shown by our economy in the past, and which we are prepared to practice in the future, but that the money shall be levied in such a way as to FURNISH EMPLOYMENT FOR THE PEOPLE AND PROVIDE THE MEANS OF PAYING THE TAXATION THAT IS LEVIED UPON THEM."

THE WONDERFUL STORY

OF HOW THEY SAVED THE COUNTRY AND MADE IT PROSPEROUS.

The story of the wonderful services rendered to Canada by the Reform Party cannot be too frequently told. True, the Toronto Globe has often told it and the entire body of Grit newspaperdom has made Canadians tolerably familiar with it. Vile Opposition sheets may pool-pool the wonderful narrative, but still the story will be ever new, ever fresh, ever worthy of being re-told by the journalist and laid to heart by the people. It is a story full of suggestion and significance and the like of which may never be told of another country or any other Party. It represents the Grit Chieftains in the character of angelic beings, desirous only of doing good to Canada. It pours them as guardian angels bent on protecting, defending and building up this great and glorious country which, without their friendly assistance, might have gone down into perdition. The Premier angel is seen in the character of the loveliest of the lovely—his smile the sweetest, his tone the blandest, his manner the most cultivated, his words the purest and most considerate, his thoughts lofty, commanding, angelic in all respects. Some who entered into the kingdom with him have fallen; others have retired; but their remains the chivalric chancery lawyer who is noted for leading a forlorn hope; who never strikes an opponent when he is down; who scorned to do anything for a friend seeking a harbor improvement contract, etc. And there also remain to help the country with their counsel and their talents; the Copper Pyrites speculator; the Minister who recently moved like the very spirit of goodness and gentleness among the electors of Jacques Cartier; the Minister who loves Dorchester Corner better than the plush and glory of Ottawa; the Minister who isn't a member of his own firm; the Minister who understands negotiating loans in London; and the rest of the angelic host, including R.
W. Scott and Hon. Tom Coffin, Pelletier the Forsaken and the Philosophic Free Trade Mills,—all beings of the highest order, all superior to anything to be found outside of their own circle, all fitted to mould public opinion, propound public policies and guide the destinies of nations.
With such giants to care for four millions of people it necessarily follows that there are peace, happiness and prosperity among the millions. Some scandalous Opposition sheets, inspired by the Devil, have seen fit to charge against the Immaculate ones sundry evil deeds, but the story of the wonderful performances of the Reform Party is a different story from this. Here we learn that there have been no Copper Pyrites operations of a questionable character; no speculations in the food and lodging of the Insane of Beauport; no jobbery in building lots at Lachine by the present head of the Department of Justice; no fortunes made in Kaminitiquia town lots at the public expense; no Fort Francis Locks misappropriations; no Georgian Bay Railway mis-expenditures; no blunders in connexion with Rail and Telegraph on the Pacific Route; no unfortunate Steel Rails Purchase; no brother-in-law's firm, no gouging in the freightage, no Norris transaction jobs; no Post Office Printing and Speakership Scandal; no favoritism to Ministerial firms; no Goderich Harbor losses to the country; no Inter-Colonial Railway extravagances and incapacity! According to this wonderful story nothing has been wrong; there is nothing wrong now; nor is it at all probable there will ever be anything wrong, as long as the present rulers hold the reins of authority. Not only has everything been done properly by the angelic beings whom Fate has placed over us, but the results of their beneficent rule are to be seen on every hand. Behold the taxation of the County reduced to nothing! Behold the ordinary Expenditures almost wiped out! Look at the Public Debt reduced to a span as it were! See for yourselves how the number of public offices and salaries has been cut down! See superannuations abolished! See the Departmental expenses absolutely eliminated from the public accounts! Admire the happy knack which the Customs Department has of furthering the interests of Importers! See how delightfully the Weights and Measures regulations work!
Just consider for one moment how zealously, persistently and successfully our rulers have fostered and promoted the Commerce of the Country—how they have protected Manufactures—how all the industries of the people have revived under their patriotic care! Just reflect upon the hum of industry which is to be heard everywhere throughout the land! See the merchants, how they jostle each other in the marts all over taxed with the accumulations of business which they are not able to overtake! See how every warehouse is filled with customers, and every shop urges its clerks to the utmost to fill the rush of orders coming in!
How busy all our factories are, and how filled with workmen and workwomen are all our work-shops! What a flow of money there is into our banks! How cheerfully and readily the rate-payer liquidates his tax bill in these days! How promptly the small purchasers settle up their monthly and quarterly accounts! What happy faces men, women and children all wear, and what solid prosperity we are all enjoying!
Can any one doubt that Canada is the happiest and most prosperous country on the earth? And is there a being so hardened, so depraved, as to deny that we owe this boundless prosperity and happiness to the angelic creatures who guide our destinies at Ottawa! Heaven forefend that any one should withhold from the Immaculate Reform Party any portion of credit to which they are justly entitled, and it is certainly greatly to their credit that (according to this wonderful story) they have placed Canadians on the very pinnacle of the Temple of Prosperity. Of them it may be said, as has been said of the designer of Westminster Abbey: "Would you see his monument, look around you." Our merchants growing rapidly rich; our artisans rolling in extravagant prosperity; our ships freighted with the treasures of the country; our great rivers, lakes and oceans teeming with an enormous commerce,— these witness to the fact that we have a great country ruled by great statesmen; that "Reform" and Prosperity are synonymous terms; and that Canada owes the "Reform" Party more than it will ever be able to repay! In fact, it owes to it nearly everything that is to be seen in trade and commerce,—all our present happiness. For these sentiments Grit journals and orators are mainly responsible; and who shall question the truth of a statement proceeding from such sources? Verily, Canada owes "Reform" a great deal; nevertheless, the reckoning day is at hand.

Ye "Great Economists"!

FROM the 1st November, 1873, to the 1st November, 1878,—five years,—Mr. Mc-Kenzie and his colleagues will have drawn as follows:—

One Premier, at $8,000	$ 8,000
Twelve Ministers, at $7,000	84,000
Thirteen Ministers, at $1,000	13,000
Per annum	$105,000
For five years	$525,000

In other words, the men who even in prosperity promised to cut down Cabinet salaries, have drawn, in times of stern and wide-felt adversity, $120,000 more in five years than their extravagant predecessors drew in five years and a half! Is this the kind of Reform the electors ought to vote for on the 19th September!—Toronto Mail.

The United States at Paris.

THE LONDON "TIMES" ON AMERICA'S IN-VENTIVE GENIUS.
The Times prints two columns of description of the mechanical display of the United States at the Paris Exhibition. In an editorial article commenting thereon, the Times says:—"The pre-eminence of the mechanical genius of the citizens of the United States may be admitted, and as illustrated not for the first time in the exhibition at Paris." The Times, without pretending to exhaust the whole secret of the phenomenon of inventive genius across the Atlantic, finds reasons, therefore, in the greater efficiency of labor there and the increased cost and difficulty in hiring it.
The conditions of the union, as economic society, drive its inhabitants towards invention, and there, as elsewhere, necessity may be said to be the mother of it.

The Williams' Lecture Bureau, of Boston, has received the following letter from Rev. C. H. Spurgeon, of London:—

"LONDON, Aug. 7, 1878.
"DEAR SIR,—I am very sorry that you should put yourself to so much trouble about me, for I have never had the slightest idea of visiting America. If ever I should do so, I could not preach or lecture for money. Excellent as your services doubtless are to those who need them, they could not possibly be needed by me.
I should regard it as an utter prostitution of any gifts I possess if I were, as a servant of God, to use them to make money for myself in the way in which lecturers very properly do. YOURS very truly,
"C. H. SPURGEON."

A ST. LAWRENCE MONSTER.—A Gananoque correspondent of the Globe says: "Mr.
Chas. Lechay, of this place (an oarsman), had a most desperate encounter with a maskinonge on Monday, on the river opposite here, and a little below Granite Island. When Mr. Lechay gaffed the monster, he made straight at him, breaking his leg and frightfully lacerating his arm, and his clothes were literally torn off him; and had it not been for the timely assistance of Mr. Frank Lolond (another oarsman) the fish would have killed him. The monster now lies on the dock, packed in ice by Johnson & McFarland of this place, and goes to New York by this morning's boat.
He measures 11 feet 8 inches, and weighs 589 lbs.

THE Ottawa Citizen publishes the names of the Intercolonial Railway officials, with their salaries, in 1874 and 1876. The salaries in 1874 were $40,023; in 1876, $100,- 162, showing an increase of nearly $60,000 under Reform economy. Hurrah for Reform economy!

SOME ferocious characters must live in St. John and vicinity. The Freeman says that a Portland man named John Drummond assaulted his wife on Wednesday afternoon, throwing her down and attempting to tear out her windpipe with his teeth.

Her Majesty's gift of $10,000 sterling, for the erection of Kent Gate at Quebec, in memory of her father the Duke of Kent, has been received by the Governor General,
