THE FOLLOWING LETTER PROVES THE WONDERFUL MEDICINAL POWERS OF THE GREAT GERMAN-AMERICAN REMEDY. THE NAME OF REV. H. MILLS (THAN WHOM THERE IS NO BETTER KNOWN MAN IN THE MINISTRY) IS WELL KNOWN IN THOUSANDS OF HOUSEHOLDS IN THE PINE TREE STATE.

GENTS:—I am now 57 years old, and for over 10 years I have been afflicted with weak Kidneys so badly at times that I could not rest nights. I could get no position that would be comfortable my back was so lame.
My Liver also became affected, causing me to become very Bilious. I had a Dull Headache continually accompanied by a sluggish tired feeling.
My Appetite was very poor, and I would have a deathly faintness at pit of stomach.
For the last two years I have been greatly troubled with Severe Palpitation of the Heart after preaching and in long protracted meetings it would become very serious.
I have used the two Course of SKODA'S DISCOVERY and LITTLE TABLETS you kindly sent me, and through the blessing of God, I am PERFECTLY CURED—have not felt better for 20 years. Fraternally yours,
REV. H. MILLS.

Gladstone's - Chances Better.

Blake's Chances at Longford.

The Detectives were Deceived--12 Committed Suicide.

[SPECIAL TO THE GUARDIAN.]

LONDON, July 7.—The Liberals made a net gain of seven seats yesterday. The News says the cheering progress made yesterday strengthens the influence in favor of the return of Gladstone by an adequate if not substantial majority.

The Liberals lost one seat in New Castle-on-Tyne owing to the labor vote, Craige, colleague of John Morley, being defeated.

The Liberals hope to capture seats in Camberwell and the Lower Hamlets, but their chances in the English counties are remote.

BLAKE'S PART IN THE CAMPAIGN.

TORONTO, July 6.—The World publishes the following cablegram from its special commissioner accompanying Hon. Mr. Blake :—

"DUBLIN, July 5.—Blake arrived here to-day, and has been very busy getting posted as to the situation of affairs. The day set for polling in South Longford is July 13th, and in North Longford, Tim Healy's constituency, on the 15th. It is not quite clear yet whether Blake will encounter any opposition. You can have no conception of the antipathy between Parnellites and anti-Parnellites, and Blake may be made the victim of their animosity. There is some talk here of him being opposed by a Parnellite. However this may be, it has already been arranged that Blake will make a rapid tour through several doubtful constituencies and speak for home rule without any reference to individuals, whether Parnellite or anti-Parnellite. It is deemed best to keep him apart from the differences that divide the Irish factions. So far Blake has received a warm welcome from both sides, and I therefore place no credit in report of opposition from the Parnellites in South Longford. Blake is full of fight and is ready for the fray."

The Pennsylvania Fight.

HOMESTEAD, July 7.—Matters are quiet about here to-day. Pinkerton agents returned by train—being unmolested by the crowd, as it was learned the men were deceived in coming here. One man says he simply answered an advertisement for watchman and when on the barge was told he must defend himself. A dozen detectives, he says, committed suicide rather than bear arms against the strikers. It is understood sixteen persons were killed and sixty-four wounded. Sec'y Lovejoy of the Steel-works, says they will do nothing more and expect the sheriff to restore their property to them.

A morning despatch yesterday said:—Unsuccessful attempts were made to burn the barges by pouring oil on the water and setting fire to it. Dynamite bombs were thrown against the boats.

About dusk the officers of the amalgamated association prevailed upon the strikers to allow the detectives to surrender. At 5 the detectives hoisted the white flag. The strikers guaranteed safe conduct to detectives provided they left their arms and ammunition behind and agreed to leave the place under guard. The detectives accepted the terms. On the boats were found 7 dead detectives and 20 or 30 wounded, some fatally. As the prisoners were being conducted through the streets, the infuriated strikers beat them with clubs, and knocked down and trampled upon many. In this way several of the detectives were fatally injured. The captured detectives were finally lodged in the opera house where they will be kept all night. The strikers looted the barges and then set fire to them.

Maritime Provinces Y. M. C. A.

The international committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of New York City, will be represented at the coming convention of the Y. M. C A's of the maritime provinces, in Yarmouth, August 4th and 7th, by S. A. Taggart, one of its secretaries, and for many years state secretary of Pennsylvania; also, probably by Russell Sturgis of Boston, member of the Massachusetts state committee. R. M. Armstrong, state secretary of Massachusetts, has signified his intention of attending if possible.

Recovering the Bodies.

YARMOUTH, July 6.—The body of Capt. Hughes' wife has been picked up off Ganet Rock and brought to Yarmouth, where it will be buried tomorrow. A wound on the head indicates that the unfortunate lady was struck and killed when the life boat was upset in launching it among the floating deals. The bodies of James Dalrymple, second mate, Charles Lebar, cook, Frank Lindon, seaman, and of another apprentice lad, have also been recovered. These with the remains of apprentices Arthur Troop and J. E. Ferguson, found on Monday, and buried at Chebogue, make seven bodies so far recovered of the fifteen who lost their lives.

The Death of Captain Stairs.

The following is taken from the London Morning Post of June 21:

ZANZIBAR, June 20.—The Katanga expedition, which was commanded by the late Captain Stairs, has arrived here. Since the deaths of Captain Stairs and Captain Bodson, the sole survivors of the party which left England on May 12 last year, are the Marquis de Beauchamp and Dr. Joseph A. Moleney, the medical officer of the expedition. As soon as arrangements can be made the Marquis de Beauchamp and Dr. Moloney will leave for home via Brussels.

Annexation in Ontario.

TORONTO, July 5—As a result of the meeting of what is called the provisional committee of unionists of the Ontario political Unionists, T. M. White, late editor of the Windsor Review, has been appointed permanent secretary of the young organization. White will at once remove to Toronto and open up an office to be used as the headquarters for the annexation movement.

Reports from various points in Ontario show that the recent rains have injured the crops considerably, especially the fall wheat, and that unless fine weather prevails henceforth no crops will exceed the average and some will fall below.

Hon. John Robson's Funeral.

LONDON, July 6—The body of John Robson, late premier of British Columbia, left London today. The Queen sent a wreath to be placed on the Coffin. The remains will leave Liverpool tomorrow for Quebec, accompanied by Mrs. Robson, widow of the deceased premier. The funeral service, conducted at St. Margaret's Church yesterday, by Archdeacon Farrar, is regarded as another sign of Britain's concern in the joys and sorrows of her colonies, as St. Margaret's is the parish church of the house of commons.

Premier Robson's death was hastened by an injury he sustained on June 20. The little finger of his right hand was crushed by the door of a hansom cab. The injury was so severe that it was necessary to amputate the finger. Blood poisoning set in and he suffered greatly.

THE SYNOD.

Consolidation of the Church of England in B. N. A.

Rev. Canon Partridge introduced the scheme for the consolidation of the Church of England in British North America formulated at a meeting of delegates from the various dioceses held in the city of Winnipeg on the 15th and 16th of August, 1890. The canon dilated on the scheme and lucidly presented it in its most pleasing aspect. In moving its adoption he expressed an earnest hope that the synod would not reject what he believed would prove beneficial to the whole church.

Rev. F. H. Almon said the scheme involved the retention of provincial synods, diocesan synods and only adds another ruling power to religious administration. Is it desirous to have three distinct bodies in the church? It would be difficult to confine them to work in their own spheres as it would be next to impossible to bound their provinces. The travelling expenses, already heavy, of delegates would be largely increased which should be borne in mind by every member of the synod before giving his assent to this proposed consolidation. He advocated unity but not federation which had increased expense, increased confusion, and ritualistic departure for its concomitants.

Rev. Mr. Ancient agreed with the last speaker in general.

He considered it was time that some step such as adopted at the Winnipeg conference should be taken in the way of consolidating the church in Canada, or he feared disintegation to a greater or lesser extent would overtake it. As to what his friend Mr. Almon had said about diversity in prayer, that was just what he himself wished to avoid and which he believed would be avoided by the consummation of the proposed unification.

Bishop Courtney said it would
of having a general synod in a country like Canada. The expense would be tremendous, which is obviated by the retention of the provincial synods. The general synod he opposed not only on the ground of attendant expense, but also that even were such a union effected it would be of such unwieldly proportions as to seriously interfere with its own usefulness. He would at this stage not say anything about the details of the plan contained in the report of the conference of August, 1890.

The synod decided in favor of retaining the provincial synods to act subordinately to a general body, the formation of which it endorsed.

Were Not Eaten by Bears.

The startling story of the probability of a woman and child having been devoured by bears near Bristol, Carleton county, was recently telegraphed far and near. She left home Monday, June 13th. Mr. Jones supposed she had gone to her father's, some five or six miles distant. Their only child, a boy a year and a half old, was also gone. As Mrs. Jones did not return search was made for her Tuesday; she was not at her father's. Some of her clothes and also child's clothes were found on a by-road between Gordonsville and Lansdowne. Last Wednesday it was heard from persons in Grafton that a woman and child passed through there on Tuesday, June 14th, and they thought they were then with Allan Bull's family. Mr. Jones proceeded to Mr. Bull's and there found the woman and child. She left home on account of domestic unpleasantness and does not seem disposed to return.

The Culinary Art in Schools.

At the Episcopal Synod Archdeacon Jones in speaking of the girls school said it was beautiful to see with what delight the girls studied and it was wonderful how such a school as Edgehill had been established.

Rev. Mr. Simpson didn't think such importance should be accorded the culinary art in church schools.

Mr. Cundall disagreed with the rev. gentleman. He believed that the domestic economy in its many branches was a very important part of any girl's education, and was sorry it was not taught more frequently.

Rev. F. H. Almon said cooking was the best part of every true woman's education, and he would be sorry to have its instruction discontinued.
