

Former Native Passes In N.Y.

William Billy Kenny, 75, who fought under the name of Wild Bill, died May 31 in New York City. Born in St. Theresa's in 1891, Mr. Kenny was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny.

Mr. Kenny was widely known in boxing circles in the United States and lived most of his life in New York. He moved from the Island when 20 years of age and settled in New York.

Mr. Kenny contended for the light-heavyweight crown on various occasions in New York, Boston and Australia. He fought "Battling" Levinsky and Jack Dempsey among other notable boxers.

Unmarried, Mr. Kenny is survived by brothers Roy and Gerald, both of New York. Four sisters predeceased him.

Art Exhibition Opens At Centre

The Canadian Group of Painters' exhibition of eighty-one works has opened at Confederation Centre Art Gallery and will remain in the Prince Edward Island capital until June 26.

The exhibition encompasses a wide variety of styles and some of the newest techniques used in Canadian art.

Most eye-catching works in the collection are undoubtedly Tom Hodgson's tongue-in-cheek "Darling Like My New Dress", Iain Baxter's "Ocean Waves", a sheet of plastic implanted with pockets of turquoise water, and Tom LaPierre's surrealist satire "The Dog Funeral".

Others vary in style from Arthur Lismer's "Leaning Pine", Group of Seven, to "Blue Echo", a large oil painting by Brian Fisher.

Included in the exhibition is a grey and white design painted by Roloff Beny, whose exhibition of photographs, "The World of Roloff Beny" opens later this summer as part of the Centre's Summer Festival.

The exhibition came to Charlottetown from the Art Gallery in Hamilton, Ontario, through the co-operation of the National Gallery of Canada.

Island Native Passes Away

Relatives in Belle River have received word of the death in Edmonton, Alberta, of Mary A. Stewart, formerly of this province.

Born in Belle River Miss Stewart, the daughter of Donald and Christy Martin Stewart, had made her home in Edmonton for many years. She is survived by one brother, Alex, also in Edmonton, and several nieces and nephews. Sisters Jessie (Vancouver), Sarah, (Edmonton) and brothers Allan (Belle River) and Daniel (Edmonton) predeceased her.

Over the years Miss Stewart made many trips to her native province — the last one being in 1957. Burial took place in Edmonton.

Island Delegates Attend Meeting

The national meeting of the Canadian Federation of Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federations was held recently in the Lady Dunn Residence of the University of New Brunswick, Fredericton. Representatives of the P.E.I. Federation of Home and School Associations included Mrs. Stewart MacDonnell, President, Charlottetown; J.R. Ferguson, National representative, Montague; Mrs. Peter Gleeson, Treasurer, Charlottetown; and the past president M. F. Hagan, who was elected Eastern vice president of the National Federation at this meeting.

Discussion during the five-day meeting ranged over a wide variety of topics, from audio visual education to a federal office of education; with particular interest centered on the three-centennial projects launched last year when the National meeting was held in Vancouver, B.C. On Monday evening a panel discussion was held in which the centennial projects "Children's Reading", "Tillicum" (Indian affairs) and Inter-Nation Letter Links" were discussed. Taking part were A.J. Sands, national president; John Ricketts, publicity director and V.C. Madder. Of special interest was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. William Sawkobi of the near-by Maliseet Indian Reservation. They stressed that they wanted for their children what all parents want: the opportunity for a good education with something to look forward to at the end of it.
