Gallant-Bradley Wedding

St. Dunstan's Basilica was the scene of a very beautiful wedding on Wednesday morning, September 26th, when Mary Estella Bradley of Kelly's Cross and Charlottetown became the bride of Andrew Gallant of Charlottetown.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Kenneth MacMillan, P.P. of Kelly's Cross, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother Peter, wore a floor-length dress of white tulle with hoop skirt and three-quarter length veil with halo of tulle illusion, caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her only attendant was her sister Rita, who wore a dress of floor-length peach satin with three-quarter length veil and carried a mixed bouquet of gladioli.

The groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. Art LeClair, while the ushers were Mr. Austin Bradley, a brother of the bride, and the groom's brother Frank. Mrs. Joseph Dougan capably presided at the organ with Mr. Frank J. Flood rendering several beautiful hymns in his usual good form. About thirty-five invited guests were present in the church as well as many other friends and acquaintances of the bride and groom.

Upon leaving the church the happy couple and their invited guests drove to the beautiful Keppoch Beach Hotel where a bounteous repast awaited them. The bridal table looked beautiful with a large three-tier wedding cake baked by Mrs. O'Holloran, a friend of the bride, occupying a prominent place in the center.

After all had done justice to the tasty and substantial dinner, Mr. F. Pius Smith, a cousin of the bride took over as toastmaster. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Fr. MacMillan and responded to by the groom. A number of the other guests also made some very complimentary remarks and all wished the newlyweds all of the best for many years to come.

An enjoyable dance was then engaged in until about 4:30 in the afternoon, the music being furnished by Messrs. Connie Doiron, Leo and Frank Gallant, with Mr. F. J. Flood at the piano.

That same evening the happy couple was entertained at a giant reception at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Gilbert Gallant of Hope River. Upwards of one hundred guests were present and after a delicious supper the festivities were carried on until the wee small hours of the morning.

The next day the bridal couple set out on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. The bride's going-away costume was a navy blue gabardine suit with matching accessories. She wore a beautiful necklace with earrings to match; this was a gift of the groom, who also gave the bridesmaid a lovely rhinestone necklace and to his best man a Ronsou lighter.

Before her marriage, the bride was the guest of honour at a shower given by her girl friends at the home of her brother Mr. Thomas Bradley of Maple Street, at which she was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts. Among these was a beautiful tri-light floor lamp, the gift of the hotel staff at Keppoch where the bride was a former valued employee.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallant will reside in Charlottetown where the groom is a talented interior and exterior decorator. They will reside at 52 Spring Park Road. All join in wishing them many years of happiness.

Hansen-Campbell Wedding

A very pretty autumn wedding took place at the North Congregational Church, Cambridge, Mass., on September 2nd at three-thirty in the afternoon, when Miss Ellen Louise Campbell of 16 Forest St., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Irlstown, P.E.I., became the bride of Robert Walter Hansen, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hansen, Somerville, Mass.

The Rev. Roland Preston Rice, T.H.D., officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her cousin, Mr. Frank Hazelwood, by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown was of white faille with sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, fitted bodice and a full train. She wore a jeweled headpiece with finger-ring veil, and carried a cascade of white gladioli.

Miss Olivia Torney, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of aqua faille with bustle back and net panel, and she carried a cascade of yellow gladioli.

Miss Gail Hazelwood, cousin of the bride was junior bridesmaid, wearing yellow faille, also fashioned with bustle back and net panel. Her bouquet was of yellow and mauve 'mums, and both bridesmaids wore 'mums in their hair and mitts matching their gowns.

Mr. Raymond Powell, friend of the groom was best man. The ushers were Ewen Davison, John Perdakis, Walter Nomeyke and Gerald Smith.

A reception for one hundred guests was held in the church vestry. The beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake was cut in traditional manner by the bride and groom.

The bride's mother chose grey with black accessories for her daughter's wedding, and wore an orchid corsage, while the groom's mother wore a purple dress with matching hat and black accessories, and a corsage of gardenias.

Immediately following the reception, the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to the White Mountains, New Hampshire and Canada, the bride travelling in a grey novelty checked suit with navy accessories.

They will reside at 32 Dartmouth Street, Somerville, Mass.

The bride is a graduate of Union Commercial College, Charlottetown, P.E.I., while the groom is a graduate of Somerville High School of Accounting.

This Man STANDS OUT!

YOU, too, can stand out among the citizens of this city, as a member of the R.C.N. (Reserve) team! By getting into uniform NOW you can get in a full winter's regular spare-time training in time to qualify to "go places" next summer. By joining the R.C.N. (R), you actually join Canada's Navy — as a Reservist!

IN THE R.C.N. (Reserve) . . .

. . . you will be using your spare time to gain valuable skills and knowledge — which can help in your civilian life — and which will prepare you to take an active and effective part in defence of freedom of the seas, should the need arise.

IN JOINING THE R.C.N. (R) NOW . . .

. . . you will be trained and eligible to go on a two week salt-water cruise next summer — gaining practical experience at sea.

. . . you will get first class training — at full naval pay for time spent — good sports activities — good comradeship — community respect.

Canada's Navy has a job to do—in defence of freedom of the seas. It needs a strong Reserve in the Naval Divisions from coast to coast!

Charlottetown's Naval Division is . . . H.M.C.S. QUEEN CHARLOTTE SIMS BUILDING, CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I.

For full particulars on how you can gain the advantages of R.C.N.(R) training, apply to the NAVAL RECRUITING OFFICER, at H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte—or telephone 666
