Local and Other Items.

ARRIVAL.—The Mirimichi arrived here at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

THE FOUNTAIN.—The site for the new fountain in Queen Square has been marked off.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.—We learn that His Lordship Chief Justice Palmer has obtained six months leave of absence.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Costello Weston, of the St. John, N. B., Universalist Church, is expected to speak in this city soon.

POLICE COURT.—One Scott Act case constituted the docket this forenoon. It was adjourned until Monday next.

GOOD.—The Market Committee deserve every commendation for the improvement they have effected in the interior of the Market House.

LOBSTERS SEIZURE.—Mr. Frank Stanley, of the Fisheries Service, seized a quantity of lobsters on Market Square to-day. They were not up to the required size.

MEETING.—A meeting of the Baptist Church Building Committee will be held in the office of Messrs. McLeod, Morson & McQuarrie on Saturday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

QUEEN SQUARE GARDENS.—A correspondent asks if it is the intention of the Electric Light Company to supply the two lamps this season, which gave such an attraction to the Gardens last year.

BEATING THE RECORD.—To-day's Island Guardian contains a contributed article, intituled, "A Summer Evening," one sentence of which contains 81 lines and 463 words. Long evening. Good evening!

CRICKET.—A cricket match will be played on the Park Cricket Club grounds, Victoria Park, to-morrow afternoon, between Lawyers and Bankers vs. Allcomers. Stumps will be pitched at three o'clock, sharp.

MARITIME SUGAR.—The Times says that during the past two weeks eight car loads of sugar, from the Moncton and Halifax refineries, have been disposed of in Montreal by one of the leading wholesale firms in St. John.

STILL THEY COME.—Says the St. John Globe: Mr. George A. Davies, as counsel for Miss McCrackin, has issued papers in a breach of promise suit for $2,000 against a well known Queen's County farmer living at Hampstead.

A CLEVER CAPTURE.—Leopold and Neil McCallum, sons of Mr. William McCallum, Postmaster at Brackley Point, aged 14 and 10 years respectively, recently captured an eagle in a fox trap. The bird measured six feet six inches from tip to tip of the wings.

THE M. A. STARR.—The M. A. Starr arrived from Halifax at one o'clock to-day, with a cargo of general merchandise. She will leave on return between six and seven o'clock this evening, with an outward cargo of pork, oatmeal, etc.

EVIDENTLY PROSPERING.—We learn from the Moncton Times that Mr. Paul Lea (formerly of Charlottetown) has the frame up for an extensive addition to his mill, at the foot of Westmorland street. Mr. Lea reports abundance of work, as usual. The extension is made necessary by reason of growing business.

FLOWER STEALING.—We are informed that the practice of stealing flowers from graves is again becoming prevalent. A night or two ago, one of the graves in the People's Cemetry was despoiled in this manner. We understand that a careful watch is to be kept over the graves in future in order to prevent a repetition of the contemptible work.

PUGILISTIC.—Joe Lannon and Denny Kelliher are the principals in a limited glove fight, to take place on the evening of July 2nd, for a purse of $1,000 and a side bet of $1,000.

Jack Havlin and Johnny Griffin, two well-known featherweights, fight 25 rounds to-night, for a purse.

EARLY BARLEY.—Mr. Hector McLeod, of Charlottetown Royalty, exhibited at THE EXAMINER office, this afternoon, a stalk of barley, well out in head, which was grown in an open field. The seven stems range in height from 2 to 2½ feet. It is unusual to see barley so well advanced in growth so early in the season. The stalk can be seen at this office.

ANOTHER TERRIBLE CYCLONE.—A cyclone formed about six miles southwest of McPherson, Kan., on Wednesday afternoon, passing three times through the county. Where it struck, everything was destroyed. Near Elyria it took a house from its foundation with all its contents. Not a vestige has been seen since. The family escaped by taking refuge in a cellar. Corn and wheat has been taken out of the ground. No lives were lost.

HILLSBOROUGH SQUARE.—The committee in charge have recently very much improved the appearance of those beautiful grounds. They have planted upwards of forty young trees in place of those maliciously destroyed during the past year; and in order to protect those trees in future, have placed a wire fence around them. The walks are all opened and rounded up, and the centre is planted with native shrubbery. All who wish to enjoy a pleasant walk, free from the dust of the city, cannot do better than frequent this quiet and pleasant resort.

THE RIFLE.—At the Engineers' competition at Kensigton Range yesterday, for a gold medal and two badges, Sapper Longworth won the first match, with 88 points out of a possible 105, followed by Sergt.-Major Grey, with 84 points. In the "junior shots" competition, Lieut. Leigh won with 55 points out of a possible 70, followed by Sapper Brehaut, with 52 points. The ranges were for the old shots, 200, 500 and 600 yards, and for the new shots, 200 and 400. The next match will be fired early next month.

FOR LIVERPOOL.—The barkentine Erema, P. Ledwell, master, with the following cargo, sailed for Liverpool, G. B., on the 30th inst: 371 cases lobsters, shipped by Bowness & Anderson; 407 do, by W. Matheson; 345 do, by D. Davies; 71 do, by R. T. Holman; 826 pcs. hardwood timber, containing 12,280 cubic feet, and 3,500 pcs. of deals and ends, containing 67,500 superficial feet, shipped by the owners, Peake Bros. & Co. This vessel will sail again from Liverpool for Charlottetown about the 1st of July, as advertised.

Late Ottawa News.

OTTAWA, May 30.

The Premier returned from Montreal to-day, and reports the Conservative banquet a great success.

It is understood to be definitely decided that Edward Murphy, of Montreal, will succeed the late Senator Ryan. Mr. Murphy is a wealthy and respected business man, being for some years past the almost sole proprietor of the hardware business carried on under the name of Frothingham & Workman.

The next meeting of the Supreme Grand Orange Lodge will be held at St. John.

It is stated that there are 3,000 American war veterans in Canada. A Post of the Grand Army is shortly to be established here under command of Major Chapleau.

The Cronin Murder.

CHICAGO, May 30.

The Globe this morning says: It can no longer be disguised that the police, as well as the Cronin committee, are convinced that Cronin came to his death as the result of a conspiracy involving a number of prominent Irish Americans, among whom is Alexander Sullivan, the well known Chicago attorney. It was known that Cronin had made serious charges against the lawyer, and at least one of his colleagues of the Clan-na-Gael triumvirate in connection with the misappropriation of Irish National funds. The defalcation charged exceeds $80,000, and the allegations were to have been heard at Philadelphia this year.

The Taillon Banquet.

MONTREAL, May 30.

The Taillon banquet, which did not finish until two this morning, was the greatest ever known in French Canada. Over 900 guests were present, and 400 ladies, beautifully costumed, graced the gallery. M. Taillon made a masterly speech, and Sir John A. Macdonald's reception at the hands of the English and French guests surpassed all possible conception, and the veteran chieftain termed it the crowning event of his long political career. Sir Adolphe Caron, Hon. Mr. Chapleau, Hon. Mr. Costigan, Mr. Curran, Mr. Lynch and others made exhaustive speeches.

Transporting Troops.

TORONTO, May 30.

An Ottawa special to the Empire says that the Canada Southern Railroad applied to the Customs Department for permission to transport United States troops through Canadian territory, the 13th regiment of New York being desirous of visiting Minneapolis during the middle of August. The reply of the Department was that the application must be made through the United States Government.

Suicide of a Girl.

MONTREAL, May 30.

This morning, J. A. Delefrench, a servant girl with a Mrs. Elliot, went to communion at Jesu Church at six o'clock, came home, and entering her master's room shot herself through the heart with a revolver, death taking place at once. An inquest will be held to-morrow.

The Report Denied.

LONDON, May 30.

In the House of Commons this evening Sir James Ferguson, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, denied the report from Victoria, B. C., that three men-of-war had been ordered to Behring Sea to protect British sealing vessels from interference by American men-of-war.

A FAMOUS EQUINE TRIO.—Says an exchange: There are now three horses in Robert Bonner's New York city stables with records below 2.20. They are Maud S., 2.08¾; Rarus, 2.13¼; and Pickard, 2.18¼. The queen of the trotting turf is looking the picture of health this spring. Mr. Bonner jogs her every morning. Rarus is beginning to show the weight of his twenty-two years, still he has as good an appetite as any horse in the stable, and is always ready for his feed. He occupies the box opposite to that in which Dexter died a little over a year ago. Pickard's box is between the famous pair that cost Mr. Bonner $75,000. He is a typical race horse, having the deep muscular quarters and finish that impresses anyone who looks him over.

The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrillton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me." Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.
