HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Robert S. Cousins, returned to her home in Darnley, after spending the past two months in Toronto, the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Woodside and family.

The Hamilton Hall Committee sponsored a successful card party in Hamilton hall, when nine tables of cards were in play. The ladies' first prize went to Shirley Morrison and the gentlemen's to Wendel Crozier, while consolation awards were won by Mrs. Wendel Crozier and Paul Gallant. Refreshments were served.

Everett L. Donald returned to his home in Kensington after spending a week with his brother, Robert Donald, K.C. and Mrs. Donald of Halifax, N.S.

An Edmonton Sunday School is doing its bit to help Arab refugee babies in the Gaza Strip. Because large safety pins are always in short supply, the children were asked to make up a mile of pins. The superintendent explained that 10 large pins stretch to 12 inches and that 150 of his Dad today, of one morning - born.

"The night we have now. We exchanged the dawn - break for the dimness and the stars. And looking back? It is to know that, all in all our day has been good. - Until tomorrow - Diary - Good - night...."

"Will there be more snowfall?" we wondered at supper. Alex looked up from the "Funny" he was smiling over on the couch. "There shouldn't be," he commented "because do you know what I saw today?" "A 'bar!' James said in an aside to Peter with a grin. Peter shook his head.

"We don't have bears on this island," he said rather wistfully. "I saw a flock of Canada geese - the first I have seen this spring! They were headed west - they take different directions, you know" Alex smiled. "I knew at once they were geese because they flew in a V, and I also heard them call."

"No, none yet. Only the sparrows - that's all the birds we have now," Peter sighed. "And the bluejays" we reminded him. "And the woodpecker, and the crows." "We'll not hurry the robins," James offered. "They'll come, and all in good time, never fear."

"Bright and cheery, the day was. Mack has come by now through its starshine. Ha!" he comments with a chuckle reading his "Funnies" in a farm paper, "aren't they the simple ones! Listen to this: "Have you ever appeared as a witness in a suit before?"

"Why of course!" smiled the pretty young girl. "Will you please tell the jury what suit it was?" "It was a blue suit," she replied quickly, "with a white collar and cuffs and buttons all the way down the front."

Wild geese along spring's trails today. Calls blithe in the bright lengthening days. Cheerful. Unlike the doleful notes they leave behind in Fall. "It's good to see you!" James said greeting a farm - pair this evening. "Before long, everybody'll be into the farming, and there will be too little time to chat. Now tell me," he said presently when all had settled about the hearth, "how does the farming go down the River?"

Seasonally at this farm: the choring increases. Babes of younglings appear in the stables. "Now where on earth shall we put this one?" Peter queried.

Open-faced sandwiches become special fare, if they're topped with cheese and popped under the broiler for a few minutes. A quick-to-fix filling that most modern day heroes will adore is made by combining a 12-ounce can of corned beef with 1/2 cup chili sauce and 1/2 cup diced stuffed olives. Spread the mixture on rolls, scones or bacon buns, and top with cheese slices.

When the gals stay the night, breakfast can be a real "fun" time... especially if it's a do-it-yourself meal. Prepare the fixings for French Toast—a simple egg and milk mixture and plenty of bread—then let the young lasses make their own at the table, in the waffle iron or on an electric griddle.

When the gals stay the night, breakfast can be a real "fun" time... especially if it's a do-it-yourself meal. Prepare the fixings for French Toast—a simple egg and milk mixture and plenty of bread—then let the young lasses make their own at the table, in the waffle iron or on an electric griddle.
