Drugmen Steal Show

Lien to the story of the dis-in recorded in a group of five the. The Enman Drug soft, the ball team were covered on Sat-sunday from the softball diamond the day had played on all summer because the Summerside Spud-and the Halifax Comets 5-4, and the RCAF softball team had won the 100 play the in an inter-ladies' softball game there. Enman Drug were told to go shift themselves and they shifted to into high gear. Playing on a friendly world and makes good field that was almost as strange don't it sort of get you in the as it was to the Moncton performers, the nevertheless belmily physician for that one, sout a 19-10 victory, the only John).

A Dramatic Play

There were a number of fancy pots-ots in the Enman Drug-Moncton game, but the most spectacular was when John Hailley, base-judge pointed a dramatic forefinger at a Moncton player and a Moncton coach and said:
"You're out!" The plate umpire, a Moncton resident, who, by the way, was in our entirely opinion a very fair and square umpire, was being abused and jostled by the Moncton boys because of an interference call made them. Just when it looked as if somebody was ready to throw a right hook, Hailley stepped in and got his finger into the pitcher's. The first-ten ump was taking a long

Junior Team Defeated

We saw very little of the junior baseball game which was something of a surprise.
We were there in the final inning, however, when the tryout team at the plate and a ball of chucked-headed base-running at second base smiled the Summerside team's last chance of victory.
Gerry Smith had one of the power days of his life and was probably laid in there too long. Score was 2-1 for the home team.
We wouldn't be overly surprised if the Summerside Juniors pulled this series out of the fire yet. We saw the second game between our Summerside and Halifax which was a cliff-hanger with the visiting Comets pulling across winning run in the final inning. Hunk Runke starred at the plate and it was the field for Summerside.
